CROWDS HEAR HOOVER

FIRST REPORTS BRING CHEST FUND OVER $16,000

Campaign Opens For United Fund With High Hopes

Contributions Of $16,517 Reported At Opening Dinner Last Evening

JOHNSTOWN MAN ADDRESSES GROUP

Next Report Will Be Given At Luncheon Meeting In Castleton Monday

With $12,000 reported by the big gifts committee as a nucleus, division chairmen and their group captains last evening added $4,517 to the amount to bring the united Community Chest and Mayor's Relief fund up to $16,517 at the opening dinner in The Castleton.

The chairmen had been urged at the final organization meeting last Tuesday to come to the meeting Friday evening prepared to report on the contributions of the workers in their different divisions, but only a partial report was submitted.

Based on the showing made last evening, and the tremendous interest displayed by the men and women who are going out to put this year's campaign across, Monday's report should be just as good and the workers hope to have the fund well along toward its $65,000 goal when they submit their results at that time.

McEldowney Speaks.

Robert McEldowney, prominent Johnstown resident, who is assisting in the Community Chest drive under way in that city, was the principal speaker at the meeting last evening.

Mr. McEldowney stated that he was present for the same reason that prompted every other man and woman in attendance; namely, because Traveling game protector, Walter Pattison, who returned Thursday afternoon from a tour of his district north of Lawrence county brought back a ferret, which he took from a man using it illegally in Crawford county. It attracted quite a little attention among a crowd which has assembled in Alderman Mantz's office. There is a penalty of $25 for anyone caught in the field with a ferret in his possession.

Motorists; Don't forget tomorrow and for the next two weeks or so that you'll have to drive to Ellwood City to get to Wampum and points in that section, for the Route 18 stretch is closed. Until the approaches to the new Mahoning river bridge are completed, traffic will be detoured.

It wasn't election day Thursday but if you stepped inside the Senior high school you might have imagined so. A straw vote was taken in the presidential race and the enthusiasm it spread was not kept hidden.

It takes a tremendous number of buttons to supply the demand for the garments being turned out under the direction of the Red Cross garment committee from cloth donated by the National Red Cross. The supply which had previously been donated is now exhausted. The need is urgent and the cause most worthy. Anyone having buttons is asked to bring them to Red Cross headquarters, 17½ South Mercer street.

Pinchot Asks Relief Board For Assurance

Governor Of Pennsylvania Wants Assured Of Funds By R. F. C. During Winter

CAN GO AHEAD AND PLAN BUDGET

Pinchot Courteous As He Appears In Washington To Plead State Cause

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—Gov. Gifford Pinchot of Pennsylvania today appeared personally before the directors of the Reconstruction Finance Corp. to get the assurance from them that Pennsylvania's relief needs through the winter would be taken care of by federal loans.

"Such an assurance will allow us to make a budget and plan our relief program scientifically," Pinchot said before the conference. "We have data to lay before the directors, and want to put the whole matter on a business-like basis."

Lieut. Gov. Edward Shannon and Maj. Gen. Edward Martin accompanied the governor.

Amount Not Revealed.

Pinchot declined to say how much was being sought for Pennsylvania for the balance of the winter.

"Out of courtesy to the directors, I think this should first be laid before them before I say anything about it publicly," the governor said.

Pennsylvania has received two R.

Steel Officials Guests Of Rentz

Hughes And McKaig Here On Informal Visit On Thursday Afternoon

I. Lamont Hughes, of Pittsburgh, President of the Carnegie Steel Company, accompanied by C. V. McKaig, vice-president and general sales manager of the Carnegie Steel Company, were in New Castle on Thursday on an informal visit. With a number of local citizens they were guests of Fred L. Rentz, President of The News Company, at a dinner at The Castleton. Following the dinner, Mr. Hughes and Mr. McKaig accompanied Mr. Rentz on a tour of the New Castle News plant.

"This is certainly different from the old News plant from which I secured papers to sell, some 35 years ago," Mr. Hughes commented, as the inspection was completed.

Mr. Hughes was a resident of New Castle as a boy, and is one of the large number of former New Castle News newsboys who have risen high in the business world.

Gov. Roosevelt Speaks Monday

Will Start New England Tour By Making Address In Boston

REPORT CANDIDATE IS "FIGHTING MAD"

By RAYMOND I. BORST
International News Service Staff Correspondent

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 28.—Rested from his recent strenuous campaign in the Middle West and South, Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt today started drafting the speech he will deliver Monday night in Boston in his whirlwind swing through New England.

The Democratic presidential nominee, his advisors revealed, is "fighting mad" because of the repeated declarations by the Republicans that election of the Democratic national ticket will impede business recovery.

Senator Key Pittman of Nevada, Senator James Byrnes of So. Carolina and Professor Raymond E. Moley of Columbia University, frequently referred to in the Roosevelt camp as "the brain trust" were scheduled to come to the executive mansion today to aid the governor

Seventeen-Year Old Unwed Mother And Male Companion Are Held By Los Angeles Police

CASE RECALLS BIG CONTROVERSY

(International News Service)

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 28.—Pretty 17-year-old Ruth Borman, unwed mother, and her friend, M. E. Warner, 24, an iceman, were in jail today facing charges of kidnaping Miss Borman's 3-year-old daughter Nancy Buchanan, from the home of the latter's foster mother, Mrs. Violet Buchanan, wealthy divorcee.

The baby was kidnaper from her nursery in the Buchanan home and found 18 hours later with Miss Borman at San Fernando, Cal. Offices said they were endeavoring to link Miss Borman with two threatening notes sent Mrs. Buchanan last August.

Legalized Beer Urged By Green

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, today called on congress to legalize beer at its December session as a measure of unemployment relief.

Green made it plain the American Federation of Labor would oppose any move to delay legalization of beer until the new congress convenes, sometime after next March 4.

"I hope congress will take definite action at the December session to legalize 2.75 percent beer," said Green.

Epic Of Skies Is Written By Naval Aviators

MOTORISTS DONATE THEIR HEADLIGHTS

Not One Of Fliers Injured, Plans Udamaged By Precarious Landings

(International News Service)

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Oct. 28.—An epic of the skies had been written above San Diego today.

Trapped in heavy fog during Navy Day maneuvers 14 United States navy planes, aloft with dwindling fuel supplies, were landed safely after heroic efforts by pilots and navy officials.

Six of the airplanes landed yesterday afternoon as fog closed in over San Diego Bay and North Island, and two were led to the ground by a radio-equipped plane, but six of the planes were forced to remain aloft until 10 p. m.

No One Injured.

No one was injured in the precarious landing of the planes.

Camp Kearney Airport is unlighted and San Diego radio listeners were thrilled at 6 p. m. when the navy broadcast a dramatic appeal for all motorists to hurry to the airport in order that the lights of the automobiles might serve as "emergency landing lights."

More than 2,000 motorists responded, formed a huge square on Camp Kearney Mesa, where the fog was not so heavy, and the six airplanes made emergency landings.

Landing gears of four of the planes were damaged. None of the planes was destroyed, and none of the aviators was injured, navy officials reported.

WILL ROGERS says:

(Special To The News)

CORAL GABLES, Fla., Oct. 28.—Winter is coming and tourists will soon be looking for a place to mate.

Now let's get this Florida and California thing settled. I can afford to be fair, for I can't sell my lots out there, anyhow.

Hotels even: Both have wonderful ones. People even: Both equally windy. Distance from civilization even. Tennis, California; horseshoe pitching, Florida. Desert and mountains, Cal.; lakes, Florida. Bathing, Florida wins. We take to the tub about October. Good roads. Pardon me, Florida, I shouldn't have brought that up.

Millionaire visitors even, none either place. That's a race of people that has been entirely exterminated by bad judgment. Florida excells in fish and Democrats. Outside of Catalina Island we can't touch you on fishing. So if you like to fish and look at Democrats, Florida is your onion. But you've got to come to Cal. to see Janet Gaynor, Sally Eilers, Clara Bow, Greta Garbo. Are you listening?

Yours,

Safety Trophy Is Presented At Radiator Plant

Formal Ceremonies Take Place At National Radiator Company Plant

GENERAL SAFETY ENGINEER SPEAKS

Presentation Exercises Bring Commendation From Many Local Leaders

Employes of the National Radiator Corporation saw the results of their campaign of safety during the first six months of 1932 today, when they were presented with the National Safety Council trophy, signifying that the New Castle plant stood first in the iron foundries division of the metal section of the council for the period mentioned.

The trophy was presented to the plant employes by J. A. Coltrin, general safety engineer of the corporation. He in turn received it at the safety congress held in Washington, D. C., some weeks ago.

The trophy presentation saw practically all plant employes from top to bottom present. A platform was erected in the foundry room adjoining the offices and here were gathered the speakers of the day and a number of guests. R. W. Bolsinger, chief clerk of the plant and secretary of the plant safety committee, was the chairman of the meeting and opened it by stating the purpose of the meeting. He then introduced Mr. Coltrin.

Presentation of Trophy

Mr. Coltrin expressed the pleasure that had been his upon the receipt of the trophy at the safety congress and congratulated the New Castle plant employes upon their achievement in going through six months of work without a single lost time accident. He urged them to a continuance of this splendid record and presented the trophy to E. L. Brundage, plant superintendent.

Mr. Brundage, who is chairman of the plant safety committee, accepted the trophy upon behalf of the employes. He said that while the trophy was deeply appreciated, the thing that he appreciated most was the fine spirti of loyalty and cooperation upon the part of the

Nearly 80 Hurt In London Riot

Nineteen Police And 58 Demonstrators Injured In Clashes Yesterday

MARCHERS ARMED WITH BOLTS, CLUBS

By HARRY K. REYNOLDS
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

LONDON, Oct. 28—Placing the official casualties of the Hyde Park unemployment riot at 19 police and 58 demonstrators injured, Sir John Gilmour, secretary of the state for home affairs, told the house of commons today that the demonstrators carried weapons "by deliberate intent".

Sir John, answering the request of George Lansbury, Labor leader, for official information on the riot, said two of the policemen were still in the hospital with serious injuries.

He revealed the demonstrators hurled iron bolts at the police, who found 154 sticks hidden in a truck, some of them studded with nails.

"The presence of such weapons," he said, "could only be by deliberate intent."

Twelve arrests were made, and the demonstrators were arraigned in the Marlborough street and Marylebone police courts while heavy cordons of police amintained guard both inside and outside the buildings.

Charged with various offenses, the violators were either fined or merely reprimanded.

PRESIDENT IS SQUARELY FOR PROTECTIVE TARIFF

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
International News Service Staff Correspondent

ENROUTE WITH PRESIDENT HOOVER TO INDIANAPOLIS, ATHENS, O., Oct. 28.—President Hoover travelled thorugh the industrial valley of the Ohio river today preaching the doctrine of high tariff protection and warning that but for its protective features, "your industries would not be merely depressed, they would be utterly destroyed."

The Democrats, he charged, propose to tear down this protection.

"Their candidate for president," he asserted, "constantly repeats his demand for repeal of what he calls this exhorbitant tariff. My own position is clear. I am squarely for a protective tariff."

The voters, he added, must choose between these policies in November.

"Only a few days ago a delegation from one of your principal industries called upon me in Washington to describe the situation as you feel it here with employment reduced to only two and one-half days a week. These gentlemen represented both employers and workers.

"I would point out to you that this situation illustrates perfectly the imperative need of the protection

Two Men Caught Here Are Taken To Butler Jail

McDONALD'S HOBBY IS JAIL BREAKING

Sam Di Cuppo and Frank Miller, whose correct name is James McDonald, who were arrested Monday afternoon for stealing the automobile of L. R. Dight at Plaingrove, were taken from the Lawrence county jail to the Butler jail, by Sheriff Thompson of Butler at noon today.

The pair is wanted at Butler on several serious charges, and after Sheriff Thompson had consulted with District Attorney John Powers, it was agreed that the men be taken back to Butler for trial, as the charges there are said to include forgery, auto thefts, and jail breaking.

Makes Identity

Butler authorities were interested in the description of Miller after his arrest here and his escapade in walking out of the county jail last Tuesday with some visitors and subsequent recapture by Russell McBride. A state policeman from the Butler barracks came over and identified Miller as James McDonald of Butler. Sheriff Thompson then came over and confirmed the identification.

According to Thompson, McDonald walked out of the police station at Butler over a year ago after he had been brought in on suspicion of having been implicated with a gang of automobile thieves. He remained away from Butler for nearly a year and then came back to see a sweetheart and was again arrested.

Fine Start Is Made Today In Food Donations

Results Of This Morning's Ingathering Are Most Encouraging

Campaign For Jameson Hospital Food Continues Through Saturday

Noon report from the Jameson Memorial Hospital Aide society was to the effect that the ingathering of food donations received a flying start during the morning hours.

An almost constant flow of cars brought to the lobby of the Jameson Memorial hospital scores and scores of jars of fruits, vegetables, jellies and many baskets and bushel bags of supplies such as sugar, potatoes and onions.

If this morning's record continues throughout this first "donation day" and Saturday, there will be no doubt that the campaign for hospital food will be the biggest success of any previous year. The food is coming from the citizens of New Castle and Lawrence county. Soliciting was done by the Hospital Aide society through churches and granges.

Food is being received both at the hospital and in the vestibule of the First Presbyterian church, corner of Jefferson and Falls streets. Representatives of the Aide society are located at both places.

King Carol And Princess Helen May Be Reunited

Princess Helen Asks For $50,000 Annually For Self And $60,000 For Michael

CABINET WILL DECIDE TODAY

(International News Service)
Copyright, 1932, By International News Service

BUCHAREST, Rumania, Oct. 28.—The dramatic duel of the past week between King Carol and his divorced queen, now the Princess Helen, was brought to a climax today.

Helen not only insisted that she remain in Bucharest and assume full control of the education of their son, the 11-year-old Crown Prince Michael, but also demanded $110,000 annually, a sum equal to more than two-thirds of the entire Rumanian civil list.

Of the $110,000, Helen asked $50,000 for herself and $60,000 for Prince Michael.

To Meet Today

Carol although refusing to turn his son's share over to Helen, agreed to pay his former queen the $50,000 annually she asked.

The cabinet was scheduled to meet today to decide for or against Helen. The meeting will follow two days of conversations at the Royal Palace at Sinaia between Carol, Premier Juliu Maniu, friend of Helen's, and Nicholas Titulescue, former premier, close to Carol but violently opposed to Helen's return.

President On Way To Indiana; Speaks Tonight

PROTECTIVE TARIFF STRESSED AT STOPS

Hoover Guest Of Governor Of Indiana In Hoosier State Capital

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
International News Service Staff Correspondent

ENROUTE WITH PRESIDENT HOOVER TO INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 28.—President Hoover parked his official reserve in Washington today and began another personal campaign trip through hotly-contested Ohio and Indiana, normally Republican states, but always doubtful.

It is Mr. Hoover's fourth essay into the mid-west since the campaign opened, which is eloquent testimony as to the importance which the Republican high command attaches to the electoral votes of these states.

Speaks Tonight.

Tonight, in Indianapolis, he will deliver another major speech of his campaign for re-election. Enroute thereto he planned a dozen rear platform appearances at cities along the route of the B. & O. through West Virginia, Ohio and Indiana.

Mr. Hoover's route today carried him through portions of the three states not hitherto visited in his previous trips. But his message to the crowds was substantially the same—the importance of preserving the Republican tariff as a protection to the industrial cities of the Ohio river valley, and an exposition of how his administration has moved to checkmate the effects of the depression.

Normally Republican.

All three of the states through which Mr. Hoover travelled today, while normally Republican in national elections, have been revealed in the straw votes and newspaper polls to have distinct Democratic leanings. In 1928 he carried West

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—Republican leaders today denied reports that Col. Charles A. Lindbergh would make a coast-to-coast flight in support of President Hoover's campaign for re-election.

It was admitted the "Lone Eagle" was asked to undertake such a trip. Lindbergh declined, however, because he did not wish to emerge from his retirement and added that he thought "the president will understand," party officials said.

And he watches the calendar day after day, that's the reason the golfer is blue for it won't be so long till the golf days are done, the weather is cool, fifty two.

ADDITIONAL RELIEF FUNDS FOR COUNTY

Lawrence County Is Given $45,647 For Relief Needs

Additional Grants Of Relief To 59 Counties Made By State Relief Board

MAY USE PART TO PROVIDE FUEL

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Oct. 28.—Fifty-nine county relief boards were notified today of additional grants for relief made by the state emergency relief board, totaling $1,500,000.

Five per cent of this money may be used to provide fuel. The allocations leaving only $108,000 remaining of the $5,842,000 granted thus far by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

The counties omitted from the latest lists of grants were Philadelphia, Pike, Snyder, Butler, Chester, Lancaster, Mifflin, and Montour.

The sums given other counties included:

Allegheny, $251,038; Beaver, $35,346; Blair, $15,904; Centre, $8,741; Clearfield, $75,000; Erie, $21,779; Fayette, $61,448; Huntingdon, $3,463; Indiana, $25,000; Jefferson, $15,856; Juniata, $1,306; Lawrence, $45,647; McKean, $9,561; Mercer, $22,586; Venango, $20,000; Washington, $19,347; Westmoreland, $37,400.

Virginia by 112,000, Ohio by nearly 750,000 and Indiana by almost 300,000.

He began campaigning early this morning at Parkersburg, W. Va., and his other stops before reaching Indianapolis were scheduled for Athens, Hamden, Cincinnati, Hamilton and Oxford, all in Ohio, and in Liberty, Connersville, Rushville and New Palestine, Ind. Rushville is the home town of Senator Watson, whose senatorial fate is in doubt this troubled political year.

Guest of Governor.

At Indianapolis tonight, President Hoover will be the personal guest of Gov. Harry Leslie before proceeding to Butler university, on the outskirts of the city, to make his address. He will leave the Hoosier capital at 10:30 on the return trip to Washington, campaigning tomorrow through still another section of West Virginia.

Mr. Hoover will have to share the political spotlight tonight with one of his severest Democratic critics, Gov. Albert C. Ritchie of Maryland. While the president is speaking at the university, Gov. Ritchie will be addressing a great Democratic rally in Cadle tabernacle.

They take their politics seriously in Indiana, and the rival Republican and Democratic shows tonight, each with old-fashioned torchlight parades and all the trimmings, promises to make political history in the old Hoosier state.

At Parkersburg.

ENROUTE TO INDIANAPOLIS WITH PRESIDENT HOOVER, PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Oct. 28.—President Hoover inaugurated his fourth invasion of the middle west today by greeting a crowd of several thousand here at Parkersburg.

Despite the early hour, the president appeared on the back platform of his private car and in a brief talk expressed his appreciation of the welcome. The day was sunny, but there was the nip of approaching winter in the air.

Mr. Hoover again preached the doctrine of the protective tariff, observing that this section of West Virginia needed the protection "which I have pledged myself to maintain".

afforded by the protective tariff. For example, the pottery and porcelain industries suffer from the competition of Japanese skilled workers who are paid a wage that at best dooms them to a standard of living lower than any unskilled day laborer in America would tolerate. If it were not for the protective wall of tariff your industries would not be merely depressed. They would be utterly destroyed. Instead of two and one-half days a week to work, your artisans would be without any hope.

"Yet our Democratic opponents propose to tear down this protection. Their candidate for president constantly repeats his demand for repeal of what he calls 'this exorbitant tariff.'

"My own position is clear. I am squarely for a protective tariff. I am unalterably in favor of preserving the right of American capital and American labor to develop American manufacturers on an American standard of living.

Of course money isn't everything, but it's the only thing that strikes twelve when you are in a jam.

MAYOR MAYNE ASKS STREETS BE KEPT CLEAR

Would Assist The South Side To Have Big Time Next Monday Night

Mayor Charles B. Mayne this morning announced that he was heartily in sympathy with the effort of South Side Board of Trade to put on a big Hallowe'en celebration on Monday night. He stated that it was the intention of himself and the city authorities to assist in every way possible in making the event a success.

His one request is that the motorists of the city refrain from parking on the streets of the district, which he has officially designated, on that evening from 6 p. m. until after the celebration is over.

No parking is to be permitted, the mayor stated, on Long avenue, between Pollock avenue and Moravia street; on South Mill street between Reynolds street and Long avenue and on Pollock avenue between Reynolds street and Long avenue. The mayor will appreciate it, if the motorists will co-operate in this matter.

Demands Winter Funds.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—Pennsylvania, through Gov. Gifford Pinchot, today demanded government relief funds for the remainder of the winter in proportion to its population and with relation to the amount loaned to other states.

Pinchot asked the directors of the Reconstruction Finance Corp. to budget the amount Pennsylvania could expect for every month from December 1 to April 1.

GOV. ROOSEVELT SPEAKS MONDAY

Although the itinerary for the New England trip is still in the tentative stage, except for the Boston speech, it is almost certain the governor will speak in Portland, Maine, about noon on Monday. After his appearance in Boston the governor is expected to invade Rhode Island and it is possible he will speak in Providence Tuesday night.

Governor Roosevelt is being flooded with requests from Democratic leaders in various cities throughout New England to speak there, if only for a few minutes. The party chiefs have told him that sentiment for the national ticket is growing by "leaps and bounds" in all parts of New England and that his appearance will "clinch" such states as Massachusetts, Connecticut and Rhode Island.

Leaving by motor about noon tomorrow the governor will go to Groton, Mass., where he will remain until Monday morning with his two sons, Franklin Jr., and John, who are attending a private school. If he decides to speak in Portland, he will leave Groton early Monday morning by motor, going by way of New Hampshire.

Tony Bell Given Two Year Sentence By Federal Judge

Former Fayette County Detective Weeps In Court As He Gets Sentence

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 28.—Pale, weeping and on the verge of collapse, Anthony W. "Tony" Bell, former Fayette county detective, today was sentenced to a federal penitentiary for two years by Federal Judge F. P. Schoonmaker on a conviction at Erie last March of conspiracy and impersonating a federal officer.

The sentence will run consecutively with that being served in Chillicothe. In addition the prisoner must pay one-fourth of the court costs.

After being acquitted of the murder of John F. Donohue, Fayette county constable, Bell returned to Uniontown this year as a state's witness against R. C. Bledsoe and Cosmo Stengoni, who likewise were acquitted of the murder.

He then was taken to Chillicothe to begin his penitentiary sentence. He will be returned there today and it is likely that the term imposed upon him here will be served in the Ohio prison.

This is a change from Saturday, the time previously announced for the funeral rites.

Mrs. Baker's Death

Funeral services of the late Mrs. Jacob Q. Baker of Hickory township, were held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Neshannock U. P. church with Rev. James Guthrie, pastor of the church in charge. The church was filled with relatives and friends.

During the services, the choir sang two songs, "In The Upper Garden" and "When The Roll Is Called Up Yonder."

The pallbearers were Russell McConnell, Paul McConnell, William Wimer, William Kildoo, Edward Irwin and Lake Kildoo. Interment was made in the Neshannock church cemetery.

Mrs. Myra Elizabeth Ramsey.

Funeral services for Mrs. Myra Elizabeth Ramsey were held Tuesday from the home of Mrs. Sarah Anderson at Leesburg, and the many floral tributes and large attendance of friends attested to her poularity.

The funeral rites were conducted by Rev. W. A. Lloyd, of the Presbyterian church of Leesburg and interment was made in the Carpenter cemetery.

Pallbearers were L. Drake, Kerr Black, Donald Rice, George Sweesy, John Woods and Clark Parshall.

Mrs. Magee Funeral.

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Magee, Springfield township, were held Thursday from the home with Rev. H. M. Stevenson of Farrell officiating, assisted by Rev. George Marquard, Grove City.

Interment was made in the Plaingrove United Presbyterian cemetery. Pallbearers were James Reeher, W. R. Forrest, W. A. Eppinger, J. A. Kyle, Ellsworth and John Magee.

Mrs. Eva Vance Dufford.

Mrs. Eva Vance Dufford, aged 75, wife of Francis P. Dufford, 104 South Crawford avenue, died at the family home Thursday, October 27, at 8:45 p. m. after an illness of two and a half years.

She was born in New Castle, October 25, 1857, the daughter of Margaret and James Milton Vance and had lived here her entire lifetime.

She was a member of the Christian and Missionary Alliance church.

She is survived by two sons: Ralph V. and Francis, L.; her husband; two grandchildren, Jean and Vance Dufford; a sister, Mrs. Anna Bell; two brothers, James W. Vance of West Middlesex and Howard of Los Angeles, Calif., and an aunt, Mrs. Harriet Vance Thompson, New Wilmington.

Funeral services will be held Monday at 2 p. m. from the Gospel Tabernacle of the Christian and Missionary Alliance church on Pearson street, with Rev. M. V. Lindsey of Akron, Ohio, officiating. Interment will be made in Oak Park cemetery.

SISTERHOOD PLANS MASQUERADE PARTY

The Hallowe'en spirit will be carried out and a gay time is assured the members and friends of Beth Shalom congregation when the members of the Sisterhood entertain them Sunday evening at a masquerade.

The committee: Mrs. H. Klivans, Mrs. Jack Gold, Mrs. Marc Levine, Mrs. Eli Kaplan and Mrs. L. F. Kohn are busily engaged in making plans for the evening's enjoyment. Bingo and other games will be pastimes and prizes will be awarded for the most unusual costumes and a delicious lunch in keeping with the holiday spirit will be served.

BERKMAH BRIDGE CLUB ENTERTAIN WEDNESDAY

The Berkmah Bridge club members assembled in the home of Miss Kathryn Hodge, Wallace avenue, on Wednesday evening for a social time. The hours were occupied with a contest in cards, and at conclusion of play it was discovered trophies were won by Muriel Edmunds and Martha Rose.

At a late hour the guests were invited into the spacious dining room where they were served a delectable lunch.

In two weeks Miss Dolores Gould of Elizabeth street will entertain.

Depression Party

The home of Mrs. Griff Thomas, Park avenue, was the scene of a merry gathering Thursday evening when the members of the Willing Workers class of the First Congregational church, arrayed in rags and tags, assembled for a depression party, and much merriment ensued as the women viewed with envy the ragged finery of each other.

Mrs. Clifford James presided at a short business session and then games were played and prizes were awarded Mrs. Charles Henry, Mrs. Daniel Davies and Mrs. James Davis.

In serving the lunch the hostess was aided by Mrs. Sol Davies and Mrs. William M. Johns.

Daughters Of Lydia.

Mrs. W. G. Dunn, 133 East street, will be hostess to the members of the Daughters of Lydia of the First Presbyterian church in her home Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

N. H. B. KENSINGTON MASQUERADE THURSDAY

Husbands of the N. H. B. Kensington members were special guests Thursday evening when they entertained at a Hallowe'en party in the C. C. Cooper residence on Mulberry street.

As the guests arrived the evening's activities were in progress and a series of contests and games that kept the hours lively, were featured. Prizes were won by Mrs. H. T. Cooper, R. L. Hildebrand, Ed. McKibben, Cheser Craft, Harvey Martin and H. T. Cooper at the close of the program.

Refreshments were served in keeping with season, and the appointments used further expressed the Hallowe'en idea. Places were arranged for twenty-five.

The committee responsible for the evening's success comprised Mrs. Cooper, Mrs. H. E. Martin, Mrs. N. M. Joseph, Mrs. H. L. Remley and Mrs. Clyde Griffith.

The regular meeting of the club is scheduled for Wednesday, November 2, with Mrs. H. T. Cooper of Meyer avenue as hostess.

NEAR THREE HUNDRED ATTEND BRIDGE PARTY

Between 250 and 300 women of New Castle enjoyed a style show and bridge party at Strouss-Hirshberg's store Thursday night, sponsored by the local Business and Professional Women's club.

Gathering at 8 o'clock, the guests were seated on the main and mezzanine floors of the building and the style show got underway promptly.

Later the bridge tables were filled and play continued for several hours, prizes going to the high score holder at each table. The prizes were unusual, being hand-made clothes brushes of multi-colors.

The affair was most successful. It was well planned and everyone found the evening very enjoyable. Compliments for the success of the evening go to the chairmen, Misses Mary Harvard, Ruth Sample and Lucile Lutton and their committees.

Masquerade Party.

On Monday evening about 40 friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Morgan, Waldo street, and participated in a surprise birthday party, honoring the latter.

Games and contests were forms of pastime and prize winers were D. E. Sturdevant, David Owens and Llewellyn Daniels. The costume prize winners were Mrs. Carl Sumner and Edward Owens.

During the evening Mrs. Morgan was presented with a number of lovely gifts in remembrance of her birthday anniversary.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Brown.

Hallowe'en Celebration

The primary department, of the Croton Methodist Church, held a delightful Hallowe'en celebration on Thursday evening from six to nine o'clock in the basement of the church.

Amid a surrounding of witches and goblins the children played games appropriate for the season and took part in a number of musical selections. As the entertainment drew to a close they were seated in a circle where they were served a most delicious Hallowe'en menu by their teachers the Misses Mariella Blaine, Elizabeth Reynolds, Ida Seward, Grace Gibson and Mr. Clare Locke.

HALLOWE'EN DANCE AT FIELD CLUB

The New Castle Field Club house will be the scene of much gaiety on Hallowe'en eve, October 31 when members gather for the annual seasonal celebration.

The event which is informal, permits the guests to make their appearance in costume or however they desire, and will be in the form of an "Old Home" get-together as members and former members have been extended an invitation to participate on this date.

Dancing will be in order from 9 until 1 o'clock and arrangements have been made to have a ten piece orchestra to furnish the music. Mr. and Mrs. James B. Matthews are at the head of the dance committee. For those not desiring to take part in so strenuous pastime, cards will be provided. Dr. and Mrs. John Foster will be hosts of the card room and play will last from 9 until 11 o'clock.

The club house rooms will be elaborately decorated in keeping with the occasion, and it is expected a large number will be present.

Toward mid-night a lunch will be served the guests.

REPUBLICAN WOMEN ENTERTAIN AT TEA

Several hundred New Castle women were delightfully entertained Thursday afternoon at a "Hoover" tea in the Green Room of the Y. W. C. A. as the guests of the Republican women organization.

The room was elegantly decorated by Mrs. Henrietta Dickson and Mrs. Ed Hennon, the lovely flowers, flags and other accessories having been donated by the merchants of the city.

Mrs. Fred Rentz and Mrs. A. S. Batchelor presided at the tea table, which was centered with a handsome floral centerpiece, and light refreshments were served.

Mrs. Harry Gormely, accompanied by Mrs. Anna Moore Pyle, delighted with her singing and the speaker of the afternoon was Senator Geo. T. Weingartner, who talked on the relief work program. Short talks were made by William McElwee, A. S. Batchelor and Bart Richards.

Hallowe'en Gathering

The Misses Mary and Dorothy Conrad of Allen street proved pleasing hostesses Wednesday evening when they entertained at a Hallowe'en party in their home. Games and other diversions filled in the hours nicely and prizes for costumes were awarded to Patricia Montgomery for the most comical and Virginia Davies for the cleverest.

A delicious lunch was served by the hostesses mother, Mrs. James Vallely assisted by Mrs. William Agnew and Mrs. John Agnew at the conclusion of the evening to the following: Harriet Hemphill, Dorothy Frey, Jane Agnew, Patricia Montgomery, Virginia Davies, Emma Shuller, Pauline Burrows, Andrew St. George, Robert Withers, Gerald Pontius, Clair Hite, Harold Rumstay, Merritt Reynolds, Charles Ruby, Frederick Sanford and David Davies.

Special guests who shared the evening were Mrs. Hilda Gillett and Mrs. McMillin, the latter who is visiting from Pittsburgh.

Plans were made for a Hallowe'en party to be held at the home of Mrs. Monroe Smith, Butler road this evening. In two weeks Mrs. Russell Crane of Harrison street will entertain at their regular session.

Musical Program

The Winter avenue unit of the Epworth Methodist church will entertain Tuesday evening, November 1, with a musical program in the community room of the church.

A quartet from Oil City will be the guest entertainers and there will be no admission charge, but a silver offering will be lifted.

Methodists Welcome Minister At Brilliant Reception Thursday

The members and friends of the First Methodist church extended a most hearty welcome to Rev. Norris A. White, D. D., the new pastor of the church, and his sister, Miss Mayme White, Thursday evening at a brilliant reception in the church, under the auspices of the Federation of Women's Societies, Mrs. G. D. Morris, president.

The Sunday school rooms had been transformed into a beautiful setting for the event under the hands of Mrs. W. Wood, Mrs. R. McClelland, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fisher and E. B. Bartlett, and as the guests entered the church they were received by Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Buchanan, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Garvin, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Pyle, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Hawkins and Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Reed and after being welcomed by them, they passed into the main auditorium, where another receiving line was formed and in this were Dr. and Miss White, Ralph Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Vennor Bright, Mrs. W. A. Stritmater, and Samuel Huey. Throughout the evening the Sunday school orchestra, under the direction of Dr. W. A. Womer, played numerous selections.

After the several hundred guests had greeted and welcomed the pastor, all were seated and DeLace Cole, in his unique and humorous way, introduced numbers on the program, which had been arranged by Mrs. Morris, Mrs. Gertrude Mitchell and Mr. Cole.

Albert Taylor, organist of the church, played a piano number; Dr. C. B. Wingerd, pastor of the Central Presbyterian church, brought greetings from the Ministerial Association; Vennor Bright brought a welcome from the Sunday school; Mrs. W. P. Felch, accompanied by Mrs. Anna Moore Pyle, sang two numbers, "The Boat Song" and "Homing"; little Kathryn Wilcox, in her inimitable manner, gave two clever readings; Norman A. Clarke of the Epworth Methodist church, brought the greetings from Methodists; Sam McCleary sang a number and Fred L. Rentz brought the greetings from the community.

Dr. White then responded in a most gracious manner and pledged his best efforts to the church and its progress and to the community at large.

At the close of the program the refreshment committee took charge and served light refreshments. This group included Mrs. Roy C. Miller, Mrs. Andrew Reider, Mrs. Ira S. Fulkerson, Mrs. C. C. Clarke, Mrs. J. W. Black, Mrs. George G. Knox and Mrs. N. Long and those serving were Mrs. Ira Campbell, Mrs. Frank McArthur, Mrs. John A. Butler, Mrs. J. K. Heess, Mrs. J. L. C. Warner.

KEELY HOME SCENE OF HALLOWE'EN EVENT

A gathering of young folks enjoyed a Hallowe'en party Wednesday evening held at the home of Miss Margaret Keely, 1117 West Washington street. The guests arrived wearing costumes of every description, and upon guessing "Who's Who" for which Kennedy Moore was awarded the prize, they indulged in a 500 contest. Prizes for this were won by Keith Anderson and Catherine Lane.

Lunch was served at individual tables, appropriately decorated, by Mrs. R. D. Keely and daughter Dorothy. Places were arranged for Margaret Keely, Rudolph Theis, Dorothy Miller, Rome Beltrum, Keith Anderson, Kathryn Lane, Ann Kelch, Kenneth Moore and Carlton Barnes.

EVENING BRIDGE AT CLUB HOUSE THURSDAY

The regular bridge party was held for New Castle Field Club members Thursday evening at the Field Club house. Hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Garland. Cards were in play at 8:30 o'clock.

Prizes at the close of the contests were awarded to Mrs. John Foster, Mrs. C. Ed Smith, Jr., L. H. Pattersen and Dr. J. R. Cooper. The serving of a delicious lunch concluded the evening.

Mrs. C. Sisley Honored.

Friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mrs. Claude Sisley on Birt avenue last evening to assist in celebrating her birthday anniversary, which proved a complete surprise.

The evening was spent socially with dancing, singing and games of wide variety. Bingo was featured and prizes were awarded to Mrs. Ed Fulkerson and Mrs. Frank Grodecour.

A delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Lew Kreuger, Mrs. Ed Fulkerson, Mrs. Ruby Rote and the Misses Ornetta and Edna Sisley.

The guest of honor was the recipient of a collection of lovely gifts in remembrance of the occasion.

Orchestra Entertained.

Members of the Casa Nova orchestra were entertained last evening by Miss Almira Cunningham and Ralph C. Day. Bridge, pinochle and music were the principal diversions of the evening. The bridge winners were Peggy Rugby and Charles Cunningham, while pinochle winners were Mr. and Mrs. Myron Lawther. Later in the evening a delicious lunch was served. Hallowe'en colors of orange and black were carried out with large candles and other decorations. The hostess was assisted by Miss Edna Sewell. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Llewellyn of Minnesota and Mr. and Mrs. Myron Lawther of Missouri.

Colonial Club.

Cards formed the pastime for the Colonial club members Thursday evening when they met with Mrs. Anthony Seregenise on East Lutton street. The prize for honors went to Frances DeCarbo, and following the contest lunch was served.

Do this for Your Child in

TWO WEEKS

How to rid any boy or girl of sluggishness or constipation and build a big appetite.

The trouble with children who will not eat is usually stasis. The symptoms are a tongue that's always coated, bad breath, poor color, dull eyes that are often a bilious yellow. No appetite, no ambition—even for play. Hard to get to sleep, hard to wake in the morning.

There's an absolute remedy for this condition. It gives listless youngsters the appetite and energies of a young animal! They eat! They gain! They keep well!

The California Treatment conquers Sluggishness

It's not the stomach, but the bowel condition that keeps children from eating. But the trouble is in the lower bowel—the colon. California fig syrup is the only "medicine" needed to stimulate the colon muscles. The very next day, your child is eating better and feeling better. Keep on with the fig syrup a few days and you will see amazing improvement in appetite, color, weight and spirits.

Any drugstore has the real California fig syrup, all bottled, with directions. Nature never made a nicer acting or nicer tasting laxative. (It is purely vegetable.) Remember California fig syrup when sickness, a cold or any upset has clogged a child's bowels.

WARNING

Even when it's something to give children, some stores will try to substitute. So be sure the bottle says CALIFORNIA Fig Syrup.

SPEAKING CANDIDLY ABOUT PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES

WHEN William Allen White, noted Kansas editor, puts his views into print, he usually says something in a way so convincing and possessed of such clarity that much of the fog of doubt and misunderstanding is swept away. He has done this very thing about the Presidential campaign, as he sizes up "The Men and the Issues" in the New York Herald Tribune Magazine.

With a candor that is at once startling, and forever admirable, he measures these men of the front rank, Hoover and Roosevelt:

"No one claims either is perfect. No one claims either is a villian or even a minor scamp. They are both money honest. * * * Both are good husbands, kind and indulgent fathers and patriotic citizens.

"Yet the difference between these men as public men mark the issues in the campaign. Admitting all the fine things that his admirers say of him, Franklin Roosevelt, who talks well, smiles easily, writes charmingly, has all the graces of Groton and Harvard, is not by any stretch of the imagination a man of iron. * * * Franklin Roosevelt means well amiably.

"On the other hand, conceding all that his enemies say of Herbert Hoover, admitting all his bad qualities, his stubbornness, his steady refusal to explain and dramatize his course so that the American people may understand what he is driving at * * * there still stands in the White House, a strong, wise, honest, courageous man; and the times call for such a man."

There is the comparison. Could anything be more clear-cut? Could anything be fairer—approximated by an observer who sits in his editorial chair in Emporia, Kansas, and yet knows the pulse of New York and the heartbeats of San Francisco? Quite as forcibly, then:

"This is no time for diplomacy, no time for fine phrases and an engaging literary style. The times demand conservation. We need all the stubbornness, all the willingness to take responsibility, without stopping to palaver. * * * We are not out of the woods, though we can see the light of the clearing. There is, indeed, one more river to cross, and that is the potential cataclysmic panic of 1933."

There, it seems, is the nugget of thought in the whole situation; aptly, directly, tellingly expressed. Can the nation afford to take a chance? Can Americans, thinking Americans, just to whet some fancied dislike, throw out one administration which already has set the wheels in motion and started a gradual improvement whose momentum must be maintained to keep things moving toward prosperity?

HUNTING DAYS NEAR

Once more the hunting season has rolled around and soon the sharp bark of the shotgun and the rifle will be heard throughout the land.

To a vast number of people the coming of the open season on game is the major event of the year and to many the trapping or shooting of game means a livelihood.

It is estimated that 5,000,000 people will be afield or afloat during the coming season. When one considers the number of non-hunters, such as guides, resort keepers, arms manufacturers who depend on this army for trade, the sport appears in an impressive business light. And this list doesn't include the doctors, surgeons, hospital attendants and cold-remedy makers.

Due to its wise conservation and game protective laws, Pennsylvania is now the greatest game hunting state in the union. This industry represents an annual turnover of close to $16,000,000 in Pennsylvania. It is the greatest state for deer as well as for bear, and the number of rabbits slaughtered is staggering.

It is hoped by all lovers of wild life that the hunters will remember to be sportsmen and not mere beggars and that the feathered and furred denizens of our fields and waters will not be too greatly decimated. The rules for hunting are to be had for the asking, and should be obtained at the same time as the license to hunt.

As for the hunters themselves, it may be well to remind them that a gun is best regarded as always loaded; that a movement in the brush is not necessarily game; and that pulling a gun out of a boat or car, barrel foremost, is often disastrous. Death is so awfully permanent!

POLITICAL DEFLATION

Scavengers that hover around party camps, particularly in presidential years, are finding the pickings lean this year for the "get the money" boys have not been as successful as in the last several campaigns.

In 1928 the Republican national committee reported campaign expenses of $4,056,017 and the Democratic national committee $3,157,453. The expenses of state and local committees increased the total to $16,000,000.

This year the G. O. P. program calls for the expenditure of $1,300,000 by the national committee and correspondingly smaller state and local war chests. The Democratic fund will not greatly exceed a million.

In curtailing their campaign expenses the party managers are not admitting that they spent too much four years ago and are now committed to the policy of smaller campaign funds. They are spending less because they are collecting less. Due to the depression contributions are smaller and fewer. The G. O. P. list is topped by $10,000 from former Senator Phipps, of Colorado. John J. Raskob with $25,000 is the heaviest Democratic sugar papa.

Though their circumstances are relatively straitened both major parties are spending enough this year. Both have reached the voters with their claims for support and neither is likely to awe the venal voter by a show of wealth. Too much money cannot safely be placed in the hands of practical politicians.

Tact is getting the other fellow to have your way.

Discretion is something men get after they are too old to use it.

Before they begin redistributing the great fortunes where do they propose to find them?

All Of Us

By MARSHALL MASLIN

She told me that her husband was the limit.

He was there at the time and he didn't deny a single accusation she brought against him.

He grinned at her and winked at me.

It seems that he's almost "impossible."

If a shirt hasn't any buttons on it, he yells.

He has at least 15 shirts, but he wears merely six of them—over and over and over again. And if those six shirts aren't clean he thinks it's funny that a man can't have a clean shirt when he wants it.

He has a couple of old suits hanging in the closet. He never wears them and never will. She gave one of them away to a salvage institution, and he made a terrible fuss over it.

It's the same way with his shirts. He can't stand the thought of giving any of those away, either. . . . And yet he's a very generous man who will give money without a second's hesitation.

As for neckties, he has quantities of them but sometimes he wears one of them for a week at a time and then wonders why neckties wear out. . . . And if he needs a new shirt or a new necktie or new underwear, will he let her buy them for him? Not he. Even though he praises her taste when she does buy one. . . . He has a funny idea that it isn't "manly" for a wife to buy her husband's wearing apparel.

Garters, too. . . . You'd think he'd made a bet to wear his garters two years at a time. He wears them so long that the elasticity goes out of them—and then waits three months before he gets another pair.

She asked me what I thought about him, and I told her that if she was thinking of taking him back and trading him in on another husband, she'd better not do it. . . . Because all husbands I've ever heard of are exactly like that. . . . According to their wives.

"BURNING" LETTERS

Something that a distant friend has said or done has angered you.

Your first impulse is to write and "burn him up."

You think of many mean things to say—all in one letter.

You recall some confidences he gave you when your friendship was strongest.

He may have told you things of which he now is ashamed and which in later and more sensible moments he realizes he should have kept to himself.

He has given you vulnerable points of attack and you propose to use them all in the one denunciatory letter you plan to write.

You feel you have enough to make him cringe, and perhaps you have.

But what real satisfaction will you get out of such methods?

Isn't it true he may know some damaging things about your own conduct?

How much would you gain by writing such a letter as you propose?

Wouldn't it be childish?

Maybe it might be a good plan for you to write such a letter and make it as vitrolic as within your power and get all your bad feeling out.

Then instead of burning up your friend, burn the letter.

FAULT-SEEING

'Tis strange the faults in him I see,
No great attraction hold for me.
Tempted by them I'd scarcely be.

I wonder since it is so plain
Why he will dice with loss and pain
So trivial a joy to gain.

That which he counts exquisite bliss
To win, and anguish keen to miss,
To me intolerable boredoom is.

Ah, well, I have my weakness, too.
And no doubt from his point of view,
He wonders at the things I do.

I think his follies shouldn't be.
He looks my way, but cannot see
The follies which appeal to me.

OUR BATTLE SONG "PUT HOOVER BACK AGAIN"
(Tune: The Battle Hymn Of The Republic)

From coast to coast they're rallying,
in village, city town;
For Herbert Hoover once again—a
a man of true renown.
The nation's trusted leader, whom no one can ever down.
Put Hoover back again.

Refrain:

Hoover, Hoover, Hoover, Hoover,
Hoover, Hoover, Hoover, Hoover,
Hoover, Hoover, Hoover, Hoover,
Put Hoover back again!

A knightly soul is Hoover, with devotion pure and strong;
To serve the nation faithfully: its name and fame prolong.
Beyond reproach in manhood, he will never lead us wrong.
Put Hoover back again.

Refrain:

The Democrats can't offer us a sugar-coated bait;
Their policies are too well-known for us to tolerate.
There's nothing else for us to do but leave them to their fate.
Put Hoover back again.

Refrain:

Our policies are like the sun that's never out of date.
That spreads but blessings everywhere without a breath of hate.
Whose long triumphant history needs none to vindicate.
Put Hoover back again.

Refrain:

The Democrats as marines can't guide a boat or sled;
That's why we have for many years laid them away as dead;
We'll beat them to a frazzle as our dear old Teddy said:
With Hoover back again.

JOE BULGER MEETS COLLEGE BOYS

While I am waiting for some experiments as regards juniper leaves & horse radish roots to come to a boil I take my facile pen in hand to tell you about some experiences which was had in raising taxes by the town of Hanover where is located the college of Dartmouth.

How I come by this news is this way. While I was in Boston I was stopping at the same boarding house where there was stopping the Dartmouth team etcettera which was there to play some foot ball with Harvard college. So I got myself introduced to this gang & says to them how is politics etcettera in Hanover & they said let us tell you Mr. Bulger how they raise taxes in our home town. They said Hanover is about as large as New Wilmington, Pa., but there is a good many thousand students & the town mayor got himself up a meeting of the politicians & says to them as follows to wit. Here we have a good many thousand students which is 21 years & older which do not pay us any taxes or vote but they all use our streets to walk on & all our stores to buy things in & we poor townspeople pay all the cost of government.

So the city attorney & the rest got a bill through the legislature providing to wit that the town of Hanover could assess a pole tax against every student 21 years old & give him the right to vote in Hanover & thus the town would roll in untold wealth & have lots of tax money to squander etcettera. & when they done so they said to the students you can now pay the poll tax whether you want to or not & also you can in return therefor exercise the right of suffering at the poles or not as you please.

The students said we will be very much pleased to do some voting. So what the town forgot was that the students was many more than the town voters. & the students came to the town meeting & passed some resolutions to build a 4 lane concrete subway from Hanover to New York. Also to build a monument to the mayor of the town one miles high 12 inches wide and one inches thick. They said we like this voting business pretty well & when you have learned to like these two projects we will come back & at the next election we will elect some new officers which will give you some good government. We want automobiles to stop running in the town at 7 P M o'clock because they make so much noise that we can't study in the evening. Also we want all the lights to be out promptly at 8 P M oclock so that we can get our nights rest like we should. We will give you some real government believe us.

Anyway the town of Hanover concluded that they didn't know so much about raising taxes as they thought & they couldn't get to the legislature fast enough to have the ordinance repealed. which teaches us to bite off no more than we can handle. So long.

Roosevelt's Bonus Statement Creates Much Discussion

Democratic Candidate's Statement In Pittsburgh Brings Variety Of Comments From Newspapers

Assurance from Franklin D. Roosevelt, Democratic candidate for President, that he is opposed to payment of the soldier bonus before such time as the finances of the country are on a sound basis with a surplus in the Treasury, is accepted in many quarters as a satisfactory answer to the questions that have been asked. Some critics would prefer a more comprehensive utterance covering the principle of the bonus payment, but differences of opinion on the subject are not along party lines.

"His pronouncement," according to the GARY POST-TRIBUNE (Ind.), "ought to remove whatever remaining fear there has been over our national finances. With the President, whoever he may be, standing firmly against raids on the Treasury and demanding elimination of expense, it is hardly conceivable that a new fear complex can sweep over the country." The CHICAGO DAILY NEWS (Ind.) feels that the statement "is reassuring to friends of financial stability and sound national credit," since "the danger of the bonus bill, with a huge bond issue or a fiat-money measure as a companion, has been a source of apprehension and a serious obstacle to industrial and commercial recovery." The HARTFORD TIMES (Ind. Dem.) holds that "if the matter comes before Governor Roosevelt as President, there is no reason to doubt that he will find himself in precisely the same position that Mr. Hoover did in the last Congress, and will follow the same course of action" and that "the logic of that position is inescapable."

"Though the utterance is belated, it is clear cut, and removes one worry that has been disturbing the nation," avers the SIOUX FALLS ARGUS-LEADER (Ind. Rep.), while the ROANOKE TIMES (Dem.) calls it "clear and comprehensive," leaving "no room for doubt or misconstruction." The SALT LAKE DESERET NEWS (Ind.) hails it as "putting to rest definitely, any fear that the Governor would permit, if he is elected, the passage of such bills as Representative Putman of Texas introduced," and the APPLETON POST-CRESCENT (Ind.), observing that both candidates have "taken a forthright stand," concludes, "that almost puts the bonus to sleep." The FORT WORTH STAR-TELEGRAM (Ind. Dem.) recognizes that "his attitude is the one upon which 90 per cent of the press of the United States has been standing since the subject became an acute issue, with a distinct menace to the country's finances."

"Governor Roosevelt," recalls the SCHENECTADY GAZETTE (Ind. Dem.), "does not express himself thus merely in a campaign with election day at hand; these are the words he used months ago, before candidates had been nominated." The YOUNGSTOWN VINDICATOR (Ind. Dem.) says: "This ought to be final. It means nothing else than that the bonus cannot be paid until the government collects more taxes than it spends." The CHARLOTTE OBSERVER (Ind. Dem.) declares that "Roosevelt stands to veto any cash-bonus measure by the next Congress, for the Treasury will not have anything like a balanced budget then, nor for some time in the future." The LOUISVILLE COURIER-JOURNAL (Ind.) states: "His declaration will grieve the Hoover partisans, who have now left in their arsenal for their attack on the Democratic nominee the charge that he is only a fourth cousin of Theodore Roosevelt and the 'wolf' cry that his election would stampede the American people, pellmell, over the precipice straight down the road to Avernus."

"In effect," interprets the SCRANTON TIMES (Dem.), "he says we cannot pay now because we haven't the money, but just as soon as our house is in order and we can afford, we will pay." The SPRINGFIELD (MASS.) REPUBLICAN (Ind.), however, takes the position that "at no time prior to 1945 should payment be made in full, if any of the money must go to the many scores of thousands of veterans of means who would not need such a favor from the government." The Republican points out that "President Hoover also fails to meet this test, and in his message to the convention of the American Legion his opposition to the payment of the bonus was limited to payment under present fiscal conditions." The TOPEKA DAILY CAPITAL (Rep.) emphasizes the point that "the long delay only emphasizes and advertises the embarrassment of the Democratic ticket, flatly divided on this issue." The CHARLESTON (W. V.) DAILY MAIL (Ind. Rep.) sees "nothing definite in the statement adding: "'I do not see how' is weak compared with 'I am against'." The MINNEAPOLIS JOURNAL (Ind. Rep.) argues: "He did say that he saw no way for the bonus payment in the face of a Treasury deficit. But he coupled the statement with an implied promise that the deficit would magically disappear in the event of his election, thus nursing along the veterans' hope for almost immediate payment. He had a chance to say forthrightly that he himself opposed either higher taxes or a printing press currency to take care of the bonus. But he passed up the chance."

Similar criticism is uttered by the ROCKFORD REGISTER-REPUBLIC (Rep.), the BUFFALO EVENING NEWS (Ind. Rep.), the CINCINNATI TIMES-STAR (Rep.), the JERSEY CITY JOURNAL (Ind. Rep.), the NORTH ADAMS TRANSCRIPT (Ind. Rep.), the UNIONTOWN HERALD (Rep.), the GOSHEN NEWS-TIMES (Rep.), and the DES MOINES TRIBUNE (Ind. Rep.). The PHILADELPHIA EVENING BULLETIN (Ind. Rep.) declares: "It may be and ought to be a fair inference that Governor Roosevelt, if President, would not sanction the conversion of the bonus service certificates into cash until it could be done within a balanced budget, and that he would oppose an increase in the national debt for this purpose. But the Governor did not say this last April, and after all the discussion of the question he does not say it now, nor does he in any single word amend his statement of last April to make his position more clearly and unmistakably defined."

"Many of Mr. Roosevelt's staunchest supporters," in the opinion of the BIRMINGHAM AGE-HERALD (Dem.), "must regret the fact that in his Pittsburgh speech he failed to say anything about the principle

Bible Thought For Today

AN END TO WORRY:—Be careful for nothing; but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.—Phillippians 4: 6, 7.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

IT WORKS.

Forty-five years ago he owned a lumber business in a little country town in Manitoba. He and his neighbors were all desperately poor; a ten dollar bill looked as large as a bed sheet.

This old Canadian tells an interesting story. He says:

"One day a farmer asked to sell him, on credit, $10 worth of lumber, explaining that he had sold some hogs to the butcher who could not pay him. The butcher would go good for the lumber bill he said. I explained to the farmer that I would as soon trust him as the butcher and I told him to get the butcher, who confirmed the farmer's story.

"I asked the butcher if he sold meat to the Grand Central Hotel where I was boarding. He said he did and that they were owing him money. I told him to go to the hotel and get me two $5 meal tickets on account of his meat bill, which he did, and I furnished the farmer with the lumber.

"So the hotel paid for its meat, the butcher for the hogs, the farmer for the lumber, and I for my board without any money passing."

That was real "Barter."

Of course society is to blame for the Insull mess, as it is for juvenile crime. People shouldn't have offered temptation by being suckers.

Correct this sentence: "I can name a dozen taxes," said the speaker," that are paid by the rich and not passed on to the poor."

SHENANGO CHAPTER O. E. S. PARTY SUCCESS

With the many activities going on Thursday evening, one in particular that attracted a large crowd was the Hallowe'en card party given in the west dining room of the Cathedral by members of Shenango Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, Mrs. Charles E. Allen, worthy matron.

This marked the big event of the October series of parties scheduled by Shenango members and proved a decided success.

At 8 o'clock the guests indulged in the various contests arranged for their entertainment, fifteen tables of bridge being in play, six of 500 and the remaining guests turned their attention to bingo. At the close of the evening prizes were awarded the following: In 500, Mrs. Elizabeth Boyles and Mr. Drake; bridge trophies, Mrs. Edna Grossman and Charles E. Allen; bingo awards, Mrs. Brooks and Oliver Shannon.

To top this evening of gaiety off, a delicious lunch was served, the appointments being cleverly carried out in keeping with the season. The dining room, beautifully decorated in orange and black, tones with black cats, owls, etc., draping the windows and every nook, added a festive atmosphere.

The committee in charge included Mrs. Anna Rowland, chairman, Mrs. Charles Allen, Mrs. Celia Wolford, Mrs. Harriett Hammond, Mrs. Myrtle Klingensmith, Mrs. Thelma Propst, Mrs. Ruth Irwin, Mrs. Bernice Shannon and Mrs. M. P. McKibben.

There are a number of other parties to be given in the very near future by the chapter members.

Mrs. Sara Richards of Easton, Pa., was an out of town guest.

L. A. B. MEMBERS MOTOR TO SHARON

The L. A. B. club members motored to the home of Mrs. C. W. Smith on A street, Sharon, Pa., on Thursday for a social time. Special guests who shared the occasion included Mrs. B. M. Frazier and son of McKinley Heights, Youngstown, O., Clyde Lloyd, Lucille Covert and Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Ray and daughter of New Castle.

Card games were enjoyed as the diversion of the leisure period, prizes being captured by Mrs. Wilbur Jones, Mrs. James Grove, Mrs. John Sweet, Mrs. H. B. Ray, Mrs. I. A. Taylor and H. B. Ray.

The hostess, assisted by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Loyal Smith, and Mrs. B. M. Frazier, served an appetizing lunch at the close of the meeting.

involved in the bonus question. He simply reiterated the position he took last April, when he declared against anticipation of the bonus until the national budget is balanced in terms of surplus cash in the Treasury. That is satisfactory so far as it goes, but it doesn't go far enough. It would not have hurt Mr. Roosevelt if he had given out some intimation of his attiude toward the more fundamental aspect of the issue. Even a statement, such as was expected, to the effect that he stands for relief of the destitute veteran with war service, would have carried the implication that Mr. Roosevelt is viewing the problem from a larger standpoint. But that is something for Democrats to ponder. The truth is that the bonus is no longer an issue between the parties. Ex-service men do not agree among themselves on the subject despite the vote at the American Legion convention."

PLANS REUNION OF MOTOR CO. NO. 7

Among the many ex-service reunions that have been held since the World War, the members of Motor Company 7, which was stationed at Camp Greenleaf, Georgia have not been listed. Believing that the men would like to get together and live over some of the days they spent together during the war, Harley Shoaf is undertaking to organize a reunion. He has asked that any former member of Motor Company 7, get in touch with him so that a list of the members may be made.

Sampson Street Theft Reported

Valuable Dog Is Stolen, Owner Chases Thief Some Distance

Police authorities were called to Sampson and Grant streets last night shortly after seven o'clock and found that Loy Burnside of 706 Sampson street, had suffered the loss of a Blue Tick Coon Hound of considerable value through an unknown thief, whom he had seen hiding back of his hedge fence.

According to Mr. Burnside, he saw the man hiding and securing his flashlight, went out and chased the man across the dump back of the Shenango Pottery, finally losing all trace of him. Returning home, he discovered that his dog had been stolen. The watchman on the dump told Mr. Burnside that he had seen the man leading the dog across the dump.

The thief is described as being thirty-five to forty years of age, smooth faced and wearing a cap and overcoat.

GIRL SCOUTS

TROOP HAS PARTY.

Twenty-two members of Troop Two of the Girl Scouts and the leaders, Mrs. George Westlake and Mrs. Josephine Kison, enjoyed a Hallowe'en party honoring the birthday of Mrs. Juliette Lowe, founder of Girl Scouting, in the form of a dinner Thursday evening in the scout room of Highland church.

A number of the troop members arrived at the church early and decorated the room with Hallowe'en suggestions and set the tables most attractively, then the girls began to arrive and there were ghosts, Indians, gypsies, colored mammies, Dutch girls and boys and even a mickey mouse, which was cleverly portrayed by Anita Love.

The menu was served by the light of the pumpkin faces and candles and when the dinner was over it was found more food than could be consumed was there so the girls packed a large basket and sent to the Rescue Mission.

Spooky games kept the girls in a hilarious mood until time for going home.

COUNCIL MEETING

Senate Utility-P. S. C. Investigating Committee Goes Backward In Procedure

"SHADY" PAYMENTS ARE ADMITTED

By WILLIAM B. BROWN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HARRISBURG, Oct. 28.—The senate utility investigating committee was backward in its anticipated schedule this morning and witnesses who were to have been heard yesterday were instructed to return today for examination.

The course of the hearings strayed from an examination of bank accountes of the late . D. B. Ainey to a scrutiny of the financial transactions of James S. Benn, of Philadelphia, during the time he was a member of the public service commission, and from that point the probers went to the question of how "public relations" committees expended money raised by assessments on utilities.

"Shady" Payments

Walter H. Johnson, of the Philadelphia Electric Company, and A. W. Robertson, of the Philadelphia Company, large holding concern, were questioned about the work of utilities in spreading propaganda favorable to their interests. Johnson admitted a large part of such money was paid "to parties that didn't want to be known."

Robertson was unable to recall the content of letters to which he testified at a legislative inquiry last year but with promptings by O. K. Eaton, counsel for the committee, it was brought out that utilities had made efforts to obtain favorable mention in school textbooks.

Both witnesses admitted that public information bureau" expenses of 1926, when Gov. Gifford Pinchot's giant power plan was before the legislature, were charged to operating expenses. Johnson said the State Electric Association spent more in that year to "educate" the people to the side of utilities than in any other year.

The Christian And Law Observance

"Brass Tacks" On The Sunday School Lesson

The Golden Text

Whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.—Gal. 6:7.

(The international uniform lesson on the above topic for Oct. 30 is the quarterly temperance lesson based on Proverbs 23:29-35; Romans 13:1-7; First Corinthians 9:19-27; Galatians 6:1-10; First Peter 2:11-17, the Golden Text being Galatians 6:7, "Whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.")

By DR. ALVIN E. BELL

The picture of a man lying down to sleep atop the mast of a ship tossing on the high seas represents the utmost of folly and recklessness with one's own life. This is the picture of the wise author of the Book of Proverbs uses to picture the folly of those who trifle with the evils of strong drink: "Look not thou upon the wine when it is red...At the last it biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like an adder...yea, thou shalt be as he that lieth down in the midst of the sea, or as he that lieth upon the top of a mast."

It is like trifling with a deadly serpent to take into one's bosom a habit which has ruined countless thousands and many easily do so in our case.

The Inner Restraint.

The strong, safe restraining and stabilizing force which the Bible everywhere commends is not that of external law laid on from the outside, but rather an inner spiritual power built up within each one's own life and character in the stern discipline of self-control motivated by the spiritual appreciation of gospel freedom: "I do all things for the gospel's sake, that I may be a joint partaker thereof...Every man that striveth in the games is temperate in all things...I, therefore, so run, as not uncertainly; so fight I, as not beating the air: but I buffet my body and bring it into bondage, lest by any means, after that I have preached to others I, myself, should be rejected."

Let not bodily appetites dominate the mind and spirit, but rather let an enlightened mind constantly teach the body and its passions and appetites their proper place of subjection and service.

Christian Civic Relations.

The Christian who has thus learned to govern himself by the inner spiritual restraints of an enlightened conscience is prepared to accept the restraints which an ordered society must of necessity lay upon every citizen for the good of the whole group. He will not expect to be a law unto himself.

He will appreciate the reasonableness of Paul's declaration of civic duty: "Let every soul be in subjection to the higher powers: for there is no power but of God; the powers that be are ordained of God.... Wherefore ye must needs be in subjection, not only because of the wrath, but also for conscience sake. ...Render to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honor to whom honor."

The Law of the Harvest.

By applying a natural law to the spiritual world Paul points out the connection between conduct and consequences in a world governed by moral and spiritual law: "Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. For he that soweth unto his own flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth unto the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap eternal life. And let us not be weary in well-doing: for in due season we shall reap; if we faint not." Fortunately, this inexorable law of the harvest applies as surely to our sowing of the good seeds of temperance, self-control and law observance as it does to the seeds of intemperance, license and anarchy. Let us choose which crop we prefer and sow accordingly.

Masque Dance Of Home Circle

Protected Home Circle Members Enjoy Evening Of Festivities

Among the many Hallowe'en festivities of the season none was more delightfully arranged than the opening masquerade dance held by New Castle Circle No. 5, Protected Home Circle, following a busy but brief business session on Wednesday night.

From nine o'clock until a late hour the local circle chamber where usually dignity prevails throughout the mystic work of the circle, was filled with grotesque and indescribable characters in costumes fearfully and wonderfully made. No, it was not a fashion show, but just the kind to create world's of fun, while the splendid orchestra surely did its part toward the success of the event.

Prizes of course were awarded for the best make-up and what a time the judges had before a final decision was made. The judges included Mesdames Telitha Richards, Margaret Hammond, Anna Stephenson and David Tucker. Kathryn Jaxheimer and Haze Hicks were awarded the first and second prize, while Mattie Majestic and Ellen Nogar proudly walked off with the third.

The wonderful cake made by President Hildred Back, an artist along this line, was won by Miss Anna Milke of Willow Grove.

On Wednesday, Nov. 2, the junior cricle will hold its regular meeting and the Knickerbocker degree staff will hold a tureen dinner, followed with drill rehearsal, with Deputy Hoyt E. Ward directing.

This will be in the form of a dinner meeting, getting under way at 6:30 p. m., and will be for the purpose of making final preparations for the drive, which will occur on the following Sunday.

D. A. R. LEADER URGES THAT ALL MEMBERS VOTE

By ARTHUR C. WIMER
Special Washington Correspondent, New Castle News

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 28.—Mrs. Russell William Magna, president general of the Daughters of the American Revolution hopes to see Pennsylvania Daughters turn out 100 per cent strong to the polls next November.

Mrs. Magna has written a letter to the Pennsylvania state regent asking her to cooperate in this get-out-the-vote movement. Following the election, the regent will check on just what percentage of the Pennsylvania Daughters voted and what percentage stayed at home and will report to Mrs. Magna.

In her advice to Daughters, Mrs. Magna lays downs two principles. She says: "First, vote, and second, vote intelligently."

This year will represent the first attempt the D. A. R. has ever made to determine what percentage of its membership actually votes.

ENGINEERS MOVE FORT ACROSS RIVER

(International News Service)

FORT MOTT, N. J., Oct. 28.—Engineeers of Uncle Sam's army have undertaken the task of moving six 2-story houses from his place across the Delaware river to Fort DuPont, Del., a distance of about four miles.

When the houses are moved there will be little left of Fort Mott, which was discontinued as an army post several years ago. The houses will be used for officers' quarters.

Most of the trip will be made on a large navy barge. The engineers are laying about a mile of railroad track from the six houses to the river's edge, one main track, with a branch running to each house.

JOBS FOR 250

QUINCY, Mass.—More than 250 persons will benefit by the city's new street building construction plan which calls for secondary construction work on twenty streets in the six wards of the city. The program involves an expenditure of $45,000 and many months of unemployment.

Oppose Freedom For Suspected Fiend Slayers

Report Effort To Be Made At Uniontown To Get Habeas Corpus For Slayers

THREE WOMEN WERE SLAIN

(International News Service)

UNIONTOWN, Pa., Oct. 28.—Strenuous opposition to any habeas corpus move was promised today by District Attorney Wade K. Newell in answer to reports that efforts were to be made to free Clyde Harden and Philip Renda, held incommunicado in the triple "hatchet slaying" of a grandmother, mother and daughter at Connellsville.

Reports of the plans to free the two men reached Newell after he had freed the Misses Rose and Margaret Renda, daughters of Philip. Newell said he was satisfied the girls had told him all they knew. They were arrested when their stories as to the time their father arrived home the night of the slaying differed.

Seasonable Work Helps To Relieve Economic Stress

Considerable Work Being Furnished On Public And Private Projects

County Commissioner Elmer Conners reports that work which is being furnished on various road, bridge, swamp and other jobs, is having a noticeable effect on relief applications. There has been a falling off this week, the first that has been noticed for some time. Another factor contributing to a reduction in relief applications, has been the usual run of fall work.

At this season of the year preparations are usually made for the winter. There are many furnaces to be overhauled. This is usually done through the summer, but owing to a lack of funds, scores of people have put off furnace repairs until the eleventh hour. The result is that the furnace men are being kept on the jump.

Considerable roof and gutter repair work is also in progress. This has also been delayed but it is now realized that the season is fast approaching when there will be plenty of rain, and there is no fun getting up to repair a roof in the rain. Tinners, slaters and carpenters are therefore finding considerable roof repair work.

In connection with repairs at this season it might be well to suggest that coal bills can be cut down, and comfort of the family enhanced by attention to windows and doors. This work can usually be done by the home owner or occupant of a house. In many houses it will be found that there are panes of glass that need putty. Considerable cold air gets into a house when the window panes are not sealed with putty. It only costs a few cents and a little work, but it will save dollars.

It will be found that window and door stripping will cut down expenses. Some types of copper stripping are comparatively cheap and will result in a big saving in fuel. Those who cannot buy copper stripping can at least secure felt stripping to place around doors and windows.

Extend Time For Filing Petition Asking New Trial

Convicted Tennessee And North Carolina Bankers Seeks To Escape Sentences

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—A seven day extension of time for the filing of a new petition in the supreme court to escape prison sentences on charges of misapplying funds of the Central Bank and Trust Co., of Asheville, N. C., today was granted to Luke Lea, Tennessee publisher; Wallace B. Davis, banker, and Luke Lea, Jr., by Chief Justice Hughes.

The petition will be due November 10.

Payroll Bandits In Philadelphia Get $4,100 Today

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 28.—Three masked bandits escaped with a $4,100 payroll today after holding the paymaster and office force of the Bower and Kaufman Hosiery Company at bay with drawn guns.

The bandits were youthful and nervous, and apparently amateurs.

Patton Home Is Ransacked In Family's Absence

Ohio License Car Seen Near The Place Is Suspected In Case

Police were called to the home of George Patton, 1030 Maryland avenue about eight o'clock last night. The officers on their arrival found that the members of the Patton family had just returned after an absence of a month.

On entering their home, they found that the place had been entered and thoroughly ransacked. Entrance had been gained through a cellar window. A set of 1847 Rogers silverware had been taken from the sideboard.

A car bearing an Ohio licence plate seen in the vicinity of the home within the past few days is suspected of having been the car of the persons responsible for the theft.

Wanted To Secure Marriage Papers Without Ceremony

Justice of the Peace, H. M. Reynolds of Union township, has another matrimonial experience to report. One day this week a couple called and asked him to secure a marriage license for them, which he did. They then wanted to know if he could not make out a marriage certificate without going through with a ceremony. He told them "nothing doing."

They then stood up to be married. When he asked the woman if she would take the man to be her lawful and wedded husband, she replied, "What do you think I came here for" Reynolds told her that he had an idea, but that she would have to answer the question directly. She then responded, "I do." The certificate was made out and they went away smiling.

Beaver Valley Urges Change In State Act

Council met in the city building today and received for consideration a communication from R. E. Calhoun, chairman of the Boroughs of the Beaver Valley relative to the Public Utility act. The communication, one of many addressed to boroughs and Third Class cities, expressed the opinion the Act does should be repealed and a new one adopted.

Council turned the communication over to Solocitor Robert White. If he feels that it concerns Third class cities he will send it to the League of Third Class cities law committee.

West Side School Celebrates With Hallowe'en Carnival

Hallowe'en Carnival Event At West Side School, Thursday Evening Marked Success

A "howling" success was the word used for the Hallowe'en carnival celebration at the West Side school Thursday evening from 7:15 to 9:30 o'clock.

Little people dressed in costumes of all sorts and descriptions entered the school building at the appointed time and at once made their way to one of the following carnival side shows; museum, play room, fish pond, shooting gallery, fortune telling booth and the room which contained the dancing dolls who were Mary Elizabeth Suber, Jeanette Gurneal, and Gloria Ticato

Just when the fun was at its height a grand march was staged and the judges, Messrs. Montgomery, and R. D. Porter, selected the best boys and girls costumes for first and second prizes. Those receiving the prizes were Lorraine Smith and Clyde Jenkins for first prize and Virginia Book and Ralph Turner for second prize.

The arrangements for the event were made by Mrs. Chauncey Davis, Chairlady, and Mrs. Frank Davis, President of the P. T. A. The proceeds of the evening will be used for welfare work.

Contract Has Not Yet Been Awarded

State Highway Expected To Award Contract At Harrisburg Soon

City engineers at noon today said they had not heard from the state highway department as to whether or an not an award of the East Washington street cartway widening had been made today. Bids were opened at Harrisburg yesterday.

It is anticipated the contract will be awarded within a week at the most.

Yesterday council introduced and reported from committee favorably a bill increasing the radius of street corners from two to 10 feet and agreed to appropriate $1.047 for the work. The measure will become a law soon. It is possible the award may be delayed until the bill becomes a law, according to city engineers.

Sewing Machines Are Still Needed

Red Cross Garment Committee Needs Four More Machines In Mahoningtown

Four more sewing machines to be used in the Mahoning school unit are urgently needed, Mrs. Marcus Feuchtwanger, city chairman of the Red Cross garment committee, stated today.

Any person who can donate the use of the machine is asked to take it to the Mahoning school annex, or to call the Red Cross office, 5084.

Smith Keeps Up Hoover Attack

Former Democratic Candidate Makes Speech In Boston

URGES SUPPORT OF PARTY HEADS

(International News Service)

BOSTON, Oct. 28.—The ringing appeal of ex-Governor Alfred E. Smith to New England Democrats to forget him and pledge "unqualified, full and complete support" to Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt and Speaker John N. Garner in the presidential election today appeared to have cemented together warring party factions.

A stirring, tumultuous ovation by 17,000 men and women to Smith when he spoke in the Boston arena last night gave visual and audible signs of restored harmony in the party.

Smith aroused shouting, foot-stamping, flag waving demonstrations with his assertion that the greatest failure of President Hoover's administration was "that they left the people of this country entirely in the dark with regard to the all important function of the government—the proper adjustment of our financial condition."

A roar of approval greeted his statement that:

"I believe the salvation of the country in the crisis it is now in, the progress that it must make to get away from the stagnation of trade, business and unemployment, lies upon the success of the Democratic ticket under the leadership of Franklin D. Roosevelt and John Garner."

Not Satisfied With Chicago.

Thunderous cheers also acclaimed Smith's declaration:

"I am home tonight, and that compels some pretty frank speech from me. And this is what I want emphatically to say to you:

"I was not satisfied with that Chicago convention and I know that you were not satisfied with it. But listen, we will settle these problems in our party."

Smith's major time was devoted to detailing what he called a "little melodrama entitled 'The Republican failure, or what happened to the Republican best minds'."

He attacked the president and his "high command". The trouble with President Hoover, said Smith, was that "he lacks leadership even over the members of his own party, and what is more, he lacks the power of appeal to the people themselves, that in the last analysis can handle any legislature."

"A Republican trick," he branded the use of postal cards in an "endless chain" to voters asking them to write in Smith's name on the ballot in the November election.

Refers to Newark Speech.

The former New York governor briefly referred to his Newark speech and reasserted his charge he believed the Republican party to be one of bigotry which in 1928 raised the religious issue against him.

"Now I say this, two wrongs never make a right. They were absolutely wrong in 1928.

"There can be no bigotry and there can be no resentment in the Catholic heart. We have been taught, and it is impossible for us to divorce ourselves from it, that our first consideration is our country."

In his excoriation of the administration's failure to foresee the economic slump or remedy it, he accused President Hoover of failure also to understand America's foreign difficulties.

Sportsmen Meet Thursday Night

Hundred Attend Session In Y. M. C. A. Building—See Motion Pictures

Lawrence county sportsmen opened their fall and winter season Thursday night when the first meeting of the season was held in the Y. M. C. A. with President Andrew Dodds in charge. About 100 members were present and enjoyed the presentation of several reels of outdoor pictures furnished by the Canadian government. A big game hunt in the mountainous country of Canada and a fishing expedition for muscallonge were shown.

The resignation of Vice President Walter W. Pattison was received and accepted. Mr. Pattison is now a travelling game protector for the State Game Commission and under the rules of the Sportsmen's Association cannot hold a public office and retain his position in the organization.

McGill P. T. A. Meets Thursday

Program Of More Than Usual Interest Is Presented In Afternoon

Monthly meeting of the Arthur McGill School Parents-Teachers Association was held Thursday afternoon in the auditorium of the school with a very good attendance.

Mrs. L. B. Calvin presided. The meeting was opened in the regular routine manner, with Mrs. John Z. Street, the secretary, making the usual reports. At the conclusion of the business session, the program of the afternoon was presented.

One of the features of the program was the presentation of a Nature Play by the pupils of the Fourth Grade. Featuring this play was a campfire scene, which was most artistic and attractive. Miss Margaret Preston had charge of the musical numbers and Miss Mildred Burleson of the dramatic efforts of the group.

A very interesting part of the program was the address of Miss Helen Maxwell, member of the school teaching staff, on the subject of "Helping The Child To Help Himself." In the course of her address, Miss Maxwell presented some very helpful suggestions to the parents of the children attending the school, which are expected to be of material assistance to them.

Chances are that some of the R. F. C. loans will liquidate themselves the way Stalin liquidates rich farmers.

MAKE YOUR HALLOWE'EN PARTY FOR ADULTS SCARY

If you are giving a party for grownups make it as scary as you like. If you are entertaining children, don't. A darkened house with a host and hostess robed in black, made unnaturally tall by standing on a stool, and greeting guests with hands covered with rubber gloves filled with ice or wet with ice water, is a fitting beginning to the ingenious scares in store. The charming young hostess in the picture is not a bit fearsome, it is agreed, but she is not yet robed for her role. She is arranging the table for refreshments with favors in characteristic orange and black, while other emblems of the eerie night of October 31 are around her. Witches, black cats, make "atmosphere."

Launch Plans For Downtown Rally

County's S. S. Young Folks Will Gather November 5; Day Affair

Delegations from every church in Lawrence county will be invited to an afternoon conference in the First Christian church on Saturday, November 5, when the Lawrence County Young People's Sunday school Council sponsors a program with, "Personal Evangelism" as the theme.

With the afternoon expected to be devoted mostly to group conferences, a demonstration worship service will also be conducted as a feature of the afternoon with young people of the Slippery Rock council in charge.

Other features include an organ recital, group singing and an hour for fellowship and recreation.

At the fellowship banquet at 6 o'clock a quartet of young ministers will entertain. In the evening the Ellwood City district folk will present the religious drama "Possessions" and the New Wilmington district council will lead the evening worship service.

"Christ In Me" the theme of the evening challenge will be presented by a specialist in young people's work.

While every church is expected to have a quota of five present for the day, the program will be open to all.

COMPLETE PLANS FOR SOUTH SIDE HALLOWE'EN

Celebration On Monday Night

Committees Meet Tonight To Make Final Plans For Parade

ALEC SAMUELS IS DIRECTING EFFORT

Final arrangements will be made tonight for the annual Hallowe'en celebration to be held on the south side on Monday night, October 31. A meeting of the general committee has been called for 8 o'clock in the office of Alderman J. Lee Cooper by Alec Samuels, general chairman, and the various committee members are urged to be present.

The prize list is heavy, according to the commitee in charge of it, and mummers can be assured of plenty of return for their efforts. The celebration is open to competitors from any part of Lawrence county and if it follows the usual run of south side Hallowe'en celebrations this one will be a real success.

Lots of Bands.

Four bands have been secured for the parade which will form on Pollock avenue and move down Reynolds street to Mill, thence to Long avenue, thence to Sciota street, to Reiber street, to Moravia street, to Long avenue and back up to Hamilton street where the parade will disband. The four bands secured thus far include the South Side band, the Benjamin Franklin band, the George Washington junior high band and the Sons of Veterans drum corps.

General Chairman Alec Samuels has named the following committeemen who are asked to be present tonight at the meeting in Alderman Cooper's office:

Committees.

Judges committee—D. O. Davies, chairman; D. M. Ritchie, Harry Clark, Harry Druschel, Mayor Chas. B. Mayne, Louis G. Genkinger, A. A. Hoyland, W. Stanley Treser, Harry H. Frank, Fred L. Rentz, A. W. Chilton, H. R. Huston, John Connery, J. Herbert McIlvenny.

Prize committee—Maurice Markley, chairman; William Druschel, Tom Frank, George L. Smith, Mike Fazzone, Ben Budzowski, John C. Wajert, Percy Alpern, M. Joseph, Stanley Faczmarcczgh, Abe Fisher, Nathan Love, Joe Bordinaro, Joe Frengel.

Music committee—J. H. Huston, chairman; Mont Blau, Lew Miller, Bill Cohen, J. R. Snyder, J. F. Hromyak, A. Shapiro.

Grand marshal, Ivor V. Davis; aides, C. G. Snyder, Joe Jedziniak, Louis Zieve, Louis di Paolo, Henry Budzowski, Gus Miller, John A. Meehan, Norman P. Nelson, Ross Aubel, Bart Richards, Matt Davis, W. Justice A. H. Gilmore Reflects On Experiences As Marrying Squire

Justice of The Peace A. H. Gilmore of Neshannock township says he feels quite positive that he far outshines his friend, Squire Reynolds of the Youngstown road and possibly Alderman Perry Green, in the matter of interesting, unusual and amusing marriage ceremonies. In the case of the former, at least, this may be owing to the fact that Gilmore has been wearing the magisterial toga for a much longer period than Reynolds.

"As a matter of fact" muses Squire Gilmore "I have always insisted when a marriage license record at the court house is marked "Please Don't publish," that constitutes a very positively good reason why that special marriage intention ought to be given publicity. When a boy or girl, man or woman desire to keep their marriage a profound secret does not that fact tend to create at least a suspicion that there may be something rotten in Denmark.

"I had hardly opened my justice of the peace shop many years ago, continued Squire Gilmore this morning, when a very young couple arrived requesting me to marry them. Boy was 16, girl 17 years of age. Both were small in statue for their age, altogether too immature for marriage, I considered. But they were armed with a proper marriage permit issued by the prothonotary and it is for that important official and not the mere magistrate to determine who may marry and who may not. I married them, easing my conscience by the thought that if I refused, some other magistrate would willingly, perhaps enthusiastically make them one.

"On the morning of the tenth day following the date of that ceremony the young husband appeared in my office and unblushingly and without hesitation demanded that I return to him his three dollar marriage fee.

"What's the matter?" I inquired.

"Why, that girl you married me to turned out to be just no account. I had to leave her. She's gone back to her old folks and I am living with my papa and mamma again. I thing I am entitled to have my money back. That girl certainly was not worth three bucks."

"Was that marriage fee returned? It was not."

"Several years ago, just like Squire Reynolds, I was hauled out of bed at midnight by a couple desiring marriage. Just why a majority of these people choose midnight for their wedding, is another riddle I have never been able to solve, but they do.

"Well," as Al Smith commences on an average of not less than a score of sentences during a fifteen minute address, the man in this tragedy mysteriously invegled me into an adjoining room where he sorrowfully confided to me the sad fact that he was dead broke. He was regularly employed by so and so. Would I marry them and wait until his next pay day for my fee. I would and did, and I have never seen hide nor hair of the bride or groom since. Of course, I have frequently thought of them and devoutly prayed for the success of their marital voyage.

"An inquiry made by me at a well known credit exchange shows that this man and wife have been ejected from three homes by as many different constables for the non-payment of rent, that the husband owes three habidasnery establishments, has gone the credit limit with five grocerymen, is in debt to three coal and wood dealers, three milkmen and a long suffering iceman. The wife is indebted to two dry goods, three millinery stores, a jewelry store, and the proprietors of three different beauty shops are extremely anxious to interview her. And the worst of this marriage it appears to me, if the laws of heredity are to be given credence, is the fact that four more little non-payers, dead beats, if you please, have arrived on the scene in that household.

"Yes, indeed," remarked Squire Gilmore in concluding his reminiscenses, I think the merchants, business men, renters of homes, etc., ought to be warned that such as these are abroad in the land, that their names and addresses be published. But, alas, although the price of blue pencils, such as editors use in deleting improper thoughts occuring to reporters and correspondents may have been reduced during this depression, the where with all with which to procure the same is much more difficult to procure and I desist.

NEW TALKING- BOOK HELPS BLIND PERSONS

(International News Service)

PARIS, Oct. 28.—The talking-book is the latest French invention which promises to bring joy to the blind man.

The "livre sonore", as it is called in France, is really a long strip in which a voice takes the place of printed letters. It can be put thru a machine to reproduce the sound as often as desired.

The spoken word is permanently registered on a ribbon, not by a needle as in the case of the talking machine, but by an electric lamp, in broad daylight, no development in a dark room being necessary.

New velvets in plaids, checks and diagonals simulate wool.

SUNDAY SERVICES

Services on Sunday, October 30, will be conducted in the M. E. church at the regular hours: church school at 10 a. m. At this session a Temperance program will be given by the children's division of the school. At 11 o'clock, morning worship, sermon theme, "Christ or the Liquor System?" Evening worship at 7:30 p. m., leader, Lester Badger.

Y. M. P. CLASS MEETING

The Y. M. P. Class of the M. E. church school were entertained in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Helle, at West Pittsburg, on Tuesday evening. There were only three of the members absent. The social hour was enlivened by the fact that many who came arrived in Hallowe'en costummes of unique and varied designs. Following the unmasking games were played and at the business session presided over by the Vice president, Alice Braatz, it was decided that the class would give a play for the benefit of the church expense account. The men of the class invited the women to a banquet which is to be served on Friday evening, Nov. 11. This is the reward due the winners of the contest on attendance. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter McFerren.

THE NEWS, BY MAIL ONE YEAR, $5.00

Federal Route Number For Benjamin Franklin Highway Believed Near

A Federal route number for the Benjamin Franklin Highway appears to be a possibility for the very near future, according to an announcement from Findlay, O., by John H. Williamson who was one of the pioneers in the Benjamin Franklin project. O. W. Merrell, state highway director of Ohio has requested a recommendation for such a marking from the American Association of State Highway officials, the request having been made of W. C. Marham, executive secretary of the association in Washington, D. C.

If the proposal is acted upon favorably by the association it is probable that the highway, now known as State Highway number seventeen, will get a Federal number and in such event the state number would likely be changed.

The Benjamin Franklin Highway which enters New Castle by way of the Butler road is a direct route across Ohio and Pennsylvania which avoids large towns. It provides speedy transportation across these states without getting into large city traffic.

Hold-up Occurs On South Side

Lone Thief Loots Cash Register As He Holds Clark At Bay With Gun

Paul Stickle, employe of the Isaly Store, 1225 South Mill street, which is owned by Mrs. Mina Herbold, was held up late Thursday afternoon shortly before five o'clock by a lone holdup man, who pulled a gun on him and took all the bills in the cash register.

According to the report made to the police answering a call to that place, Stickle was attending to his duties at the store, when the holdup man entered, posing as a customer. He was in twice and the second time, he purchased a yeast cake.

As Mr. Stickle was in the act of making change at the cash register, the holdup man suddenly reached in and grabbed all the bils from the register.

In the meantime Mr. Stickle grabbed the thief by the wrist, planning to hold him for the authorities. As he did so, the holdup man pulled a gun and directed Stickle to lie down on the floor behind the counter and remain there until he made his getaway. He then ran away.

Mrs. Herbold announced her loss today as approximately $26 in paper money.

The holdup man is deschibed as being 28 to 32 years of age, being six feet and one inch tall. He was wearing brown coat and a medium light colored hat.

Legion Commander Will Appear Here

Arrangements Are Being Made For Visit Of National Commander Johnston

Commander James A. Brice of the Perry S. Gaston post, No. 343, American Legion, announced today that arrangements had been made for the legion to get the use of the Cathedral dining room on November 28, and that National Commander Louis A. Johnston of Clarksburg, W. Va., would be present and speak. Further details will be announced later.

Senior Reserves Having Part At Y. W. Camp Tonight

Boys Will Be Their Guests; Everyone In Costume; Will Have Orchestra

Camp East Brook will ring with laughter tonight when the senior high school Girl Reserve Club members and their boy friends gather in masquerade costume for their annual Hallowe'en festivities. The camp will be an interesting setting for this event.

Boy's night is a popular affair of the club calendar and one looked forward to with more than ordinary zest. The committee promises a fine program of games in store. There will be a special orchestra for the occasion. Ginger bread, whipped cream and coffee will probably be included in the menu and that sounds good on any menu.

Chaperones will include Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Ruby, Dr. and Mrs. James Crawford, Misses Geraldine Turk and Mary Long. Party begins at 8:15.

First Christian Church Revival

First Week Of Evangelistic Services Are Drawing To Close With Splendid Results

The first week of the evangelistic services in the First Christian church are drawing to a close and splendid results have been obtained in the accession of many to the church.

Thursday evening was observed as men's night and men's Bible classes from the Baptist, Presbyterian and Christian church filled a large section of the church.

Dr. G. S. Bennett, pastor speaker, spoke in "Wherein We Agree With Other Churches" and said all churches had belief in God and the Bible, the death and resurrection of Christ and future life. All churches agree that the greatest thing in a man's life is the surrendering of it to Christ.

This evening he will preach on "Wherein We Differ from Other Churches" and young people's night will be observed.

'Tis Hallowe'en And Witches Fly

If you look closely, through a telescope, Hallowe'en eve, you'll most surely see witches flying across the moon

YES, CHILDREN, large and small, witches do fly across the moon on broomsticks on Hallowe'en.

But, no matter how closely you may look, they can't be seen by human eyes unless—

You have a great big telescope, a very peculiar kind of telescope, that only the greatest of scientists have.

If you could, by chance, look through such a wonderful telescope, you would see strange sights, indeed!

Witches would be seen flying hither and thither, from nowhere to nowhere. (But that's like human being, too, isn't it?)

Queer hobgoblins would be seen dancing in the fields. And the insects, animals and growing things could be depicted keeping time, as a band of ant musicians strummed strange instruments.

For it's Hallowe'en. And the queerest sort of things happen Hallowe'en Why? Nobody knows. It's merely Hallowe'en. And when it's Hallowe'en we accept strange and wonderful doings without question.

Confiscated Booze Poured Into Sewer

Bootleg Booze Is Destroyed In Ceremony At City Police Station

Mayor Charles B. Mayne, Chief of Police John F. Haven, Councilman W. S. Treser and Assistant City Engineer Harry Hoskins were aides this morning about 10:30 o'clock, at a little pouring party staged in the police patrol barn and to which there were many witnesses, some thirsty and some curious, but nevertheless there.

The only thing that anyone got out of the destruction of some one hundred gallons of moonshine liquor, was the aroma, which broadcasted what was going on and greatly increased the crowd.

The liquor in two kegs, one of ten and the other slightly larger capacity, thirteen five gallon tin containers, several gallon glass jugs and numerous pint bottles was thrown into the large sewer intake in the center of the patrol barn.

Mayor Mayne started the performance with a sledge, which he used on one of the kegs.

HOBBY CLUB HAS HALLOWE'EN EVENT

Forty-five Hobby Club members of Franklin junior high enjoyed a Hallowe'en masquerade party at the Y. W. C. A. basement last night. Two "ghosts" were present to usher in the strange-costumed guests, each of whom had to know the password, "Hobby."

Cider, pretzels, apples and candy were served. Prizes were offered for the costume creations. Fortune telling was the spice of the program.

Genkinger Is Utilizing Leaves

Being Placed In Jameson Memorial Park To Make Ground Fertile

Department of streets trucks during the past day or more have been hauling leaves from North Hill thoroughfare to Jameson Memorial park. They have been dumped there at the order of Director of Grounds Genkinger. He says that the leaves will make the ground more fertile. The section acquired some time ago by the city is five acres in size.

The sales tax makes the ultimate consumer knowingly pay the tax he now pays without knowing it.

District Circuit Entertained Here By Local Auxiliary

Hundred Twenty-Five Women Of G. I. A. Gather In City Thursday

One hundred twenty-five women, representing 18 divisions of the district circuit of railroad auxiliaries, gathered at the City building Thursday morning for an all day district meeting. Members of the local G. I. A. were hostesses of the occasion.

Making this an outstanding meeting of its kind was the presence of both Mrs. Mary Cassell, of Cleveland who is grand president of Grand International Auxiliary, and Mrs. Elizabeth Hienerwald, of Philadelphia, grand vice president.

Although district meetings are conducted once every four months, it is hardly once in two or three years that it is possible for both grand president and grand vice president to be present.

Guests yesterday were present from New Castle, Pittsburgh, Carnegie, Kittaning, Youngstown, Philadelphia, Greenville and other points of the district. The business session got underway at 10:30 a. m. and continuing on to noon when dinner was served in the St. John's Lutheran Church on Neshannock avenue. Business was resumed in the afternoon and the meeting came to a close at 5 o'clock. Featuring the afternoon were talks by Mrs. Cassell and Mrs. Heinerwald.

Grand Officers Leave For East

After Three Day Stay In This City Auxiliary Officers Go To Newark

Mrs. Mary E. Cassell, of Cleveland, Ohio, grand president of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, and Mrs. Elizabeth Hienerwald, of Philadelphia, Pa., who have been in Mahoningtown since Tuesday, left on the Pennsylvania railroad last night for Newark, N. J., where they will speak at an auxiliary meeting.

The two grand officers arrived here on Tuesday morning and were guests at the home of Mrs. J. Herb McIlvenny, West Clayton street. On Wednesday morning, accompanied by Mrs. C. F. Perrine and Mrs. Fred Kelley, the latter of whom is president of the local G. I. A., they motored to Greenville, where they attended an auxiliary meeting. A number of the local lodge memberrs attended also.

Thursday the grand officers attended the district meeting in New Castle. That evening they were guests of Mrs. C. F. Perrine at dinner, before leaving for New Jersey.

SEVENTH WARD PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Olmstead, of Fifth street, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Westman, and Miss Helen Clark, of the Mt. Jackson road, and Miss Eleanor Stiles, of Beaver, Pa., were guests at a party Friday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Offutt, Poland, O. Mr. and Mrs. Offutt are former local residents.

Miss Eleanor Stiles, of Beaver, Pa., is a guest at the home of Miss Helen Clark, Mt. Jackson road.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. McDonald, of Akron, O., were visitors in Seventh Ward Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Beam, of West Madison avenue, Mrs. Ralph Wettich and son, Stanton, of West Clayton street, spent Wednesday in Cleveland, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Tip Earl, of Willow Grove, have left to spend a few days in Buffalo, N. Y.

Mr. Gray, of Ambridge, Pa., was a business visitor in this ward Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. J. B. Welch, of Erie, was a guest Thursday at the homes of Ralph and Lewis Wettich.

Mrs. C. F. Perrine, Mrs. Fred Kelley, Mrs. H. G. Tetlow, Mrs. Armstrong, Mrs. H. A. Leichty, Mrs. William Curran and Mrs. Gillespie, are among the members of the local G. I. A. who attended a Greenville meeting Wednesday.

Mahoning School Has Music Program

Students Of Mahoning Express Appreciation For Gift Of Records

As a means of expressing their appreciation to Miss Nannie Mitcheltree, the principal of Mahoning school, who presented the school with over one hundred phonograph records, the pupils of the sixth, seventh, and eighth grades presented a music appreciation program in their assembly room on Thursday, October 27, at 9:00 o'clock.

From this collection, (which includes the works of the master musicians, Bach, Schubert, Nevin, Haydn, Wagner, Tschaikowsky, Chopin, Paderewski, Handel, and MacDowell,) the folk-songs of Russia, Norway, Spain, France, England, Wales, Ireland, Scotland, Italy, Hawaii, and Hungary were presented.

Each class presented a record from a different country. Children, who were in costume, and who represented each class group, told of the geographical influences upon the music of that particular country.

At the beginning of the program, Fred Freese from 8B, who presided, asked Miss Mitcheltree to come to the platform. He gave a short talk which dedicated the program to her.

Miss Geneva Fleming, geography teacher, had charge of the costuming. Miss Jane Young, dramatic teacher, directed the speaking parts.

Music of Norway by Andrew Billyk of Grade 6-B-2.

Music of Hungary by Daniel Schnebly of Grade 6A.

Music of England by Philip McGuire of Grade 7B-1.

Music of Russia by Mary Muzzo of Grade 7B-2.

Music of Hawaii by Charlotta Martello of Grade 7A.

Music of Ireland by Marjorie Howard and Kenneth Farver of Grade 8B.

Music of Wales by Maurice Aquara of Grade 8A-1.

Music of Italy by Herman Orlando of Grade 8A-2.

CHILDREN'S BOOKS

A number of children's books were added to the Mahoning branch library yesterday. One new book for adults was added, "The Corner Presides," by Truss. This book is in the pay collection.

Hallowe'en story hour will take place at 4 o'clock this evening at the local branch. Mrs. Gladys Johnston, branch librarian, states that tickets are not necessary in order to attend. There is no charge.

FOOD DONATIONS

Gifts of canned fruit, vegetables and jelly for the Jameson Memorial hospital, which have been solicited in the past several weeks in the local churches, are being taken today to the ingathering at the hospital. All seventh ward people who have not already made their donations may do so today or tomorrow. They may be left either at the hospital or at the First Presbyterian church.

PARTY TONIGHT

From 6:30 to 8:00 this evening the members of the Junior Christian Endeavor of the Mahoningtown Presbyterian church will make merry with a Hallowe'en party. This is an annual affar for the juniors and one they look forward to each year.

A program of games has been arranged for them. The party will be in the church.

B. W. R. CLUB

B. W. R. club members will have a Hallowe'en party Monday evening, the 31st, at the home of Mrs. George Fisher, Richlieu avenue.

Demand Return Of Saar Valley To Fatherland

(International News Service)

BERLIN—Germany has started a fight for the return of the Saar valley to the Fatherland. The first note in the political campaign preceding the plebiscite in the Saar in January, 1935, was sounded by Chancellor Franz von Papen, the first "Saarlander" to hold such a high post in the German Reich.

"In the 13 years that the Saarlanders have been separated from the Reich they have proved that they are Germans and intend to remain Germans," the Chancellor said in an appeal to patriotic socities in the Saar. "The separation of this valley from Germany was one of the most arbitrary and unnecessary dictates of the Versailles treaty. If anything good has come out of the enforced separation, it is the increased consciousness of the the people that they are Germans."

The Saar, an area of only 1,000 square miles and 800,000 inhabitants has long been one of the sore spots of Europe. In 1919 it was put under the League of Nations' administration.

Three questions will be put before the people at the plebiscite in 1935: whether they want to belong to Germany, to France or retain the League as a sovereign.

RABBITS, VALUE, $775 MALICIOUSLY MURDERED

NEW KENSINGTON, Pa., Oct. 28.—Spite work is believed by police to be the motive back of the malicious killing of 31 prize New Zealand rabbits, valued at $50 a pair, and owned by Mrs. Scofield of Seventh street extension. She told police when she went to their pens she found the hares dead, their legs and necks broken and heads crushed. Police scouted theories that weasles or other animals which prey on small game are to blame.

Utility Witness Remains Adamant About Testimony

Senate Probers Fail To Shake Testimony Given By Utility Official

CLAIMS BENN DID NOT OWN STOCK

By WILLIAM B. BROWN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HARRISBURG, Oct. 28.—Continued cross-questioning before the Senate Utility Investigating Committee today failed to upset the contention of Walter L. Morgan that James B. Benn, his father-in-law, never actually owned any stock in the Pennsylvania Water and Power company while the latter was a Public Service Commissioner.

Books of the investment companies in which Morgan is interested showed transfer of the stock as bought and sold for the companies themselves but no actual sales to Benn until January of the present year when 250 shares were transferred to him.

Testimony Corrected

Testimony yesterday of J. W. Gross showed several purchases of the same stock listed in Morgan's name. In one instance a carbon copy of the purchase confirmation order apparently had been sent to Benn and in another a reference was made to "J. E. B."

Today Morgan insisted that all such purchases had been made either for himself personally or one of his investment companies and that Benn never had actually bought any stock until this year and that it had been transferred to the latter's son.

At the conclusion of his testimony today Morgan told the committee that he often had borrowed money from his father-in-law and in turn at times had made loans to him. He insisted that Benn never shared in either the profits or the losses of the companies in which he is interested.

Witness Belligerent

Morgan contended that he did not think it fair for the committee to probe into his personal affairs. "It is true that I married Mr. Benn's daughter but I did not marry the Public Service Commission," said Morgan.

Because Morgan had not personally made the entries in the books which he produced for his investment companies, C. K. Eaton, the committee's counsel, said he would subpoena the accountant who did and also possibly a stenographer in Morgan's office.

Prior to Morgan's testimony the committee delved again into the affairs of the public policy committee of the Pennsylvania Electric Association. The questioning of Eaton followed the same lines as that which for days dragged out two former legislative probes of the utilities.

No Detailed Accounts

Practically all the facts in regard to the committee's work, except the disposition of cash payments to its officers, have been brought out in the hearing held for the past several years before the federal trade commission. Today as in the other probes the testimony taken before the federal authorities was read into the record.

Walter E. Long, now a vice president of the United Gas improvement Company who served as treasurer of the committee during its existence was the only witness called Long admitted that cash payment of sums as large as $5000 had been paid to members for "legal and other services" and said no detailed accounting had been made. He said that in some years no assessments were levied on the utility companies which were members and that the highest total in any one year was $31,000.

In response to questions by Eaton regarding the ethics of such procedure, Long asserted that he considered such work had been necessary several years ago but not at present. He admitted that if the committee "could do it over again" other methods would be followed.

Italian Farmers Use Potato Flour In Making Bread

(International News Service)

ROME, Oct. 28.—Experiments are being made through the Fascist Federation of Farmers for making bread with 33 per cent and even 40 per cent potato flour mixed with wheat flour. The potatoes are boiled and mashed before being mixed with the wheat flour.

The military barracks at Naples have been used for the experiments which are reported to be a great success. The bread made with 33 per cent potato is said to be light and tasty and that of 40 per cent rather heavier but more satisfying and cheaper.

The object is to cut down the imports of foreign-grown cereals as much as possible and at the same time to help Italian farmers through the crisis. The difficulty will be to get enough potatoes of the floury kind as these are not a specialty in Italy owing largely to climatic conditions. The Italian grown potato is on the whole better fitted for frying than boiling.

Italians eat an enormous quantity of bread, consuming a yearly average of 190 kilos of wheat and corn per head in bread; and 10 million quintals of this have to be imported from America or Russia.

NEW WORLD OF ECONOMIC UNITS SEEN BY BANKER

(International News Service)

LONDON, Oct. 28.—Another half-century and the world will be divided into huge economic units.

That is how Lord Melchett, director of Barclay's bank, visualized the future, when he lectured the students at Bonar Law college.

Declaring that both internationalism and big business had vanished, he said the trend of scientific and industrial knowledge had been to make countries far more self-supporting. What, he asked, is going to happen when this trend becomes even more pronounced in say, fifty years?

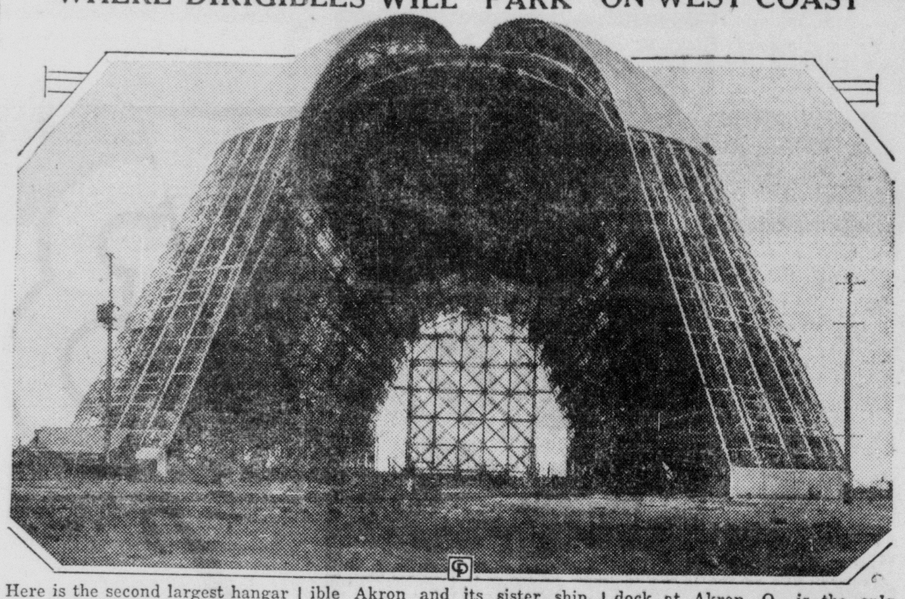

There will be a tendency to large territorial divisions; to try to carve the world up into large self-supporting units, large economic units, which have the raw materials, and the right type of population.

A United States of Europe, said Lord Melchett, is inevitable.

RECORD IS SET BY DAIRY COW

FORT COLLINS, Colo., Oct. 28.—A national dairy record recently was made by a purebred Guernsey cow owned by Robert and Catherine Roemer, Fort Collins ranchers, according to official word received from the American Guernsey Cattle club. "Cherub's Mable of Elderon." won first honors as the highest producing cow in the United States in the herd test division of the Guernsey cattle club, with 19,714 pounds of milk containing 920.55 pounds of butterfat during the lactation period.

WHERE DIRIGIBLES WILL "PARK" ON WEST COAST

Here is the second largest hangar in the world, which is nearing completion at Sunnyvale, Cal., to serve as an air base for the dirigible Akron and its sister ship, Macon, now under construction, when these huge air liners visit the west coast. The dirigible dock at Akron, O., is the only hangar which exceeds the Sunnyvale hangar in size. Cost of the new hangar is about $1,750,000.

Takes House Post

Dr. Walter W. M. Splawn, former president of the University of Texas, and more recently, dean of the graduate school of the American University, who has resigned his educational posts to take a position in the House Committee on Foreign and Domestic Commerce. He will be an aide in the drafting of power bills.

CHICKEN STORY GETS MAN INTO WORKHOUSE

(International News Service)

MERCER, Pa., Oct. 28.—When it comes to chicken stories, Judge J. A. McLaughry can't be fooled.

Joe Beal of Farrell, Pa., appeared before the judge on charges of stealing poultry.

"While I was standing on the street corner a man came up and handed me a package," Joe explained. "I didn't know there was a chicken in it."

To this Judge McLaughry replied: "That's a good chicken story and it's worth six months in the Allegheny county workhouse."

WIFE FLEES WHEN HER HUBBY FLIES

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 28.—Seven years ago, William H. Duthie's wife left him because he refused to quit flying and she was afraid he would be killed unless he entered some other line of work. Now, Duthie has filed a divorce petition here. He still flies, employed as an aviator for the United States Air Service.

"Rustic" is the name of the new dark shade of green, in case you didn't know.

AUTO CRASH TEARS SHOES OFF FEET

(International News Service)

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Oct. 28.—Jonas Rausch, 49, literally jumped out of his shoes.

Or, perhaps more correctly, it could be said that his shoes just took leave of him.

Rausch was struck by an automobile at a street corner. The impact of the crash tore his shoes away and hurled them to a second-story window ledge of a nearby building.

BETTER NOT DRIVE OVER A PORCUPINE

(International News Service)

TITUSVILLE, Pa., Oct. 28.—Motorists, here's a hint—don't run over a porcupine.

Merle Ellison of Titusville did and the quills of the animal punctured both tire casing and tube for a third of the tire's circumference.

Garbo? Guess Again

At first glance, this lady looks enough like Greta Garbo to be her twin. She is Tina Flada, attractive German exponent of the modern dance, who has come from triumphs in Europe to seek fame in the United States. She is rehearsing for her American stage debut at New York.

DETROIT MOTOR COPS CALLED 'SUICIDE SQUAD'

(International News Service)

DETROIT, Oct. 28.—Police Superintendent John P. Smith is getting tired of hearing his motorcycle patrolmen refer to their detail as the "suicide squad".

"Anybody who feels that way about his work will be transferred the next time he expresses his feelings," said Supt. Smith in a recent edict.

OLD COIN FOUND BENEATH A BRICK

(International News Service)

CARLISLE, Pa., Oct. 28.—Workmen tearing up the paving in front of the First Presbyterian church here found an English penny bearing the date, 1771.

The coin was badly worn. It was discovered only a few inches under the soil beneath a brick.

An American penny minted in 1835 was found recently in an excavation on the lawn of the church.

Teddy, Jr., Radios Plea For Hoover

In First Campaign Speech By Air From Overseas He Praises President

Son Of Famous "T. R." Urges Re-election Of President Hoover

MANILA, Oct. 28.—In the first campaign address brought by radio across the seas in American political history, Theodore Roosevelt, jr., governor general of the Philippines, today urged the re-election of President Hoover, whom he characterized as a man "capable of facing the crisis."

Roosevelt, son of the former president, a lifelong Republican and distant cousin of the Democratic candidate, Franklin D. Roosevelt, rose early in the morning on Friday here that his words might be carried to the voters in America on Thursday evening.

After praising President Hoover's economic measures, Roosevelt concluded with "for the good of the nation we must elect Herbert Hoover."

"The United States is still American and is going to stay so," he told his distant audience. "That is the issue in the campaign and we will fight it out on those lines.

"We do not wish our country to be made a laboratory for wholesale experiments in government ownerships, tariff tinkering or currency inflation."

Cites His Backers

"I do not accuse the Democratic standard bearer of advocating all these theories. However they are all held in a lesser or greater degree by component elements of the group that is backing him, and any sensible individual knows that when you marry you not merely marry your wife but her family as well.

"Should he be elected we will be putting in control of the affairs of our nation a group froming a compendium of these theories. From every side the severest pressure will be brought to bear on him to lend himself to these theories. He will be forced to concede or he will be stalemated.

"President Hoover, on the other hand, when re-elected will be concerned only with carrying on the sound common-sense policies he has been advocating, policies in accord with American principles, policies which if adopted will safely guide our country through these dangers."

Roosevelt said from his distant vantage point he was able to "see more clearly the conditions of our country as compared to other countries" and he said he could see "more clearly how fortunate we are, in spite of our misfortunes."

"Our country has been particularly fortunate," he added, "because in times of great national need a man has arisen in the nation capable of facing the crisis and setting the feet of our people on the proper road.

"We have that man at this time.

"It is our president, Herbert Hoover. He personifies the characteristics that we like to believe are American. The story of his life is an epitome of the qualities that made America great—personal integrity, sensible, daring devotion to ideals and common sense.

"For the last three years he has held steadfastly to the vision that inspired the framers of the Declaration of Independence, a vision toward which we have been laboriously struggling for the past 150 years, and to which the lives of our best and bravest have been dedicated. No man in the United States has suffered more than he. No man has worked harder."

Science has been able to improve almost all of man's tool except the platitude.

Harold Lloyd's Father To Wed

Harold Lloyd, screen comedian, is to have a new mother. His father, J. Darsie Lloyd, who is 62, filed notice of his intention to marry Helen Marshall, 40-year-old actress, in Los Angeles. The couple, shown above, have planned a world tour.

Railroads Plan Further Protest On Canal Project

Army Board May Soon Hold Meeting To Hear Protests On Proposed Canal

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 28.—Local shipping interest today expressed the opinion that the army board for rivers and harbors at Washington soon will meet to fix a date for resumption of hearings on the controversial Ohio River-Lake Erie canal project.

Railroads opposing the canal proposal are understood to have filed briefs, stating their objections. The army board will hear these objections along with those recorded by a group opposed to the Beaver and Shenango Valley route. Arguments in favor of this route were heard by the board earlier.

Led by the Pennsylvania and New York Central, the railroads contend the canal is unnecessary. Certain interests along the Allegheny river hold an Allegheny and French Creek route to the lake would be most favorable.

TURKEY GROWERS ORGANIZATION FORMED

A group of turkey growers from Lawrence, Mercer, and Butler counties have formed a Turkey Growers Information Association. Mrs. F. W. Ferris of New Wilmington has been elected secretary of the association.

The purpose of this organization is to furnish the grower members with market information particularly relative to price during the marketing season of the holidays. It is the feeling of the growers that this association will be of benefit not only to themselves, but to the buyers, who through the association, may be able to find desirable turkeys, and to keep close check on market conditions.

Any grower who is interested in further information may obtain it from Mrs. Ferris or from the Agricultural Extension Association office.

MEXICAN BEAN BEETLES ENTER WINTER QUARTERS

Damage from the Mexican bean beetle has been unusually severe this year. This is probably due to the seasonal conditions favorable to the beetle and to the fact that this insect is becoming more firmly established in Lawrence county.

At this season the beetles are entering hibernation and are concealing themselves in such shelters as may be available, says L. E. Dills, entomology extension specialist of th e Pennsylvania State College. These insects do not hide collectively but are widely scattered through woody and brushy places. Since they are active flyers it is impossible to remove all their hiding places, but a thorough clean-up of plant refuse and brush in fence rows will not only destroy some of the beeties but force the remainder to migrate farther from the garden, which will reduce the spring infestation.

In the spring when the weather becomes warm the beetles leave their winter quarters and return to the gardens to feed upon the young bean leaves, Dill explains. After a short feeding period on the undersurfaces of the leaves they deposit their orange-yellow eggs in irregular masses on the undersides of the leaves. The eggs hatch in a few days and the yellowish spring larvae feed for several weeks on the lower sides of the leaves. After completing their growth the larvae pupate on the leaves and change to adults. In Lawrence county there are two generations and sometime a partial third generation in a year.

PLOW LATE TO ASSIST CONTROL OF EAR WORM

Late fall plowing and harrowing will assist in the control of corn ear worm for next year, declares L. E. Dills, entomology extension specialist of the Pennsylvania State College. If the pupae cells of these insects are broken at this time by plowing and harrowing, they will be unable to survive the winter.

After the larvae of the corn ear worms, feeding in the tips of ears of corn, reach maturity in late summer and early fall they leave the corn and enter the soil, Dills explains. The winter is passed in the pupa or resting stage a few inches below the surface of the ground. In early June the moths or adults emerge, and eggs are deposited on the young corn plant. The eggs hatch in a few days and the first-brood larvae feed in the axils of the young leaves so that when the leaves unroll they bear horizontal rows of holes.

After completing their growth the worms enter the soil and change into moths. The eggs which hatch into second-brood larvae are laid on the silks of early corn. In Lawrence county this insect usually has three generations in a single year.

USE BARREL PIT STORAGE FOR CABBAGE AND ROOTS

An inexpensive barrel pit makes an ideal place to store cabbage, beets carrots, parsnips, rutabages, salsify, and winter radishes.

Placed in a horizontal position in the side of a bank or in a well-drained location, the barrel can be covered with a layer of soil. The barrel head makes a convenient door. As soon as the vegetables are put inside, the barrel head is put in place and the entire pit covered with straw or leaves. As the weather becomes colder, additional layers of soil and straw or leaves may be added.

Vegetables stored in the barrel pit are easily accessible at any time during the winter. The soil covering will give protection against freezing weather and hold sufficient moisture to prevent the vegetables from wilting or shriveling.

Another place where cabbage and root crops may be stored is a cool cellar with a dirt floor. As a rule, the bins should not be more than four feet square and high. Root crops are often placed in old milk cans, or similar containers, with a layer of sand or light soil in the bottom and on top. Where the container has openings or holes in the side, the sand or soil should also be placed along the side of the container.

Large quantities of cabbage sometimes are stored by removing the roots and stems, placing in a long trianglar pit, and covering with straw or leaves and soil.

CORN BORER AND OTHER WORMS OFTEN CONFUSED

All worms working on corn are not European corn borers. Several insects are confused with the corn borer, but they differ in appearance or in feeding habits.

Full-grown caterpillars of the corn borer are nearly an inch long and one-eighth inch thick. The head is dark brown or black. The upper part of the body is light or dark brown or pink. Each segment of the body bears a row of small dark brown spots.. The borers hollow out the tassel buds, eat their way into the pitch of the tassel stem, tunnel into the heavier parts of he stalk, and feed on the cobs and kernels.

The common stalk borer does not resemble the European corn borer in any respect. It may be reorganized by characteristic stripes lengthwise on the body and a broad band or splash of brown across the middle of the back. This insect feeds in the Whorl of young leaves at the top of the plant. Ordinarily, it does not injure the tassels or the ears. Its manner of feeding will distinguish the insect from the European corn borer which does injure these parts.

Young caterpillars of the corn ear worm resemble the corn borer in appearance. When full-grown the worms are nearly one and one-half inches long. The color is variable and may be rosy-pink through pale green to dark brown. It has stripes along the back and sides of the body the most conspicuous being along the sides. This insect feeds only on the silk and kernels of the ear. It does not bore into the stalk or tassel. It may feed in the same ear and be closely associated with the Epropean corn borer while it works.

The smart weed borer is a native insect that looks very much like the European corn borer. In fact, it is impossible for anyone but a specialist to detect the differences. Fortunately, the feeding of this insect does not appear to be serious in corn. The pest does, however, attack a number of thick-stemmed weeds which are likely to be growing in a corn field.

FEED BEES AFTER FROST

Honey seldom is present in the flowers after the first killing frost. Accordingly, the time to feed is as soon as possible after such a frost and after brood rearing has ceased.

Food taken by the bees then is stored where the last brood emerged and is used largely during December and January when the bees have few, if any, cleansing flights.

Motor Freight Route Opposed

Application Of Sharpsville Motor Freight Company To Open New Line Opposed

EIGHT COMPANIES ENTER PROTESTS

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 28. — Eight freight transportation companies opposed the application of the Warner and Smith Motor Freight Company of Sharpsville to establish motor truck service over two routes in Western Pennsylvania in conjunction with interstate operations in Ohio and Pennsylvania at a Public Service Commission hearing here, Thursday.

The protestants, the Pennsylvania, Pittsburgh & Lake Erie, Bessemer & Lake Erie, Baltimore & Ohio, and Erie Railroads, Clyde Duffy of Oil City, Jesse T. Punk of Ellwood City, and the Harmony Short Line, based their objections on the ground that adequate service is now provided by certificated freight carriers.

Dudley P. Warner and Walter K. Smith, partners in the freight business, sought the right to transport freight between Erie and Pittsburgh via Girard, Conneaut Lake, Sharon, Sharpsville and New Castle; and between Sharpsville and Oil City via Sharon, Mercer and Franklin.

They stipulated no freight would be picked up or delivered on the north bound trip between Pittsburgh and Sharon inclusive nor on the south bound trip between Erie and Meadville inclusive.

Two trucks would be operated on the proposed Erie-Pittsburgh route with overnight stops at Sharpsville. From that headquarters, freight would be dispatched the following day on the Oil City Route.

Warner testified that in connection with his interstate operations he frequently receives requests from shippers to carry freight intra-state. He named several manufacturers in the various cities, who have sought the service.

Although he offered no schedule of rates, the applicant said they would not exceed that charged by the railroad carriers.

BAND WILL LEAVE

There is much rejoicing that there is finally enough money to send the band to Altoona. This has been accomplished by the joint efforts of the townspeople and members of the band. The band will be accompanied by many New Castle citizens and students of the High School.

HEAR DOCTOR'S TALK

Wednesday, October 26, was designated as Pennsylvania State Health Day.

Dr. Womer represented the Lawrence County Medical Society at the Senior high school. He gave a very interesting talk on health fundamentals, he stressed four particular points; conforming to conventions, regular habits, to refrain from the emotions of fear and of anger.

ELDER HEADS COUNCIL

Student Council officers were elected Wednesday October 27. Those elected are: President, James Elder; vice president, Ione Farver; secretary, Becky Carson; treasurer, Mary Johns.

The new Sophomore members to the council were elected. The elected council members of the Sophomore A class are Martin Hoffmeister and Ruth Stevenson; of the Sophomore B class they are Donna Jean Beall and Joe Howley.

The Student Council of Senior High will meet next Wednesday with the Sophomore members with them for the first time this semester.

GIRL RESERVES MEET

Monday, October 24, the Interest Groups of the Girl Reserve Club assembled for the first time in their various rooms at the Y. W. C. A. When the girls signed up to join the Girl Reserves they signified the activity in which they wished to participate. Bowling, dramatics, handicraft, and basketball are among the different units. The girls have started to work in their various fields, and have begun to enjoy themselves. It is really great fun to see which one wins in a game of bowling, or to anticipate the heroine of the coming play.

There will be no meeting next week because the Hallowe'en dance will be held October 28.

HALLOWE'EN DANCE

At Camp Eastbrook, on October 28 there will be much merrymaking. The Girl Reserves and their boy friends will be dancing gayly in celebration of the time-honored witches fiesta— Hallowe'en. There will be a splendid orchestra and plenty of entertainment. Don't you grown-ups envy the Girl Reserves?

SEE MACKEY'S COSTUMES

During the William Penn assembly in the High School Auditorium the audience was treated to a very unusual and interesting spectacle. This spectacle was the real Indian costumes worn by the cast, and members of the chorus. The costumes were part of a collection belonging to Mr. Paul Mackey of Euclid avenue. It was through Mr. Mackey's generosity that the program was made a success.

The costumes were regular ceremony outfits that were obtained by Mr. Mackey, through Inian friends, on the Rosebud Reservation in South Dakota. This reservation houses 14,000 Indians of the Sioux race. There are costumes of the Sioux, Crow, Cheyenne and Cree tribes among the collection, some of the latter costumes coming from Montana.

The bonnets are all adorned with tail feathers of the Golden Eagle. They are dyed various colors and tied to the bonnet with sinew. Beadwork is employed to embellish the appearance of the bonnets. The jackets are made of buckskin and decorated with beadwork and porcupine quills. The beads are obtained from Italy by the Indians for this work. The beads are sewn with sinew to the buckskin. This fact enables one to distinguish the real Indian handiwork from the imitation, the latter being sewn with thread. Before beads became so easy to obtain, porcupine quills were used and made beautiful work. The sinew is applied wet and when it dries it tightens up. The leggings of the costume are made of buckskin, with elaborate beading and designs. They fasten to the belt of the wearer by straps. The moccasins were formerly of a distinct tribal design, so that when found the owner could be traced. As the years have passed the tribes haxe mixed together so that this is not possible. The eastern Indians have the soles of their moccasins thin and pliable, while the western ones have rawhide soles. Horsehair is also used in decorating costumes, but not to such an extent as beads and quills.

The Indians use the primary colors in such a way that would alarm most art teachers, yet the effect is harmonious and pleasing to the eye.

HOOVER WINNER IN SCHOOL POLL

President Hoover won out in a straw presidential vote taken among the Senior high school's students, teachers, janitors and the principal and his assistants yesterday.

Hoover was the choice of 905 of the 1,869 votes cast; Roosevelt got 823; Norman Thomas, Socialist, 107; Jobless, 20; Communist, 9, and Prohibitionist, 5.

PENN CHAPEL HELD

October 24 was set aside by Pennsylvania as a day commemorated to William Penn. In 1862 on the 24th day of October, William Penn landed on the soil of a territory that later in a way of honoring him called after him, Pennsylvania. This was the beginning of the future establishment of our commonwealth.

Since it was the 250th anniversary of the landing of Penn on Pennsylvania soil, the high school auditorium held a program in honor of the Quaker. It was sponsored by the history and music department. Details pertaining to the play were announced by Miss Olivia Griffiths. When the curtains were drawn aside the stage displayed primly dressed Quakers and Indians arrayed and decorated in brightly colored blankets and fancy headdresses.

The scene of the program was, "William Penn's Treaty with the Indians." While songs were being sung, the peace pipe was passed around among the actors which added to the reality of the program. At the close of the scene a double quartet entered upon the stage and sang the Penn State Song. While the song was well in progress, ushers distributed pamphlets to the audience who later sang the song with the accompaniment of the orchestra.

The program was prepared by Miss Dinsmore, Miss Griffith and Miss Maxwell.

The outstanding characters were Thomas Stevenson, who made a very life-like William Penn, and Charles Beckwith, who made a very realistic Indian chief. Other special Indian costumes were worn by James Chill and Joe Smolinski.

RETIRING OFFICIALS PRAISE INDIANS

(International News Service)

TUCSON, Ariz., Oct. 28.—Firm in their conviction that the Indian race is as high morally and intellectually as the average American, Mr. and Mrs. Libbie C. Light have retired from the government's reservation service after 37 years spent among the Sioux, Walupais and Papagos. Mr. Light has been reservation superintendent and Mrs. Light, field matron, at Rose Bud, E. D., Hayward, Wis., Valentine, Ariz., and Tucson.

"The North American Indian is a man of strong character," they say. "His wife sees to that. Both the men and women work hard, and keep a stoic courage that carries them through the depths of poverty. The children learn quickly but are never given the opportunities that they should have to develop."

DENIED COMPENSATION FOR LOSS OF LEG

(International News Service)

BUDAPEST, Oct. 28.—A beggar is not entitled to damages for the loss of a leg, ruled the district court of Debreczin, "because damages are awarded to compensate for loss of income due to the incapitation.

The beggar, Joseph Ballo, 57-years old, was alrady a cripple with one leg. He was run over by a street car and lost the other leg. He sued the street car company for 10,000 pengoes(about 300 pounds sterling at par.)

The court found the motorman guilty of negligence but held that the loss of a second leg might prove an advantage rather than a disadvantage to a man in Ballo's profession.

Syling Attends Conference Today

County Superintendent Of Schools Is Chairman Of Program Committee

County Superintendent of Schools John C. Syling is in Kittanning today where he is attending a conference of county superintendents of the Southwestern Pennsylvania district.

Mr. Syling is chairman of the program committee and arranged the program which is being followed out.

The forencon session was devoted to an address by S. H. Replogle, assistant superintendent in Allegheny county on "The Larger Unit of Administration." The discussion following was led by Dr. M. S. Bentz, superintendent of Cambria county, and Superintendent Charles Maxwell of Westmoreland county.

The afternoon program included addresses by W. G. Lambert, superintendent of Beaver county on "How We Can Lighten the Burden of High School Tuition," and "Proposed Changes in the School Code," by Dr. C. R. Foster, president of Indiana State Teachers College.

'MEANEST MAN' STEALS FELLOW CRIPPLE'S LEG

(International News Service)

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 28.—Tony Bennetto had a wooden leg. It was a good leg, though it didn't suit Tony quite as well as he thought an artificial leg might.

Two strangers came along. One of them had no right leg. He admired Tony's limb. He asked Tony if he would like to sell it. Well, yes, Tony said, he might.

Maybe he would let the stranger try it, to see how it fit? Tony agreed. Tony is going on a crutch now, wondering where his wooden leg had led the stranger.

W. G. AYERS HURT IN FALL FROM LADDER AT HOME

While removing the awnings at his home at 1103 North Jefferson street Tuesday, W. G. Ayers lost his balance and fell from the ladder he was using, sustaining a badly sprained right foot.

He has been in bed since, and upon receiving medical attention it is believed there are no bones broken. He is slightly improved today, but it will be sometime before he will be able to be about.

Paroled Convict Held For Murder At Cleveland, O.

Man Recently Given Freedom Admits Killing Of One Man, Wounding Another

SELF-DEFENSE WILL BE PLEA

(International News Service)

CLEVELAND, Oct. 28.—Charges of murder were expected to be lodged today against Charles D. Thompson, 40, recently paroled convict, who admitted in a signed statement, according to detectives, that he killed one man and wounded another during an argument.

Thompson declared he shot in self-defense. He was captured by a crowd of bystanders and turned over to police.

One Man Dies.

The victims of the gunfire were James Oates, 38, who died on the operating table at Charity hospital, and Thomas Scott, 41, companion of Oates.

The argument that precipitated the shooting arose when the gun victims accused Thompson of being a federal agent who was trying to locate speakeasies in the vicinity to "shake down" the proprietors, according to police.

Oates' death was the second killing in Cleveland and the third in Ohio by a paroled prisoner from Ohio penitentiary in the last three weeks.

employes in maintaining such a high standard of performance. He expressed the confidence that this would not be the last time that such a trophy would come to New Castle.

The introduction of guests followed, Mr. Bolsinger introducing them to the crowd. Those present in addition to the speakers were: Postmaster L. S. MacNab, City Councilmen W. S. Treser, L. G. Genkinger, A. A. Hoyland and D. O. Davies; Q. A. McBride, O. J. Shannon, Dr. W. C. Burchfield, Chamber of Commerce Secretary A. W. Chilton, Motor Club Secretary B. N. Hanlon, Patrolman M. P. Sarko of the Pennsylvania highway patrol, Clarence L. England, president of the Kiwanis Club; Dick Morrow, sales manager of the plant; R. J. Agnew and C. H. Salsmann of Beaver Falls.

Fred L. Rentz, president of the New Castle News, was the next speaker on the program. He went back to the days when the plant first opened and of his friendship with John H. Waters, president of the company. Mr. Rentz congratulated the men upon their record and said that every time they won such a trophy they were avoiding not only injury to themselves, but also better protecting their families and society.

Mayor Charles B. Mayne

Mayor Charles B. Mayne was introduced and compared the present days of safety and efficiency with the old days when men were injured in industry and the injuries were accepted as a part of the inductrial hazard. Today he said, due to the intense drive for safety and the co-operation of such workers as the radiator men, injuries were the exception and safety the rule.

Louis B. Round, vice president and general manager of the Pennsylvania Power Company, was the last speaker of the day. He went beyond merely safety in industry and urged more safety upon the highways and in the pursuits of life outside the factory wall. He urged the men to not let up in their desire to play safe and compared the casualties of the World War with the casualties of peace time.

The bronze placque, for such it is, will have a place of honor in the office of the National Radiator Corporation, for it represents a piece of co-operative planning and working. Every employe of the plant has a part in the trophy and everyone takes a justifiable pride in it.

Hoover Landslide In Pennsylvania Seen By Hurley

Pennsylvania To Give Old-Fashioned Republican Majority To Herbert Hoover

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 28—Promised the Hoover ticket will receive "an old-fashioned Republican majority" Nov. 8 Secretary of War Patrick J. Hurley left here today after telling a Republican rally here that Franklin D. Roosevelt would have to become a dictator to redeem his campaign promises.

"No dictator the world has ever known has had the power that would enable him to redeem the promises that have been made on the people by Gov. Roosevelt,' Hurley said.

Gen. Edward Martin, Republican state chairman, informed Hurley from the speaker's platform he could report to President Hoover that Pennsylvania will given an old-fashioned Republican majority to the Republican ticket Nov. 8.

"Sixty-two of the 67 counties in Pennsylvania already are in the Hoover column" Martin said.

Putting Herself Over on Broadway

P. & L. E. Company Puts Hundred Men To Work

One hundred men have been put to work by the P. & L. E. railroad at Linville, near Covert's Station, unloading and scattering slag and other debris gathered from along the right-of-way of the company.

The men are being worked in two shifts of 50 men, each of whom will receive three days' employment.

This will be an aid in reducing unemployment in the city, the men being employed for an indefinite period of time, local P. & L. E. officials stated.

he believed in the Community Chest idea as the only right and proper way to raise money for community uplift and relief.

He urged the campaign workers to read and digest the simple instructions which were given them. "The United States government grants exemption up to 15 per cent of a man's income," he stated, "but contributors are not being asked for more than three per cent, which is far less than the government thinks you ought to give.

"Too many people over in Johnstown thought of the Community Chest idea on a penny-ante basis," he said. "They didn't think the stakes were as high. That if the goal was reached, it would bring happiness and comfort to a great many people; but if lost, would cause a great amount of human despair.

"The head of an institution always sets an example for his employes," he pointed out. "Over in Johnstown, Mr. Watters, he head of the National Radiator company, is our largest contributor, and the National Radiator company employes have subscribed 100 per cent.

No Apologies Needed.

"You don't have anything to apologize for in this campaign. If you close up the character building organizations, you might just as well close the churches too. The man who argues with you on this humanitarian effort should be the one to apologize.

"No man can be a good solicitor until he has sold himself and given his own contribution," he said in conclusion, and urged every worker present last evening to do this at the start.

Bert Wells, who is in charge of the campaign now under way in Johnstown, also spoke briefly, and pointed out that while this year is a difficult one, that campaigns which his organization is in charge of in Lincoln, Neb.; Honolulu, and Seattle, Wash., had all gone across, two with more money than was asked for. The amounts raised ranged from $162,000 at Lincoln up to $667,000 at Seattle.

He urged every one present to take the matter most seriously and to be present at every report meeting.

James M. Smith, Sr., general chairman of the united effort, presided and introduced several local leaders, asking them to give their impressions on the campaign.

L. B. Round, vice-president and general manager of the Pennsylvania Power Co., stated that this was to be a campaign with no speeches, just work. "This gang present here tonight can take any job in New Castle and do it right," he stated.

Dr. C. C. Green, superintendent of schools, was asked to speak for the schools. He stated that while he had no authority from the teachers task had been presented to the teachers in the past, they had always done it in a big way, stressing the fact that 300 local school teachers last year gave one-eighth of the total amount subscribed in the chest last year.

Can Depend On Teachers.

He stated that when the matter was presented to the teachers, he was informed within a half hour that they had appointed a committee to take care of the work and that the teachers could be depended upon to do their full share.

W. F. Moody stated that when he asked a number of people to help out with their time in the campaign this year, he had received a ready and willing response.

"Last year I heard a number of people say, 'This is my last time,' but the reason why the same people are back on the job again this year is that they are the 200 people in New Castle who can do this job. Not one refused to do anything we asked them to. With the cause so essential and just, I don't see why this crowd should be denied their goal," he stated.

Mrs. Grace Phillips Johnson, president of the Community Chest, then gave a report of the big gifts committee, showing the individual contributions which totalled $12,000. The report of the various divisions and teams followed, bringing the total for the first evenings' report to $16,517.

Notorious Jewel Robber Poses For Movie Men Today

Arthur Barry, Height Of Sartorial Perfection Appears Before Cameras

(International News Service)

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 28.—Arthur Barry, notorious jewel thief, who admits that Mister Raffles was a piker compared to himself, today could hardly wait to see how the pictures turn out.

Arthur got cast into the movies—three movie newsreels. After three days of bargaining he was paid $25 by each outfit, although he held out to the last minute for 10 times as much.

"Can you beat it?" asked Arthur, resting with both hands on the cell bars from his artistic efforts. "I'm a born actor and the highest paid crook in the world. And the movies only pay me chicken feed."

It was a thrilling scene when America's first diamond-snatcher stepped out before the camera. He had bathed, shaved and waxed his moustache. There was even perfume in the air, but Arthur said it must have been in the atmosphere.

Bandits Sighted.

Angola, Indiana, Oct. 28.—Three bandits who robbed the Reading, Mich., State Bank of $10,000 were sighted along a country road near here today a short time after word of the holdup was received.

The outlaws were driving a black Nash sedan, along a country lane paralleling the New York Central railroad tracks which run from Hillsdale, Michigan, through Reading, to Angola and to Fort Wayne.

All available police officers assisted by state policemen were mobilized here and took to the highway in an attempt to intercept the desperadoes.

TURNED THE TABLES ON HIS BROTHER

(International News Service)

NORRISTOWN, Pa., Oct. 28.—Philip Barnes of Hoopeston turned the tables on his brother George, who had preferred assault and battery charges against him.

George accused Philip of choking him. During testimony before Magistrate Urban of Ambler it was shown that George was the aggressor. Philip was discharged and the costs were placed on George, the plainant.

Peter Ilyitch Tschaikowsky was the greatest composer Russia has ever produced.

High School Band Going On Pennsy

Change Made In Plan Of Transportation Of Band To Altoona Game Tomorrow

Due to difficulties that have arisen since preliminary arrangements were made to take the high school band to Altoona by bus, a change in the arrangements has been made and the band will go to Altoona over the Pennsylvania railroad.

The team will leave New Castle at 7:15 o'clock Saturday morning from the west side station of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. The return trip from Altoona will be started from Altoona at 7:30 o'clock in the evening.

WHEEL CHAIR SEAT CONCEALS LIQUOR

(International News Service)

TARENTUM, Pa., Oct. 28.—During a liquor raid here, federal agents found two five-gallon cans of moonshine concealed in a secret compartment under the seat of a wheel-chair occupied by a cripple.

The raiders' suspicion was aroused when a crutch was found in the house after the cripple had protested he was unable to leave the chair.

BIG WATER WHEEL CLOGGED WITH EELS

BELLEFONTE, Pa., Oct. 28.—Sherman's march to the sea has an equal here in the run of fresh water eels to their ocean breeding grounds.

The eels in their march brought disaster to Bellefonte's water supply. When a big hydraulic water pump used to force water into the borough's mains slowed down to a few revolutions a minute, superintendent J. D. Seibert investigated.

He discovered the waterwheel was clogged with eels. Workmen removed several, each of which measured four feet in length.

Deer Are Menace On This Highway

Help For Driver Knocked From Road Is Brought By Faithful Dog

(International News Service)

MILFORD, Pa., Oct. 28.—Motorists using the highway in Delaware Valley, between Stroudsburg and Matamoras, have been advised to use particular care at night to prevent being wrecked by wandering deer.

Fred Huegle, of Port Jervis, left Dingman's Ferry recently for his home. He was traveling at a moderate rate of speed, he said, when a large deer suddenly sprang out of the dense woods and struck his machine so hard that it was forced from the road and overturned. He was pinned beneath the car but managed to squirm partly from under it. His precarious position was not discovered until several hours later and then a dog was responsible for his rescue.

Finding Huegle under the car, the dog began barking at him, until several persons came to his aid.

Getting Ready For Small Game Season

Nimrods Polishing Up Their Guns For Active Service On November 1

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Oct. 28.—Nimrods of Pennsylvania are overhauling and polishing their shooting irons for the small game season which opens on Tuesday, November 1.

On that day wild ducks, wild geese, mudhens, wild turkeys, quail, squirrels, raccoons, rabbits, and hares will remain in sight only at the peril of their lives.

The bear hunting season opens November 10 and deer season begins December 1. The state this year is legally closed to the killing of elk.

Bag limits for the bird season, which in some counties will extend to December 31, are: wild ducks, 15 a day, 60 for the season; geese, four a day, 30 for the season, and mudhens, 25 a day, no season limit.

Racoon hunting will be allowed until December 31 only in Adams, Bedford, Berks, Bucks, Carbon, Chester, Cumberland, Dauphin, Delaware, Fayette, Franklin, Fulton, Greene, Lancaster, Lebanon, Lehigh, Montgomery, Philadelphia, Washington, and York counties.

In all other counties the season opens October 15 and comes to an end December 15. The bag limit is three a day and ten a season.

The wild turkey season ends November 26 and one turkey a season is the bag limit. Hunting of the gobblers will be confined to Tuesday and Wednesday of the first week; Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday of the second week, and Thursday, Friday and Saturday of the third and fourth weeks.

The same regulations apply to the hunting of male ringnecked pheasants, grouse, and all species of quail. The bag limits are: pheasants, two a day and six a season; grouse, two a day and 12 a season, and quail, six a day and 24 a season.

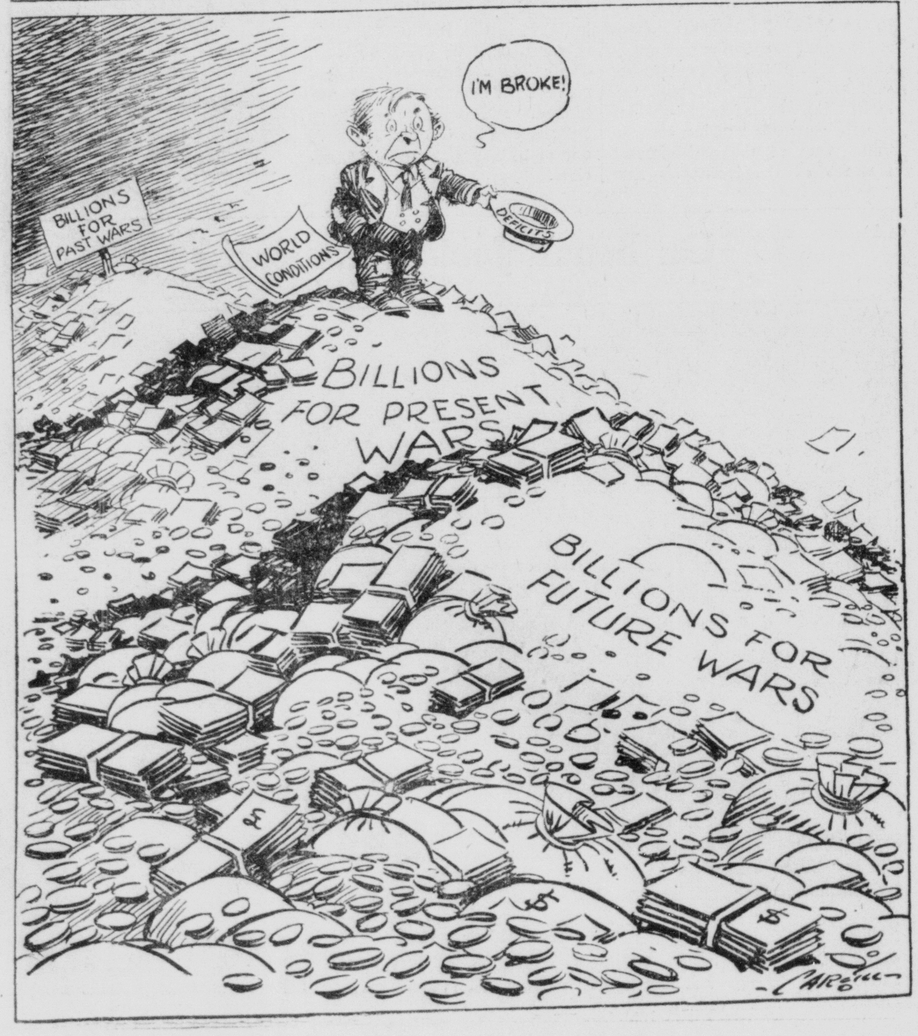

The state has imposed no limit on the kill of red squirrels between November 1 and August 15, but a combined total of only six gray, black, and fox squirrels may be brought down a day and the bag is 20 for the season, which ends November 30.

The rabbit season extends from November 1 to 20. Five a day and not more than 30 for the season may be shot.

Bear season extends from November 10 to 30. The bag limit is one to a hunter and three to a party.

Deer season extends from December 1 to 15 and one deer to a hunter and six to a party is the limit.

Unusual Suit For Death Of Husband

Woman In Italy Wants $50,000 For Husband Killed On New York Road

(International News Service)

NORRISTOWN, Pa., Oct. 28.—An unusual suit has been filed in the office of Prothonotary Haldeman through Attorneys Larzelere and Wright, in behalf of Marion Giampa, "of the city of Maida, Province of Cantanzaro, Kingdom of Italy," against Elizabeth Gohn, of Abington, to recover $50,000 as compensation for the death of her husband, Frank Giampa.

It is set forth by the plaintiff that until the death of her husband, September 19, 1931, she was his lawful wife and that they were the parents of four minor children, Frank, 20, Dominick, 17, Anthony, 12, and Giovannia, 2. The latter three were residing with their mother in Italy, while Frank resided with his father near Willow Grove.

Giampa was walking across the York road near the intersection of Rubicon avenue when he was struck and run down by an auto operated by the defendant. The mishap occurred September 19, 1931, and Giampa died a short time later, Mrs. Giampa sets forth.

As a result, Mrs. Giampa claims she was put to great expense for the funeral and she and her children have lost his support. He was 48 years of age at the time of his death, and was in good, sound health and regularly employed, the widow avers.

RAILROAD ENGINEER FINDS METEOR IN OREGON

ASTORIA, Ore.—Robert B. Sheffler, engineer found a two pound meteor when the right-of-way was graded for the Tideport Logging company here, and is holding same for the arrival of H. H. Nininger of Denver.

The meteorite is an irregular mass of dense dark material and was uncovered in a bed of gravel and blue clay under about three feet of sandy loam. Efforts to discover other meteorites failed. Nininger is collecting Oregon meteors as a research worker for the Smithsonian Institute of Washington, D. C.

The ashes of a man weighing 135 pounds would weigh more than the ashes of a woman weighing 160 pounds. Man is more solid.

East-West Love Tragedy

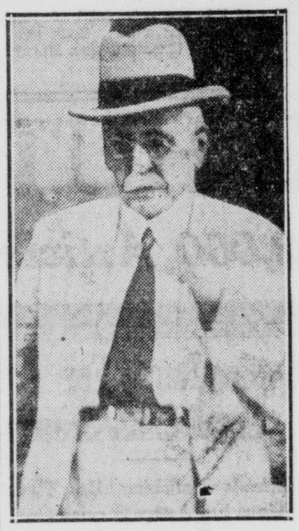

Here are the principals in the Washington drama that proved the wisdom of Kipling's celebrated couplet. They are Policeman Lewis Hale, of the Washington, D. C., department, and Mrs. Mildred Wen Lee, pretty Chinese woman. Hale, married and the father of a 10-year-old daughter, had been carrying on an illicit love affair with Mrs. Lee, wife of a former New York merchant. They quarreled and Hale committed suicide after shooting Mrs. Lee to death in a taxi.

What? Winter Already?

Leave it to the ladies to hurry the calendar. No sooner is Spring here than she starts picking out her Summer clothes; then with the advent of Autumn—Well, see for yourself. Here is Dorothy Stone, popular Broadway musical comedy star, anticipating Winter at a New York ice rink. Miss Stone is as good a dancer on ice as she is in the stage spotlight—and that's some.

A Worried Exile

That Samuel Insull, former czar of the Chicago utilities empire, is not filled with the vacation spirit is evidenced by this picture showing the former magnate leaving his hotel in Athens, Greece, where he found sanctuary. Elaborate precautions are being taken to guard Insull, following a rumor that a plot was on foot to shanghai him aboard an American ship.

Silver Tongued Orators at White House

If these boys were well versed in the game of politics they would be welcome recruits to the camps of the big parties in the Presidential campaign. They are the finalists in the International Oratorical Contest, shown as they were welcomed to Washington by President Hoover. Left to right are: Henri Emile Phoff of Holland, Charles Smith of England, President Hoover, Randolph Leigh, director of the National Oratorical Contest, George Pol Domine of France and Eric Boden of Ireland.

Two Famous Ex's in Conclave

Two men, immensely popular with the rank and file of Washingtonians, are shown as they consoled each other on being new members of the great army of unemployed. They are General Pelham D. Florida Guards Quell Convicts

Prisoners In Ugly Mood As Four Of Fellow Mates Are Put In 'Sweatbox'

STARVATION MAY END DISORDERS

(International News Service)

INDIANTOWN, Fla., Oct. 28.—Starvation was the strike break today as chain gang camp officers sought to quell the rebellion of 38 long-term convicts who refused to work in reprisal for the "sweatbox" confinement of four of their number.

Roving at freedom in the camp stockade, the rebel prisoners today threw derisive taunts at a cordon of heavily-armed guards who alertly patrolled the road camp on the outside of the barb-wired enclosure.

Convicts Strike.

The convicts had refused every effort of officials to persuade them to return to their work.

The strike was called yesterday in protest of the confinement of four prisoners in the camp "sweatbox", narrow dungeon-like punishment chamber, Captain Musgrove, warden, said.

The men, according to the warden, severely beat a trusty cook when he went into the sleeping quarters and for this reason were placed in the "sweatbox."

Thirty-eight of the long term prisoners immediately threw down their tools and refused to work, demanding release of the prisoners and assignment of a new captain and yard man for the camp.

No Violence.

No violence, however, marked the rebellion.

Throughout the day and last night, the convicts milled in the prison yard while guards patrolled the area to prevent escape attempts.

Bonfires and the lights of automobiles were played on the enclosure last night to prevent a break.

Stolid resistance met the pleas of Joseph Gates, of Bradenton, state prison inspector, and Sheriff Marion McGee, of Martin county, for the men to return to work.

The two officials laid aside their arms and went into the stockade to talk with the rebel convicts, but without result.

Erie Man Dies From Injuries

Three Men Are Being Held By Police For Fatal Attack During Quarrel In Home

(International News Service)

ERIE, Pa., Oct. 28.—Knife wounds and a fractured skull received in a family quarrel eight days ago today resulted in the death of Frank Kudrashoof, 37.

Three men, Leon Trevanoff, 22, Vasil Trevanoff, 19, stepsons of the dead man, and Edward Sosienski, 21, are being held for the attack and will be charged with manslaughter, police said.

District Attorney Mortimer E. Graham said the three youths claim they attacked Kudrashoof only after he had slashed his wife with a butcher knife. She was released from the hospital yesterday.

Hold Three As Robbery Suspects

Mercer Police Question Trio On Gas Station Robbery Of Year Ago

(Special To The News)

MERCER, Oct. 28.—With a reported robbery confession from one youth, police here today held two other men in the belief that they were his accomplices when the Robert Harris gasoline station, on the Mercer-Greenville road, was ransacked by thieves about a year ago. Gunmen paid another visit there this week.

They detained William Sheen, 20; Glenn McClure, 24 and Duncan Shively, 30, all Mercer residents. It was not learned which admitted his part.

Figuring prominently in robbery news of Mercer county during the past few years, the service station, nearly two miles north of Mercer, was the scene for more excitement this week when Charles Polly, 37, son-in-law of Harris, battled a bandit gang for which he had waited during the night. Harris was injured.

Mercer county authorities and state police, after arresting the youthful trio today, assured that the desperate Thursday morning gun battle was staged by other men. The trio was not held for this week's hold-up, but charged with breaking and entering the garage a year ago.

Ten different times the Harris station was visited by looters. It was this fact that moved Polly to take stiff precautions to halt more repetitions.

As officers rushed their questioning to bring the implicated trio within a tighter clutch of the law, state police and others hastened their search for the dangerous gunmen who defied Polly this week and sent him to the Mercer hospital with two bullet wounds.

Trace of the bandits, however, was almost lost after an all-day trail led to no clues whatever.

Young Republicans Will Meet Tonight

Chairman Joe McFate Secures City Council Chambers For Meeting Tonight

Young Republicans of New Castle and Lawrence County will meet tonight at 8 o'clock in the City Council Chambers in the City building at the corner of East Washington St. and East street, announcement of the meeting place was made by County Chairman Joseph McFate.

The organization since its initial meeting Tuesday evening has gained momemtum in the city and county and tonight it is fully expected that upwards of 300 young men and women will gather to exploit the high standards of the Republican party and to urge for the re-election of President Herbert Hoover.

There will be a group of prominent speakers on the program. Chairman McFate has a number of surprises in store for the members of the organization. Several important committees are to be named tonight, and it is imperative that all those designated by letter and postal card and by other invitations attend.

Desires To Buy City-Owned Lots

William Nunn, local realtor, today told council he had a client who desired to purchase five city-owned lots in Laurel Place. He said the lots could be used for garden purposes and that if sold would net the city some money in taxes. The matter was referred to City Solicitor Robert White.

Murder Charges Against Libby Are Unchanged

No Definite Action Take Yet By State Prosecutor On Nolle Prosse Proceedings

(International News Service)

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., Oct. 28.—Status of murder charges against Libby Holman Reynolds, the blues singer, and Ab Walker, jointly indicted for the fatal shooting of Zachary Smith Reynolds, 20-year-old heir to the tobacco millions, remained unchanged today as Solicitor Carlisle Higgins returned to his home at Sparta.

The solicitor said he would defer action on the request of the Reynolds family to nolle prosse the murder indictment until he could confer with Sheriff Transou Scott, of Winston-Salem, whose investigation of Reynolds' death at his estate here last summer resulted in the indictments being drawn.

Roosevelt Leaves As Smith Arrives

(International News Service)

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 28.—When former Governor Al. Smith arrives here late today from Boston, Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt will be on his way to his country home at Hyde Park where he will spend the night with his mother, Mrs. James Roosevelt.

Governor Roosevelt will return to the executive mansion tomorrow morning for half an hour before starting his campaign swing thru New England.

The Democratic presidential nominee smilingly denied there was any significance in his sudden decision to leave the city about the time that Smith arrives.

"I'm going down to Hyde Park to work on some campaign speeches and visit my mother," the governor explained.

Restrict Hours For Children At Branch Libraries

Owing to the congestion of traffic in the local library branches, it has been decided to limit the children's hours as at the main library. The boys and girls who use the branches are being asked to do so in the afternoon or early in the evening so as to leave at least an hour for adults who wish to browse among the books. The boys and girls patronize the library so constantly and enthusiastically that adults are in danger of being crowded out. It is hoped that the new regulations, while not inconveniencing the boys and girls, will enable the adult public to find better service and more pleasure in using the library.

Drivers Tests To Be Held Tuesday

Persons who have learners' permits and wish to undergo the test can do so Tuesday when a detail of State Highway patrolmen hold examinations in Sampson street. The detail will start the tests at 10 a. m. Prospective operators must be accompanied by a licensed operator, have their learner's permit and also the registration cards for the car to be used in the examination.

SONS OF VETERANS HAVE PARTY TONIGHT

Members of Oscar L. Jackson Camp No. 249, Sons of Union Veterans and its auxiliary will entertain the members of affiliated organizations and also the members of the Sons of Union Veterans and Auxiliary of Youngstown this evening at a Hallowe'en masquerade party. The affair will be held in the Sons of Union Veterans Hall on the third floor of the city building.

Coal Proposition Is Unsatisfactory

After investigating a coal stripping proposition at Wampum, the county commissioners are of the opinion that the expense of opening it up would be too great as the coal is of poor quality. In order to open the field it would be necessary to build a road half a mile long through a thicket. There is about six feet of earth over the coal, which is so soft that when a lump of it is dropped to the ground it will crumble into small pieces.

Turner Oldest Hunter To Get License Here

Harlansburg Man, 80, Uses Rifle And Prefers Chasing Foxes To Rabbits

TALLEST HUNTER OVER SIX FEET

George B. Turner, 80, of Harlansburg, enjoys the distinction of being the oldest hunter to secure a hunting license at the county treasurer's office this year. Turner's favorite weapon is the rifle, and although his eyesight isn't as good as it used to be, he is still able to knock a squirrel from the highest tree.

One of Turner's favorite sports is fox hunting. He has probably killed more foxes than any other man in the county. He is also a successful trapper. He is not particularly interested in rabbit hunting. That is too easy. But when it comes to more elusive game, his perseverance and skill count.

The second oldest man to secure a hunting license is George Hennon, a well known blacksmith of Wampum. Hennon is 78 years old and ever since he has been able to carry a gun he has been an ardent hunter.

Among others who have reached their three score and ten, and who still maintain a zest for the chase are the following: W. J. Michaels, 70, of 1603 East Washington street; W. E. Emery, 70, New Castle, R. D. 8; John Fobes, 74, New Castle, R. D. 5; G. W. Nagel, 72; Ellwood City; E. J. Hazen, 73, Ellwood, R. D. 3; B. T. Gagley, 75, Enon Valley; Percy Lavarack, 74, Meyer avenue, New Castle; W. E. Shoaff, 70, 841 Lathrop street; W. E. Foertch, 72, Enon Valley; William R. Jones, 75, St. Cloud building; J. C. Stoltz, 74, 142 Leasure avenue and J. B. Kennedy, 73, 1222 Randolph street.

H. J. Kienost of 525 West North street this city, enjoys the distinction of being the tallest man to secure a hunting license. Mr. Kienost gave his height as 6 feet 4½ inches.

As the rabbit season opens on Nov. 1st, there has been a great run to secure hunting licenses, during the past few days. Around 2500 have been issued.

High Water Cannot Stop Work Now On Wurtemburg Bridge

County Commissioner Elmer Conner reports that good progress is being made at the Wurtemburg bridge, now under construction. When Mr. Conner visited the bridge yesterday he found that one pier in the center of the stream has been completed, and concrete is being poured for another pier. Concrete is also being poured on the east abutment.

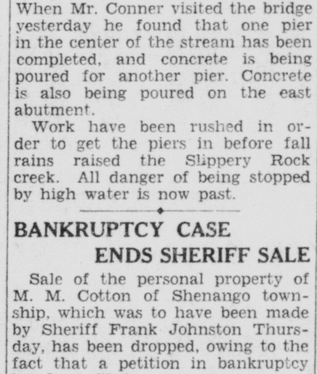

Work have been rushed in order to get the piers in before fall rains raised the Slippery Rock creek. All danger of being stopped by high water is now past.

Chicago is trying out a new type of women's court which it hopes will prevent any possible exploitation. It is situated in the municipal court building and will try women accused of all offenses against society other than felonies and murder. It hopes to save suspected but innocent women from the humiliation of going to jail. Judge Joseph Graber presides and Pearl Hart, one of the leading women lawyers of Chicago, is public defender. Credit for the idea is given Mrs. Ethel McDowell of the social service department of Chicago municipal court.

Big Order Hinges On Republican Success, Nov. 8

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Republican national headquarters announced today that George A. Wolf & Sons, furniture manufacturers at Mt. Wolf Pa., had ordered 100,000 board feet of lumber from the Sterling Lumber Company of Philadelphia subject to automatic cancellation if the November election results in a change in the national administration. The reason for the order, given in a letter made public here, was that contractors and manufacturers in the Wolf community "have signified their intention of building and expending in the event the present administration continues."

Over Hundred At Story Hour

One hundred six youngsters heard Miss Alice Joyce, children's librarian, tell all about "Murdock's Rath" and "The Headley Cow" Wednesday evening at the South Side branch of the city public library.

They gathered in two groups after school and the same stories were told to both. The South Side library rooms were given a spooky atmosphere with lighted pumpkins, etc.

Hallowe'en stories will be told this evening after school hours at the central library building, on North Jefferson and West North street.

HANEY'S ON THE PUBLIC SQUARE

Westfield Church To Have Speaker

Rev. Ross M. Haverfield, pastor of the Westfield Presbyterian church, announces that the adult Bible classes of his Sunday school will assemble in the Auditorium of the church Sunday morning instead of in the class rooms, when Temperance day will be observed, with Attorney Ray W. Humphrey of Ellwood City addressing the group.

The Sunday school session will be held at 12:15, immediately following the morning worship service, which convenes at 11 o'clock, at which time the pastor will continue his series of sermons on "The Lord's Prayer."

The pastor and a number from the church will conduct the afternoon service at the Lawrence county home, when a chorus choir will sing.

The regular Christian Endeavor meeting will be held at 8 p. m.

RHEUMATISM

New Medicine Drives Out Poisons That Cause Torturing Stiffness, Swelling and Lameness

EASES PAIN FIRST DAY

You cannot get rid of rheumatic aches and pains, Neuritis, Lumbago, Stiffness, lame knotted muscles and painful swollen joints till you drive from your system the irritating poisons that cause rheumatism. That's why external treatments only give temporary relief.

What you need is RU-MA, the new internal medicine that acts on the liver, kidneys and blood, and helps expel through the natural channels of elimination, these dangerous poisons.

No long waiting for your suffering to stop—RU-MA eases pain first day—and gives rheumatic sufferers such safe and lasting relief from their stiffening, crippling lameness and torturing pain that it is recommended by druggists everywhere.

Eckerd's and New Castle Drug Co. urges every sufferer to get a $1.00 bottle of RU-MA today, and agrees to return the purchase price if it does not free them from all their aches and pains of rheumatism.

HARLANSBURG NEWS

HALLOWE'EN MASQUERADE

The Hallowe'en party given by the W. C. T. U. and grangers at the Liberty grange hall Friday night was a success and highly enjoyed by all present.

Mrs. Pearl McCracken and Mrs. Mae Locke won first prize for the best costume disguise. There were several cake walks. A mirthful program followed after which pumpkin pie was served for refreshments.

B. Y. P. U. CONVENTION

The conference of district No. 3, held at the Harlansburg Baptist church, was largely attended at both afternoon and evening sessions. At 2:30 the meeting opened with song service led by Prof. Eakin. After devotionals Rev. C. A. Jones gave an address on Bible study.

At 3:40 there were five-minute talks on: "The Need for Evangelism," Dale Currie; "The Need for Prayer," Dean Mayne; "The Need for Knowledge of the Scripture," William McDanel.

After songs by the audience and an address by Rev. Grey the meeting adjourned for supper, which was served by the Harlansburg Baptist ladies.

In the evening there was special music from each of the four churches and Prof. Eakin led a song service.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Honoring the 21st birthday of their son Carl, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Johnson entertained 22 young people of the grange Wednesday evening. The beautiful white birthday cake was decorated with pink candles. Cards and games of an amusing nature kept the young folk busy until a late hour when Mrs. Johnson and daughters served a delicious luncheon.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE

Russell McClelland was completely surprised Saturday evening when he arrived home to find guests present to help celebrate his birthday. Places were laid for 12 at the beautifully appointed dining table having a large white cake with the required number of candles for a centerpiece. The evening was enjoyably spent with music and social chat.

Those present were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McClelland, Miss Marjorie McClelland, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Gates and son Russell of Youngstown, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Richards and daughter Carol Joan of Walmo, Miss Lois Gibson of West Sunbury and the honor guest and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Russell McClelland.

HARLANSBURG NOTES

Ruth Hedglin of Brent is visiting her sister, Mrs. Jonathan Fennick.

Mrs. Sadie Fennick, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Brown at Pulaski returned home Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Brennemen and son James were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Barkley of New Wilmington, Sunday.

Growing Deaf with Head Noises? Try This

If you are growing hard of hearing, suffer from head noises, due to catarrh or fear catarrhal deafness, you should know of the internal medicine which has already brought blessed relief to thousands of catarrh sufferers.

Secure from Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., or your druggist 1 oz. Parmint (Double Strength). Take this home and add 1-4 pint hot water and a little sugar.

One tablespoonful four times a day should bring quick relief from distressing catarrhal head noises, clogged nostrils, difficult breathing and dropping mucous. All threatened with catarrhal deafness need simple, effective Parmint.

Come on up to the Height of health

YOU'VE enjoyed days where every minute was filled with the richness of living. You looked your best, and felt your best. Why not live more of these healthy, happy days?

One of the chief causes of poor health—and consequent unhappiness—is common constipation. It may bring headaches, loss of appetite and energy. Yet it can be overcome by eating a delicious cereal.

Laboratory tests show that Kellogg's ALL-BRAN provides "bulk" to gently exercise the intestines, and vitamin B to further aid regular habits. The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is similar to that in leafy vegetables. One ounce of ALL-BRAN furnishes as much vitamin B as five ounces of orange juice. This delicious cereal also contains twice as much blood-building iron as an equal amount by weight of beef liver.

Two tablespoonfuls daily are usually sufficient. With each meal in chronic cases. If not relieved this way, see your doctor. Tests show ALL-BRAN does not lose its effectiveness with continued use. How different from pills and drugs—where dosage has to be constantly increased. Ask your grocer for the red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

"When you're healthy, you're happy"
"How you feel — and how well you look — depends largely upon the food you eat. Be sure your diet is balanced — with sufficient 'bulk' to promote regularity."

Republicans To Fight Hard For Senate Control!

Prospect Looms Of Hoover Facing Democratic House And Senate

CONGRESS FIGHTS VERY IMPORTANT

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—President Hoover, aside from the outcome of his race for a second term, faced the possibility today of completing his present administration with the senate, as well as the house, controlled by Democrats.

The political aspect of the senate at its December session will be determined by results of senatorial contests in Colorado, North Carolina and New Jersey. The Republicans must win one of three contests to retain control of the senate throughout the coming short session. A clean sweep for the Democrats would give President Hoover an entirely hostile congress to deal with next winter.

This fight over the senate has been overshadowed in the greater struggle to control it during the new congress, which would not meet until after next March 4. In the larger battle, 34 senatorial seats will be at stake and one party must win 18 of these contests to get a clear majority.

Important Question.

The prohibition issue, incidentally, may determine whether the senate goes Republican or Democratic in December. It has become an important issue in two of the three senatorial races.

The candidates in these three contests are:

Colorado—Karl C. Schuyler (R) and Walter Walker (D).

North Carolina—J. F. Newell (R) and Robert R. Reynolds (D).

New Jersey—Senator Warren W. Barbour (R) and Percy H. Stewart (D).

In North Carolina, Newell is running as a dry against the dripping wet Reynolds.

Fayette Judges Give $1000 Each For Relief Work

Agree To Pay $100 Per Month For Ten Months To Fund

UNIONTOWN, Pa., Oct. 28.—The three judges of the Fayette county court of common pleas today announced they will give $1,000 each of their salaries for relief work in the county.

The judges, Thomas H. Hudson, Davis W. Henderson and S. John Morrow, will give $100 a month for 10 months. They stipulated that $2,250 of the total is to go to the Fayette county unemployment relief board and $750 to the Uniontown Welfare Fund.

More Than Twelve Motor Cars A Minute

Most Travel In Jefferson Is North And South Of Grant

102 CARS PASS IN EIGHT MINUTES

Although traffic is not nearly as heavy now as during summer months a check of motor vehicle traffic for a period of eight minutes yesterday afternoon at Grant and Jerrerson streets showed 102 motor vehicles passed the intersection or more than 12 a minute. The heaviest traffic hour, however, at the intersection is between four and five p. m. according to persons versed in traffic conditions.

The count was made of cars operating north and south in Jefferson, west into Grant, east from Grant into Jefferson and through Grant street direct across Jefferson.

Most cars travelled north and south on Jefferson. Only two cars came from Grant street and operated west across Jefferson. Only one turned north from the east side of Grant street.

Pedestrians were few at the time when the check was taken, 1:52 p. m. until 2:00 p. m.

Montagu Norman's Residence Under Guard Of Police

Unemployed Threaten To Destroy Home Of Governor Of Bank Of England

(International News Service)

LONDON, Oct. 28.—A special detachment of plainclothes police today stood guard about the Kensington residence of Montagu Norman, governor of the Bank of England, following receipt of an anonymous threat that it would be mobbed by unemployed.

"The unemployed are coming down to break up your house," Norman was told on the telephone by an unknown caller.

Jean Saul Was Former Tailor

Man Held In Spain Claiming Lindbergh Knowledge Known In California

(International News Service)

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 28.—Jean Saul, held in Seville, Spain, for investigation in connection with the kidnaping and murder of the son of Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, formerly was a Los Angeles tailor, according to police here.

Capt. W. C. Allen, of the missing persons detail, said today that Maurice Phillipson, tailor, had informed him that Saul formerly worked here. According to Allen, Saul "had underworld connections" while in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Herbert Hoover Gives Favorite Recipes

Tea in the White House! How glamorous this sounds! What visions of elaborately appointed tables and rich refreshments arise in our minds at the thought. But guests since Mrs. Herbert Hoover has been first lady bring us stories of simple, homelike decoration and food and an atmosphere of quiet hospitality. Centerpieces built from bright, perfect fruits and vegetables often adorn the table with its twinkling tapers. Brown and white bread sandwiches and perhaps a small cup cake are regularly served at tea.

One of Mrs. Hoover's tea cake recipes is passed on to you today.

Tea Cakes.

2 cups flour.
1 tsp. vanilla.
3 eggs.

Mix as any other cake, and bake in very small muffin tins.

Icing.

Confectioner's sugar.

Heat milk and butter together, sift in confectioner's sugar to desired stiffness, flavor with vanilla or chocolate.

HUNDREDS RECALLED FOR FREIGHT WORK

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Oct. 28.—An unseasonable pickup in freight tonnage in this district has resulted in calling many furloughed railroad men back to work, and giving several turns to "extra men."

All roads in the district are sharing in the pickup, which has come at a time when shipments usually drop off as coal and ore movements of the Great Lakes slow down.

AUTO SOLD AFTER 20-YEAR STORAGE

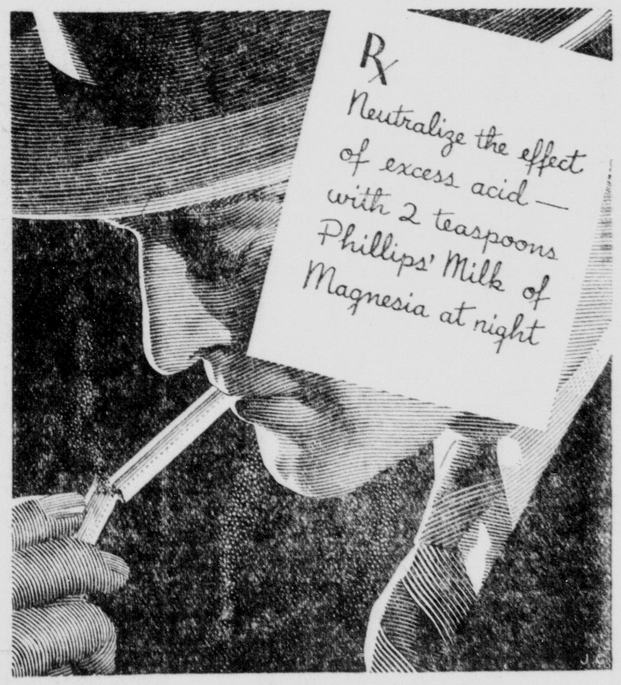

LONDON, Oct. 28.—An automobile, stored for 20 years in a garage without being used once has been sold here.

The car has a curious story. Over two decades ago it was left in a garage. The owner never came to take it for a spin, or to see if it was all right. Yet the rent was paid monthly on the same day. In all it aggregated over $3,000.

Recently, the garage owners received a letter announcing the death of the car's owner. It was a 1903 model 50-horsepower Napier touring car and resembles a buggy.

It took an hour to start the engine, but with new tires and plugs it was driven away by its new owner. He intends to use it regularly and expects to get many years' wear out of it.

TOO MUCH ACID

● The right anti-acid offsets the harm otherwise done by excessive eating, drinking, and constant smoking, anything causing an acid condition. When "sunk" from such indulgences, Phillips' Milk of Magnesia will always straighten you out. A joy and comfort to hearty eaters, constant smokers. Get the genuine; substitutes don't act the same.

ALSO IN TABLET FORM: Phillips' Milk of Magnesia Tablets are now on sale at drug stores everywhere. Each tiny tablet is the equivalent of a teaspoonful of genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia.

New Castle High Team Leaves For Altoona

Thirty Men Taken To Altoona, Look For Tough Battle

New Castle High School Football Team Will Stop Overnight Enroute

Coach Bridenbaugh Considerably Worried About Game For Saturday

Head Coach Philip H. Bridenbaugh had charge of a party of 30 New Castle High School football players who boarded a bus here at 9 o'clock this morning for Hollidaysburg, Pa., near Altoona. In the party were Faculty Manager Ralph H. Gardner, Assistant Coaches Klee and Thomas, Student Managers McBride and Anderson and Team Physician Dr. Earl Aiken. New Castle's "Big Red Hurricane" stacks up against one of the toughest teams on the 1932 card tomorrow afternoon at Mansion Park, Altoona. New Castle's undefeated eleven was brim full of confidence as they steamed out of the city via the Butler road. The game tomorrow at Altoona will start at 2:30 o'clock.

At Hollidaysburg

The New Castle team will leave their bus at Hollidaysburg, having made reservations at the local hostelry. After the dinner meal Coach Bridenbaugh after a brief talk will take the boys to the Hollidaysburg High School field to practice and run through signals. There will be two full teams and eight subs. Following the practice the boys will be given supper and then hustled off to bed to get a lot of rest after their 135 mile jaunt.

About noon or shortly afterwards on Saturday the New Castle team will again board their bus and go into Altoona, going directly to the dressing room in the stadium.

New Castle's Hurricane will be fit and ready for the game. The red and black jerseyed team ended their home practice Thursday afternoon with a tough workout. Charles "Whitey" Nickum is slowly recovering from his injury, and although he is not likely to start the game will be in uniform and may get in the game to do some passing and extra-point kicking.

Lane To Start

Freddy Lane, the colored flash will be the starting left-half back it is indicated, with Johnny Uram at the other halfback post. Walter Kominic will be at the fullback spot. Tommy Rambo, quarterback will play as a blocking half and call signals.

The line will be the same as started the Ellwood City game with Thomas and Tomalello at the ends, Raskowski and DeCarbo at the guards and the Shellogg brothers at the tackles. The center job will be taken care of by Bill Duff.

Altoona has a strong team. They have been defeated this year, but that was early in the season by DuBois or some other small school. In their past several games the Altoonians have shown a strong defense and an equally clever offensive attack. The Altoona offense is built around Airhart, the big fullback. Last Saturday Altoona licked Clearfield High 33 to 0, in a good workout for the Coach "Snaps" Emmanuel team. They will fight hard Saturday to make it two straight over the highly touted New Castle team, having turned the trick at Taggart Field this city in 1931, by a small margin.

Count On Speed

New Castle is counting on Uram, Nickum and Lane to bring home the bacon tomorrow. It is this trio of speedsters who has been responsible for the victories to date, and of course you can't overlook that big powerful New Castle line that leads the interference.

But, it's a well known fact that Coach Bridenbaugh has lost a lot of sleep over this Altoona game, and not until it is in the bag some 60 minutes after 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon will the popular local mentor breath easily and sleep better.

New Castle is all pepped up for this game, and they are going to try and remain in the undefeated class. Quite a large crowd of New Castle fans will motor to the game.

Thirty Make Trip

The following players made the trip today—Captain Mike DeCarbo, Bill Duff, Walter Kominic, Johnny Uram, Freddy Lane, Tommy Rambo, Raskowski, Fred Shellogg, Alex Shellogg, Rocco Tomalello, Ron Thomas, Charles "Whitey" Nickum, Patsy James, Palkovitch, Pascarella, Humphrey, Sorto, Hitchen, Emerick, Lindsey, Workman, Hileman, Capitolo, Butz, Howley, Gianni, Jones, Small, and Kneram.

Probable Lineups—

New Castle.		Altoona.
Thomas	L.E.	Patt
F. Shellogg	L.T.	Watson
Raskowski	L.G.	Wyland
Duff	C.	Ferguson
DeCarbo	R.G.	Hoenstine
A. Shellogg	R.T.	Blake

Football Game Is Still Rough

Football Rules Committee May Have To Eat New Rules, Dangers Still Exist

By COPELAND C. BURG
International News Service Sports Writer.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—Proof of the pudding is in the eating and it began to look today as though the national football rules committee would have to eat its new regulations claimed to lessen the dangers in the game.

Football deaths and injuries continue at the same pace as in other years, except injuries are probably greater and never in the history of the game has there been such a large number of stars on the sidelines at mid-season as in 1932.

Dartmouth, Yale, Harvard, Columbia, Southern California, New York university, Cornell, Penn, Navy and California are among the leading teams that must take the field tomororw with some of their chief heroes watching events from the bench.

Number of Injuries.

These collegians almost go crazy every time they get their hands on the ball and think they must tear up the whole earth as long as they still have two good hands and feet. They don't know how to relax between plays and go into all manner of unnecessary roughness merely to impress the stands with their ferocity.

Pitt is the only big eastern school playing as the pros do and injuries at Pitt have been few. The Pitt gents pick up the ball and lay it down in the nonchalant manner of Grange Friedman and other stars of the pro game and entirely eliminate the dramatic favored by their campus rivals.

The past year which saw the St. Louis Cardinals slide from the top of the heap well down into second division was the most disappointing year the Cardinals have had since Sam Breadon gained control of the organization, according to a report from St. Louis.

Tri-State Grid Activities Are Light Tonight

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 28.—Tri-State football activities today are comparatively light.

Three district elevens—Carnegie Tech, West Virginia University and West Virginia Wesleyan—are lined up for games under the lights tonight. The Skibos and Mountaineers will go into action in the role of invaders. Wesleyan plays on its home field.

Carnegie Tech, fully recovered from the 42-0 shellacking suffered at the hands of Notre Dame last Saturday, will strike out in search of the path of success when it encounters Temple University's Owls at Philadelphia. The Tartan starting line-up probably will experience several changes. Joe Mihm at fullback, "Stu" Deuger at quarterback and Tony Ostrosky at right end, are believed to be the new gridders that will appear at the opening kick-off.

Another mid-western jaunt will take West Virginia to Milwaukee where they take on the strong Marquette University this evening. Thus far this year, Coach "Greasy" Neale has had little success with his Mountaineer squad which has won but one game.

Only last week, Wesleyan upset the dope by nosing out the supposedly superior Duquesne University 7-6. The Bobcats are confident they can add Salem, their opponents at Buckhannon tonight, to their list of victims.

Coach Howard Jones has set about rebuilding his University of Southern California backfield for the remainder of the season with his star quarterback, Orville Mohler acting as assistant coach. Mohler had to be taken off the varsity team when it was feared a recurrence of a spinal injury sustained a year ago might jeopardize his life. Homer Griffith is being groomed to take Mohler's place.

Union Is Ready For Zelienople

Union High Football Team All Pepped About Game At Zelienople Today

WILL PLAY AT FREEDOM SATURDAY

Union High School football team is playing at Zelienople High this afternoon. The game was scheduled to get under way at 3:30 o'clock. The Union team is all pepped up over this game, and it would not be surprising to find Union bringing home the bacon late tonight. Coach "Dave" Boyd is going to start his "shock" troops today. Union will play at Freedom High on Saturday.

The Union team is in good physical shape with the exception of Kirler and Czwynar both boys suffering with bruised knees.

Union Wants Victory

Union wants to get started on another victory march today and will fight hard against the Butler Countians. Coach Boyd has selected the following starting lineup, Weimer and Nugay at the ends, Martin and Gierloch at the tackles, Sniezek and White at the guards and Richeye at center.

The backfield will be composed of Slezeski at quarterback, Monico and Guzz at the halves and Phillips at fullback. Only three varsity regulars are included in the regular starting lineup today, they are Captain Walter Smiezek, Ralph Phillips and Monico. The others have been showing up so well in scrimmage that Coach Boyd has decided to pull a "Notre Dame" and start the reserves. It will give Boyd a chance to see his second team under fire, and save them also for the game with Freedom on Saturday.

At Freedom Saturday

The game with Freedom was discovered on the Union High program by accident and will be played Saturday at Freedom. It seems that Union and Freedom had a two-year contract, but Union forgot the game this year until reminded of it by the Freedom officials. Rather than forfeit a guarantee the Union High officials decided to go through with the game at Freedom. Its a tough assignment for Union two games in two days, but with a lot of reserve strength Coach Boyd is able to do this.

There'll be few football fans left here Saturday. Those who do not go to Altoona to see Ne-Ca-Hi play Alttona will probably journey to see Notre Dame meet Pitt at Pittsburgh.

And now about the World War Veterans of Lawrence County benefit. They had a neat semi-final and main bout. They were fights.

Pitt-Notre Dame Holds Spotlight For Grid World

Notre Dame Expected To Beat Pitt Panthers In Game At Pittsburgh Saturday

MICHIGAN SHOULD DEFEAT PURDUE

By DAVIS J. WALSH
International News Service Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 28—For the first and perhaps the last time this season, it will be given to two teams in a field of a thousand odd to hold, alone and practically without challenge, the focus of national interest when football comes up to its half-way point tomorrow.

There are a couple of dozen games of more than nominal merit on the schedule but only the meeting of Pitt, potentially a great football team, and the point-a-minute juggernaut of Notre Dame will keep the Nation looking until its last dramatic echo dies and is no more. The Pitt-Notre Dame meeting is rather advantageously placed. In a national sense, it has almost no competition.

Michigan Favored

In the big ten, for instance, Michigan and Purdue, two of the leaders, are playing outside the conference and a third, Chicago, is in a spot where it doesn't figure to go wrong with Illinois, in the South, almost fanatical about its football the day will be comparatively tepid. Auburn and Virginia Poly, two of the bellwethers, apparently can't miss the Mississippi and W. & L. respectively. But Tennessee might with Duke and there are several other meetings, originally intended to be masterpieces, that still have real possibilities for drama, if not for lasting importance.

Much the same thing, only in a more aggravated form, is to happen in the Southwest, on the West coast there is only the matter between Stanford and California, Southern branch, contending for the dubious honor of running second to the Trojans.

Odds Favor Irish

So, except for some tacit contention from two points in the East and not more than one in the big ten, the Pitt-Notre Dame affair knows hardly a distant rival and certainly no real one. Both are undefeated, though Pittsburgh lost a lot of caste last week when it finished in a bloodless tie with Ohio state, one of the lesser teams of the big ten; whereas Notre Dame has run up 177 points in 180 minutes of play against Drake, Haskell and Carnegie Tech and seemingly is on its merry way to one of those seasons that Rockne contrived and cherished. This game figures to reveal, in part, how much of this is substance and how much illusion, Pitt being capable of at least that much.

It probably isn't capable of winning, for even ordinary Notre Dame teams don't lose so early in the season, and seemingly, this is no ordinary Notre Dame team.

Long Island Stalwarts To Help Titans Against Waynesburg Stars

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Oct. 28.—When Coach Frank Wolf's great Waynesburg College football team lines up against Westminster here Saturday in the annual alumni home-coming day game, these two stalwarts from Long Island will have to be considered.

George Hollander, guard, weighs 210 pounds. He is a sophomore, playing his second year on the Titan team. Hollander is an excellent student, and was a star athlete at Freeport, L. I. high school. During the summer he is a life guard along the Long Island coast.

Irving Franklin, varsity center weighs 190 pounds. He is also a sophomore, playing his second year for Westminster. Franklin was a star fullback on the Freeport, L. I. team. At Westminster he has played guard, tackle and center.

Siljander Lost To Titans For Waynesburg Contest

(Special To the News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Oct. 28—Mauno "Whitey" Siljander, star end and halfback on the Westminster College football team, will not be in the Titan lineup when the Waynesburg College Yellowjackets are met here Saturday.

"Whitey" was injured in the St. Bonaventure game last Saturday, and although he will be ready to play within another week, will not be ready to start Saturday against the Wolfpack. "Swede" Hunneke, Long Island boy, will play end in place of Siljander.

Coach John Lawther has been using Siljander on end on the defense and at halfback on the offence, with Scarbrough playing end on the offense and halfback on the defense. The loss of Siljander will rearrange the Titen lineup somewhat. Hunneke will be at end, Scarbrough will play right halfback, Arrowsmith will be at left half, Staples will play fullback, and Sweeney will be quarterback.

Coach Frank Wolf of the Jackets will start Ross, Currie, Rollason and Conroy in the backfield. This quartet is perhaps the fastest backfield in the district. The Jacket and Titan lines will be about on a par as far as weight goes. The two backfields will also be about the same.

Coach Anderson Takes 37 Men To Pittsburgh Today

Notre Dame Will Place Three Teams On Field Against Pitt Tomorrow Afternoon

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 28.—Notre Dame's husky gridiron warriors thirty-seven strong, took the football spotlight here today as they pulled into the city after an overnight ride from South Bend, straining for tomorrow's battle with the Panthers of Pittsburgh University.

A light workout was on tap for the Irish this afternoon at Pitt stadium to give Coach "Hunk" Anderson a chance to show his charges the site of tomorrow's renewal of Pitt-Notre Dame relations.

Coach Jock Sutherland brought his pre-game practice preparations to a close yesterday with a snappy drill on defensive tactics and a blackboard lesson in offensive strategy. A final "dress rehearsal" lasting only a few minutes will be staged this afternoon.

Sixty-thousand persons are expected to jam their way into Pitt stadium for the sixth battle between the two teams since they began relations in 1909. In the previous five meetings, the Irish have piled up 69 points to Pitt's 31 and have captured every game but one, a scoreless tie.

Grovers Crippled For Bethany Game

Coach Amos Will Use Crippled Lineup Against Bisons Tomorrow Afternoon

GROVE CITY, Oct. 28.—Coach Amos will finish up a busy week of practice with the Grove City squad today in a long signal drill designed to perfect a variety of plays which have not been used in the campaign to date. Despite the absence of Tomko and Bache from the squad this week, the Grovers have been impressive and seem ready to go after a win in their third Conference game with Bethany.

Taking advantage of the wet grounds, Amos gave his squad a long drill yesterday in handling a wet ball. Fumbles by the Crimson backs have been costly this year, and Amos is trying to correct the fault that has cost his team at least two victories.

A severe Charley horse which does not respond to treatment may keep fullback Baylor on the bench again this week, making three regulars who will not be used against Bethany, as Tomko and Bache will be unable to play.

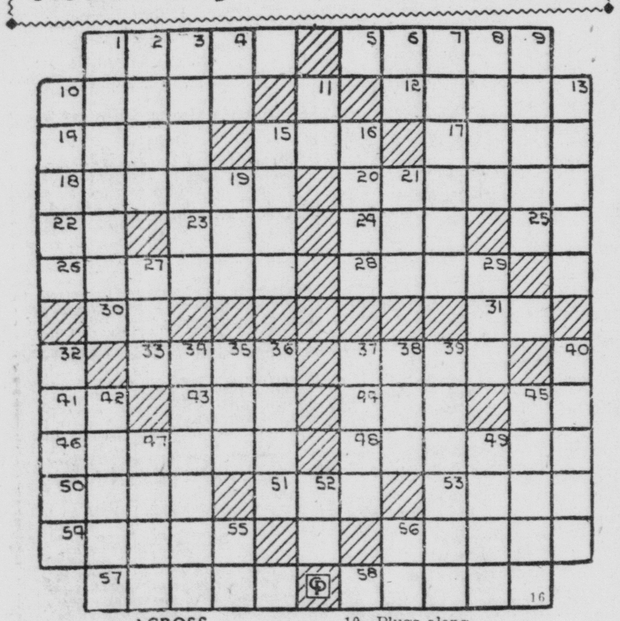

Arch Glasgow, sophomore center, is expected to start in Bache's position at center, while Soich will replace Tomko at center. Another possible shift would send Binder to guard, and Caulfield to center, where he has had experience. In the event that Captain Critchfield's injured shoulders keep him on the bench, Binder and Caulfield will start at guard.

Stock Market Is Stronger Today

Rails Work Higher In Anticipation Of Another Favorable Car Loading Report

TRADE REPORTS VERY FAVORABLE

By LESLIE GOULD
International News Service Financial Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—The stock market was stronger today as the rails worked higher in anticipation of another favorable car loadings report tomorrow.

Gains ran from fractions to slightly more than a point. Trading showed a pick-up over the week's dull sessions but first-hour volume only promised about 1,000,000 shares for the full session.

Union Pacific, N. Y. Central, Atchison and Lackawanna were the pacemakers in the carrier section while the rest scored fractional gains. Improved action of railroad bonds, especially the second grade issues, stimulated sentiment on the group.

Wall Street was put in a better frame of mind by the week-end trade reports which stated business was holding its gains. Brokers loans dropped $81,000,000 for the week, falling back near their old time low, and the weekly federal reserve bank statement disclosed further improvement in condition.

Bethlehem Steel's record-breaking loss for the third quarter was ignored by the steel stocks. Both U. S. Steel and Bethlehem issues were better, the former's common and preferred rising about a point each.

Auburn was strong in the motors, aided by short covering. American Can and American Telephone were strong leaders.

Highway Patrolman Battles Death In New Kensington, Pa.

Corporal Albert Suffers Attack Of Strange Malady And Is Slowly Losing Fight

(International News Service)

NEW KENSINGTON, Pa., Oct. 28.—A grim fight with death with little apparent hope for success was being waged in Citizen's General Hospital here today by Corporal H. D. Albert, in charge of the New Kensington detail of the state highway patrol.

Suffering an undetermined malady, Albert has had 158 convulsions since he fell ill and was brought to the hospital a week ago. At first the attacks came every fifteen minutes. They have decreased in frequency but not in severity in the last day.

Albert was stricken when he returned to Pittsburgh after accompanying Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt on his recent tour through western Pennsylvania to Wheeling, W. Va., he recuperated slightly after the first attack ,but last Saturday was removed to the hospital.

Physicians said the convulsions might be due to a brain condition. Albert fell from a speeding motorcycle a year ago but apparently was unhurt.

C. D. Of A. Installs Officers Sunday At Beaver Falls

Local Court Will Participate In Joint Event Of Five Courts

Sunday afternoon at St. Mary's Auditorium in Beaver Falls,, five courts of the Catholic Daughters of America, including Court Teresa Irene No. 231 of this city, will participate in the joint installation of officers of the entire group represented at the gathering.

The local members attending will meet at the Knights of Columbus Home on North Jefferson street, leaving at one o'clock in the afternoon for Beaver Falls. Cars will be provided for the transportation of those desiring to attend.

Miss Frances Maher of Kane, Pa., and Mrs. Della Crawford of Midland, district deputy, will have charge of the installation ceremonies. A nice program will be presented after the installation and the affair will be brought to a close in the early evening with a dinner for the officers of the various courts.

Many Teachers Attend Institute

City And County School Teachers At Regional Conference In Slippery Rock

Many teachers from the city and rural schools will go to Slippery Rock to attend the Regional Conference and Training School Demonstration, which has been arranged by the State Teachers College at Slippery Rock as a substitute institute.

The program, opening this evening, will last through Saturday, and has been arranged for the benefit of the teachers of Butler and Lawrence counties, although some are also expected from Mercer and and Venango counties.

The feature of today's program is the address of Dr. Elmer B. Bryan of Ohio University, which will be given this evening in the College Chapel.

Saturday's program includes sectional group instruction and a Round Table for high school teachers. Dr. Bryan will also speak at 1 o'clock, Saturday afternoon.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

The heavy rainstorm broke a short time before the show went on and as a result five or six hundred people who planned to witness the fistic embroglio were compelled to stay indoors. Nevertheless the show went on. All of the boxers fought on a percentage. None of them got very much money. Nevertheless they fought their best. As a rule boxers do. The fans who did turn out got their money's worth as the main bout and semi-final were mighty good, two other bouts good and one ended in the first round.

Fans can look forward on an eastern invasion by Young Tommy, a Filipino who beat Midget Wolgast in 10 rounds at Oakland, Calif. The Filipino who is said to be a bantamweight hammered his way to even matters with Wolgast who captured a decision from the boy from Manila some time ago. Tommy started fast and pressed the fighting throughout the battle though Wolgast outboxed him most of the time. In five rounds according to the report Wolgast appeared to have an edge but Tommy's whirlwind finish in the final session caught the eye of Referee Benny Wagner, the report says.

Bessemer Hopes To Beat Slippery Rock

Slippery Rock and Bessemer will clash this afternoon at Slippery Rock. During the past few days Coach Fredericks has been driving the Bessemer squad hard in hopes of winning. They won from Clintonville but lost their last game which was to Shenango.

Republicans Have Fine Rally Here

Good Addresses Given By Attorney Braham And Representative Stull

TWO THOUSAND ATTEND MEETING

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 28.—Republicans of Ellwood City after attending last night's rally at the Liberty Theater and hearing addresses by Attorney Walter Braham of New Castle and Representative Howard W. Stull of Johnstown are more than ever resolved to back Herbert Hoover in his reelection campaign for president of the United States. The rally last night featured a crowd of about 2000.

Burgess J. C. Turner introduced Sen. George T. Weingartner of New Castle as the chairman of the evening. Sen. Weingartner in turn introduced and talked about several candidates for public office. In this group were Milton A. Bickett, William McElwee, Alonzo S. Batchelor and Dr. J. Howard Swick.

The first speaker of the evening introduced was Attorney Walter Braham of New Castle who presented facts why the Republicans should support President Hoover for reelection. "Taking the facts into consideration and allowing the truth to prevail, the public cannot but help to reelect President Hoover." This man has made his platform clear and explained just how he stands on some of the vital issues of the day. While on the other hand his Democratic opponent Franklin D. Roosevelt has established nothing definite, and as yet has offered no constructive program to elevate the conditions of the country. Attorney Braham went on to tell how President Hoover has worked incessantly since the stock market crash to combat the effects of the depression. He told of the work of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation and the remarkable aid it is giving all the people.

Before introducing the next speaker, Sen. Weingartner presented a few facts of his own. He told of how President Hoover had organized the Reconstruction Finance Corporation and of the aid it is giving this district by the building of two bridges in Wurtemburg and improving roads in this district. Through an effort of President Hoover a state emergency relief board has been organized which has just recently turned over $50,000 to the county for relief purposes.

Rep. Howard W. Stull of Johnstown, told of some of his experiences as a congressman at Washington in which he pointed out some ridiculous legislation on part of the Democrats and presented copies of the Congressional Journal to prove "President Hoover would be reelected without a doubt if it was difinitely known that the Republicans would stick together," the speaker asserted. The main problem now is preventing the Democrats from misleading Republicans to vote their way. He pointed out that the crash was brought about by the people who tried to live beyond their means. In closing the speaker made an impressive appeal for the people of Ellwood City and all Republicans to support President Hoover for reelection.

Y. P. C. U. Enjoys Fine Masquerade

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 28—Twenty members of the Y. P. C. U. of the United Presbyterian church assembled in the church rooms last night for their annual masquerade party. Seasonal tones prevailed throughout the church.

Games, contests, and fortune telling occupied the attention of those present during the evening. This was under the supervision of Miss Catherine Wilson and James VanGorder. One of the features of the evening was a ghost walk through the church. The clever costumes added to the merriment of the evening.

At a late hour a committee served delicious refreshments as a closing event of the evening.

Ladies Entertained At Rotary Meeting

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 28.—It was quite an evening at the Slippery Rock Presbyterian church Thursday when the Ellwood City Rotary club entertained the ladies with an interesting program. A total of 44 were present at the time.

The principal speakers of the evening were Attorney J. W. Humphrey and Rev. A. M. Stevenson. The former gave an accurate and complete history of this church which is one of the oldest in the county. Rev. Stevenson spoke on the subject "The Ideals of Today."

GUEST SPEAKERS

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 28.—Rev. J. E. Caughey, pastor of the Wurtemburg U. P. church, will be the special guest speaker at the New Galilee U. P. church this evening at their quarterly preparatory services.

Rev. W. E. Minteer, pastor of the Ellwood U. P. Church, will have charge of the evening services at the Mountville church tonight. This will be followed by Communion services on Sunday, which will conclude the 125th anniversary week of the organization.

Celebrate 40th Anniversary At Duncan Home

Family Gathers To Honor Mr. And Mrs. W. G. Duncan Last Night

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 28.— Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Duncan were delightfully surprised at their home on Glen avenue last evening when their children and grandchildren gathered there to honor them on their 40th wedding anniversary. Incidentally October has been quite an active month for members of this family. Mr. and Mrs. Earl E. Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Duncan, and Dr. and Mrs. Charles Bisceglia all of this city celebrated some anniversary this month in their own family.

Those gathered at the Duncan home last night enjoyed an interesting social evening with games, contests, and chat. Refreshments were served at a late hour. Before departing Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Duncan were wished many more happy anniversaries.

Many Prizes To Be Awarded Hallowe'en

Nearly 150 Merchants Make Donations For Big Celebration Here Next Monday

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 28.—Those being fortunate enough to break into the prize-winning column as a result of the big Hallowe'en celebration to be held in Ellwood City next Monday night will have many prizes to choose from.

About 150 local merchants have contributed everything from money and luxuries to the necessities of life. There will be many prizes awarded for the best costumes.

W. B. A. Has Fine Hallowe'en Party

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 28.—Nearly a full attendance featured the meeting of the W. B. A. lodge in the Schweiger Hall last night. It was the occasion for their annual Hallowe'en party.

The members came attired in clever costumes for which Mrs. Bert Miller and Frank Alfonso won awards. After a period of fun and games those present settled down for an evening of 500 and bingo. Mrs. Minnie Anderson and Mrs. Suzzane Stevenson were the winners of prizes in each respectively.

The events of the evening wre brought to a conclusion with the serving of delightful refreshments. The next meeting will take place in two weeks.

R. Q. S. Club Has Hallowe'en Party

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 28.—A most enjoyable evening was held by the members of the R. Q. S. Club when they assembled at the home of Mrs. Howard White on First avenue last night. The meeting was in the form of a Hallowe'en party. Twenty were present including special guests.

Games, contests and cards were in vogue throughout the evening in the pleasing atmosphere of Hallowe'en appointments. Six tables of the latter were in play. Prizes as a result went to Mrs. James Lusher and Mrs. James Haswell.

A luncheon served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Elmer Stevenson closed the evening's festivities. The regular meeting of the club will be held on next Thursday at the home of Mrs. N. J. Gordon on College street.

Jeannie Michlich Is Club Hostess

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 28.—Dispensing pleasing hospitality Miss Jeannie Michlich received the members of the N. N. N. club at her home on Fountain avenue last night for their regular meeting.

All were present at the time who gathered around two tables for an evening of bridge. At an appointed hour the hostess served delightful refreshments much to the pleasure of those present.

The next meeting of the club will take place in two weeks at a place to be later determined.

MASQUERADE PARTY AT CHURCH

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 28.—One of the most enjoyable events of the Hallowe'en season took place last evening when the members of the Epworth League of the Wurtemburg M. E. church held a masquerade in the church basement. Thirty "mummers" took part in the activities.

The basement was cleverly decorated for the affair with the usual black cats, witches, etc. Much merriment ensued with the unmasking and after many games and contests had held the interest of everyone until a late hour delicious refreshments were served by Miss Pauline Boots and Miss Agnes Smith after which everyone departed for home voting the affair a decided success.

Ellwood High To Invade Monaca

Benedict Men Are Ruled As Favorites Upon Eve Of Game, Saturday

MONACA IS NO SET UP, COACH WARNS

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 28.—A determined and revamped Ellwood High school football team will invade Monaca, Saturday afternoon, for the annual game with Coach Berkman's eleven which for years has been a popular battle.

Ever since Monaca spoiled a perfect season for the Blue and White team in 1927 after being the underdogs, the locals have always trained hard for this game. For five years now Monaca has been trimmed soundly by a local eleven which is determined to repeat again Saturday.

Ellwood followers will witness a change when the opening whistle blows. "Spungo" Vandrello has been largely ignored this week by the coaches and every indication shows that he will not see battle tomorrow. Vandrello who has been a fine performer in the backfield for the past two years has been unable to get going for some reason or other. His showing to date nowhere reaches the excellent ability revealed last year.

Paal In Backfield

Vandrello is being replaced by Mike Paal, capable left guard. This switch was prompted by his ability as a punter and passer and according to his showing in the workouts this week, he will be a hard ball carrier to stop. This is Paal's fourth year out for football. In his first two he went out for the backfield. The latter two he has played as varsity guard. Paal has been called from the line to do the punting in which capacity he was brilliant. He outpunted Captain DeCarbo at New Castle last week.

Revamped Lineup

Paal's guard position will be filled by either Steckman or Demas, more than likely the latter. Both are capable men. Harry Ott who has played a fine defensive game for the past several weeks in the Ellwood backfield may not start tomorrow. Don Howells seems to be getting the preference this week at the right half job. The remainder of the lineup with the exception of Captain Joe Welsh will be intact.

Welsh Is Out

Coach Benedict definitely announced that Captain Welsh is out for the rest of the season. Welsh is recuperating from severely injured and strained ligaments at the Ellwood City Hospital where he was brought following the New Castle game last Friday. He was injured early in the second quarter.

This announcement was quite a blow to the team and to Welsh himself. He is an ardent follower of the grid sport and seemed to eat, play, and sleep it. He was an ideal captain for the team. Besides being an earnest, hard fighting player, he was clean in body and spirit, one who was always fit. Welsh would never quit no matter what the score would be.

The result of this will have Barnes and Johnson at the ends, two capable players who have seen much action. Ellwood is rather hard hit for replacements in this position. Viniski is a fine performer but his light weight is holding him back. Coach Ferrare is grooming Jimmy Loccisiano for a wing berth and he may see action Saturday. Another interesting change is the advancement of Persons from the third to the second sting backfield. This has been expected for some time by local fans.

Monaca, although not having very many victories has made some remarkable showings against some of the strongest teams in Beaver Valley. They have held Ambridge, Aliquippa, and Rochester to low scores. They hold wins over Beaver and Freedom.

SEW FOR THE COMMUNITY

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 28. — In connection with the regular weekly Guild meeting of the Knox Presbyterian church the ladies of the community gathered there in the church rooms yesterday and spent the day in sewing and cutting. Mrs. Frank Kliendenst is general chairlady and Mrs. Joseph Ford, Mrs. Carl Matthews and Mrs. C. J. Craven are in charge of the machines, sewing and cutting. The 35 ladies present accomplished a large amount of work and a number of waists and dresses were completed.

PROGRESSIVE CLUB

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 28—Mrs. Frank Lemery was a charming hostess to the members of the Progressive Club at her home on Crescent avenue last night with all members present. The evening was spent around two tables of cards after which the hostess served delightful refreshments.

Banquet Honors Mushball Champs In Church Here

About 70 People Participate In Interesting Program Last Night

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 28.—A formal recognition for their championship ability was tendered the B. Y. M. mushball team in the church dining room Thursday evening when about 70 people gathered there to pay them due honor.

The team which has lost only one game for the whole season in the church league held select places about the large dining table. Coach George "Ganzy" Benedict and Mike Ferrare were special guests on the occasion and responded with a few well chosen words when called upon.

After disposing of an elaborate dinner an interesting program was carried out during the evening. "Chief" Parillo was the toastmaster on the occasion and introduced the speakers of the evening. Addresses were heard from several players, two managers and Rev. Fr. Vincent Galliano, pastor of the church.

The highlight of the evening was the presentation of the championship trophy to the team and church by William Latiano, president of the Y. I. C. C. of this church, who was high in his tribute to the church mushball players.

Scoutdom Honors Nearly 100 Boys

"Honor Court" Lauds Youths Of North District At Church Rally

Proud parents watched their ambitious sons walk before Lawrence county's highest Boy Scout tribunal, the Court of Honor, in a ceremony last night that attracted nearly 150 persons to the Sunday school assembly hall of the First Presbyterian church. Honors were bestowed on approximately 100 boys.

The colorful award program, scout leaders commented, will go down in Lawrence county scout history as one of the largest attended and most enthusiastic court sessions held.

Presiding over the court bench were members of the north district's Court of Honor, including Scout Commissioner Ralph F. Davis, L. H. McCamic, O. P. Fink, A. S. Hainsworth, Frank Fischer, Howard Kirk, Jr., and Sidney L. Smith. Ray Ziegler assistant scoutmaster of Troop 15 assisted the courts secretary, Scout Executive H. G. Horton.

One by one the Boy Scout applicants were summoned before the award tribunal and swiftly the honors were bestowed.

After the scout's recognition, the tribunal turned its hands to officially recognizing groups and individual scouts for their recent achievements in the north districts't outdoor rally. Two outstanding scoutmasters, Ralph F. Davis and Sidney Smith, both of the tribunal, were given the official scoutmaster's key for completing required training courses.

Council President L. B. Round, speaking for the council organization, made the presentations to Davis and Smith. Here he took time to speak briefly of the part Scoutdom can offer in the argument for a full Community Chest.

Attractive camp jamboree emblems, won by different council troops during the past summer were also presented on behalf of the general headquarters of Region Three.

The next tribunal assembly will be on November 22.

Farley Denies Funds Letter

Chairman Of Democratic National Committee Denies Ever Asking Canadian For Funds

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—James A. Farley, chairman of the Democratic national committee, raises a question of veracity between himself, the Montreal Star and the Chicago Tribune, in denying he ever solicited funds from a Canadian shipping man, the Republican national committee declared today.

The declaration continued the verbal barrage waged between the two camps, after the publishing of such a story in the Canadian newspaper and the Chicago Tribune.

The Star said that a prominent local shipping man had received a letter from Farley "asking him to agree that the United States needs a change in public administration," and advising him now contributions could be made.

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle.

When the starting whistle blows next Tuesday for the small game season, it will see the woods in this district well stocked with rabbits, and birds, according to the general information extant at the meeting of the sportsmen last night.

It was the first meeting of the fall season and the talk was on the coming season, the new restrictions, the possibilities of a full bag in one day and what about the deer season. Get a group of hunters or fishers together and the time shoots around faster than at an old fashioned kaffeeklatsch.

One story that Art Mee insisted upon telling was about the time Charley Withers shot two rabbits with one load of shot, and never saw either one of the two he knocked over. It has been some years ago but Mee insists the story is true.

Seems the two were out after rabbits and Charley got a fleeting glimpse of a flying cotton tail. Pulling up his gun he let 'er go but the rabbit never even noticed it. Mee yelled that he had missed the rabbit completely, but was just a trifle overcome when Withers walked into the thicket and brought two rabbits that had been hit by the barrage of shot.

President Andy Dodds made a suggestion at last night's meeting that would be a help to the trout if carried out. When you are out along a trout stream this fall, throw in a limb or a log here and there that will back up a little water and help the trout. They like pools and their their food is more likely found in such spots.

This is one of the two days when you can leave a donation of canned foodstuffs at the Jameson Memorial Hospital. Anything you have canned will be acceptable and by tomorrow noon there should be a heap of goods piled in the lobby.

Hospitals are like a lot of other modern conveniences, we all take them too much for granted. In a general way we know they are open every minute of the day and night ready to receive us in case of accident or sickness, but the thought seldom occurs to the most of us that they need help occasionally.

No hospital can ever hope to be self supporting, unless a huge endowment fund is provided. The very nature of the work means that they will always be facing a deficit at the end of the year, and this should not be. We pay thousands out for protection of all kinds, insurance against fire and theft, and yet the greatest protection we have, that against disease and accident, we take for granted.

DANDRUFF
Ends Overnight!

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely, and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get plain ordinary liquid arvon apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and two or three more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. (It won't cost you more than thirty-five cents.) This simple remedy never fails.

LETTERS TO THE NEWS

Letters Intended For This Column Must Be Signed With Name And Address Of Writer.

DISCUSSES CONDITIONS.

Editor Of The New Castle News:

For 20 years we taxpayers have been enjoying a "Rip Van Winkle" sleep. We are just beginning to see facts as they are.

We have given too many of our rights to the state.

Taxation without representation was tyranny before the war of the Revolution. Is it any less tyranny in 1932? Has not graft taken the place of King George III?

We owe allegiance to our state but not to officials who do not care for anything but money.

One-fourth of our earnings are swallowed up by cost of government. Over 30 percent of the farms of the United States are gone—entirely eaten up by taxes.

We do not have enough to eat because of taxes.

In schools, especially, we country people should have the right to decide what we want. An eleven months school term is being advocated. It may be allright for cities to keep children off the streets but country life is an entirely different condition.

Here are the ideas submitted by the Clarion County Taxpayers League.

A pre-war or 1913 scale of salaries beginning with the president and cabinet and then the governors and their staff, on down to the county officials and those of township and borough.

All commissions and departments that have been established in the last 20 years should be eliminated for the present.

One thing that should be done is to remove farm lands from being taxed for road purposes. The maintainance for that should come from taxes levied on gasoline, auto licenses and driver's licenses.

Also each one should be taxed on his or her earning capacity. Hundreds of people earn from five to ten thousand dollars and pay no more tax than a man working one day a week. Use incomes as a tax basis. We are told that an income tax bill will not pass at Harrisburg. Is not the reason plain to be seen?

We need to send some new men to represent us if representation it is.

Yours for justice,
M. McCALLA,
Enon Valley,
Rural Route 2.

MILLBURN

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Cummings and daughters visited friends in Warren, O., on Sunday.

Edwin Armstrong accompanied his cousin Paul Baker to New York on the silk mill truck last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Blake had as Sunday dinner guests, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Cummings and S. T. Mercer.

Mr. and Mrs. George Barber and baby of Ambridge spent several days last week with Mr. Barber's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Blake and children, attended a birthday party in honor of Charles Mercer, at the home of the latter on Saturday evening.

Mrs. John Wilson and little sons, Mrs. Melvin Brenneman, and Mrs. Amos Weaver were guests. The next club meeting will be an all day affair with a tureen dinner at noon.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hertzog of Bentleyville, and Mrs. W. C. Stevenson of the Squirrel Hill district, Pittsburgh, were guests of their sister and cousin, Mrs. Linus Stewart.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Thompson and son spent several days with relatives and friends in Jamestown, N. Y., and North East, Pa. Mr. Thompson has returned to his work at Parkers Landing after a short vacation.

The pupils of Mt. Union school under the direction of their teacher, Marie Cox, presented a program and pie social at the school house on Thursday evening. The event was quite successful and netted the school a nice little sum.

Mesdames Christopher Fink, Harry Patterson, Fred Knauff, Lester Blake and Miss Anna Butler, were hostesses to the members of the Ladies Friendship Club on Thursday of last week. Forty-two ladies and children were present and enjoyed the social hour. A dainty lunch, seasonal in both menu and table appointments was served and a discussion of questions culinary, social and civic proved not only interesting, but educational and stimulating.
